Gospel Meditation

By Father John Muir

13th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Matthew 10:37-42

I still remember the first homily I ever preached as a new deacon. It was at the seminary, and the Gospel was this one: "Whoever loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me." (Matthew 10:37-38) Standing before more than 200 classmates and professors, I stumbled awkwardly through my words and realized how strange — almost insane — this teaching sounded. If anyone else said it, we would call it narcissistic or cultish.

And that is the point. I felt the weight of those words in my own heart then, as I still do today. Am I willing to live as though Christ's claim on my love is absolute? Are you?

Over the years, I've learned that the more I do, the more everything else makes sense. Family, friendships, vocation, even my very self: all of it falls into place when my love for Jesus comes first.

That is why he dares to speak this way. Our Lord is not a cult leader hungry for control. He is the Son of God, the source of life and love itself. To put him before everything else is not to lose, but to find...everything, and everyone, in him. This week, name one thing or one person you are tempted to place before the Lord.

Then consciously offer it back to him in prayer.

Questions of the Week

1st Reading

The Shunammite woman is rewarded for her hospitality to the prophet Elisha.

Is there a friend or colleague who needs your kindness this week?

2nd Reading

Paul teaches the Romans that as believers, we have died and risen in Christ and now look forward to living in "newness of life." Is there something you are really looking forward to?

Gospel

Jesus sets a high standard for those who choose to follow him. What have you found most rewarding about following Jesus?

Whoever receives the one sent in Christ's name receives Christ. Whoever loves the Word of God loves God Himself. Who is Christ sending to you in his name this week? What Word do they speak into the stillness of your soul? Receive them. Receive him.

Shalom World - America Prays

30 Days of Continuous Rosary for the Country

As the United States approaches the 250th anniversary of the Declaration of Independence, Shalom World has launched "America Prays: One Nation Under God," a nationwide 30-day virtual prayer initiative from June 4 to July 4, 2026, inviting the faithful across the country to unite online in continuous Rosary before the Blessed Sacrament. Held in support of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops' vision for national spiritual renewal during the nation's semiquincentennial year, the initiative emphasizes that true freedom and national renewal are rooted in the Lordship of Jesus Christ. We encourage the faithful to join in reciting one Rosary a day for the country. You can join the prayer here: shalomworld.org/America-Prays or download the FREE Shalom World app and join the America Prays LIVE channel.

Why Do We Do That? - Catholic Life Explained Works of Mercy

I've heard of the Corporal and Spiritual Works of Mercy.
What are they, and what's the difference?

As God has shown us mercy, so too are we called to show mercy to those we encounter. We see mercy throughout the Gospels, but the parable in Matthew 25 forms the foundation for the first set of Works of Mercy. This parable of the last judgment shows each person being asked how well they cared for those around them, and being reminded that this care for those in need is care for God Himself. Each person is asked if they have fed the hungry, given drink to the thirsty, clothed the naked, sheltered the stranger, cared for the sick, and visited the imprisoned. These — along with burying the dead — are the Corporal Works of Mercy, as they primarily concern the physical life of a person.

The list of the Spiritual Works of Mercy developed later. These actions of love primarily concern the inner life of a person. They are instructing the ignorant, counseling the doubtful, admonishing sinners, bearing wrongs patiently, forgiving offenses, comforting the afflicted, and praying for both the living and the dead. All of these actions are concrete ways of bringing the love of God into the world.

At St. John the Baptist Parish, time in conversation with our Lord is at the center of our lives.
