Welcome to

St. John the Baptist Catholic Church

We are a community where we welcome all as members of the Body of Christ.

We are welcoming, faithful, passionate, joyful, authentic,
sacramental, loving and charitable.

Today's Readings

Acts 2:42-47 / Ps 118:2-4, 13-15, 22-24 (1) / 1 Pt 1:3-9 / Jn 20:19-31

*"Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good, his love is everlasting."
(Ps 118)*

Gospel Meditation

By Father John Muir

A young, engaged couple sat on the couch in front of me as we chatted about their upcoming marriage. The young lady was struggling to trust her future husband. She told me her father had been unfaithful to her mother. She said of her fiancé, "I want him to prove to me that he won't cheat on me." The young man looked at me helplessly, raised his eyebrows and shrugged his shoulders. What evidence could he possibly give to validate such a proof? Nothing. All he could do was invite her to trust him.

We all are wounded by experiences of imperfect love. We also are tempted to demand from God proof of His fidelity and goodness. We are like St. Thomas the Apostle who, on that second Sunday of Easter, demands proof of the Lord's resurrection. "Unless I see the mark of the nail ... I will not believe." Our science, technology and mathematics can indeed prove a great deal. But there are some things that require trusting another person.

We prove promises of love only by trusting.

St. Thomas indeed saw the wounds of Jesus and believed. But there is an even greater blessing for us who simply trust Him — and all the truths the Church proclaims — because of the trustworthiness of the Risen One who speaks.

This week let's trust Jesus without seeing him.

Scripture Reflections

First Reading

We hear how the original believers in the risen Jesus lived in peace and harmony in Jerusalem. What could you do to promote good-will and happiness in your community of friends or co-workers?

Second Reading

Peter speaks of a "new birth" of "incredible and glorious joy" that awaits all believers "in the final time" (Jesus' Second Coming). How often do you think about your own resurrection from the dead?

Gospel

The risen Jesus says to Thomas, "Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed."
Do you consider yourself blessed in this regard?

April is Child Abuse Prevention Month Empowering Our Children

The Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People was created 20 years ago by the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops as a response to the wake of the sexual abuse crisis. Under "The Charter", as it has come to be called, dioceses must employ safe environment programs to shine light on circumstances where abuse might occur, teaching children to identify dangerous situations, and training adults to spot warning signs and to report misconduct and abuse. Our mission in the Diocese of Sacramento is to create a safe environment for children through ongoing education and discussion and to create a community of trusted and trained adults. For more information please visit: <https://www.scd.org/news/empowering-our-children>

We need devoted Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion who can volunteer a few hours per month to distribute Holy Communion to Catholic patients at Mercy Hospital of Folsom. For more information, contact John. To volunteer, email the volunteer services office at jannine.harnage@commonspirit.org to request an application.

Venerable Cornelia Connelly overcame incredible adversity caused by her husband and other men in her life to go on to form a wildly successful congregation — the Society of the Holy Child Jesus — which still operates in spiritual works of mercy in 14 countries to this day.

The Prayer of Cornelia

*Let us love one another and pray,
Let us love one another and be faithful,
Let us love one another and be humble,
Let us love one another and be filled with the charity of God.
Let us love one another with God, in God,
and for God,
And we shall thus be one with God
for all eternity.*

O God,
 You raised up St. John the Baptist to prepare a perfect people for Christ. Fill Your people with the joy of possessing His grace, and direct the minds of all the faithful in the way of peace and salvation. Grant that as St. John was martyred for truth and justice, so we may energetically profess our Faith in You, and lead others to the Way, the Truth, and Eternal Life. Amen.

At St. John the Baptist Parish, time in conversation with our Lord is at the center of our lives.

Come out and pray so that you can be a sign of God's love and hope for women and their unborn babies. We give women much needed information, free resources, and help during and after their pregnancy. "Your willingness to stand in the public square and pray for an end to abortion this Lent saved hundreds of lives, led abortion workers out of their jobs, and closed numerous abortion facilities throughout the country." Shawn Carney, President/CEO of 40 days for Life.

Wednesdays and Thursdays are our focus year round as these are late-term surgical abortion days.

A carpool on Thursdays goes out from 11:00-1:00 pm. Can you bring a folding chair and join us to help be a prayer warrior? Call Joanne.

Celebration of the Feast of Divine Mercy Sunday
April 15 (Vigil) and 16

*Jesus promised for the Feast of Mercy:
"The soul that will go to Confession and receive Holy Communion shall obtain complete forgiveness of sins and punishment." (Diary 699)*

Divine Mercy Sunday may be the greatest day of the year because of the immeasurable amount of grace Jesus promised to pour forth on this day. The message of The Divine Mercy is simple. It is that God loves us – all of us. He wants us to recognize that His mercy is greater than our sins, so that we will call upon Him with trust, receive His mercy, and let it flow through us to others.

- Chaplet of the Divine Mercy will be prayed 20 minutes before all Masses
- Consecration to Jesus, through the Divine Mercy to be prayed after all Divine Mercy Sunday Masses.
- Come celebrate the Feast Day of Divine Mercy by visiting us in the Courtyard after Mass!

At St. John the Baptist Parish, time in conversation with our Lord is at the center of our lives.

Rachel's Vineyard

Retreats for Healing after Abortion

English: April 28-30

Español: 25-27 de agosto

Rachel's Ministry is a safe place to renew, rebuild and redeem hearts broken by abortion. Weekend retreats offer a supportive, confidential and non-judgmental environment where women and men can express, release and reconcile painful abortion emotions and begin the process of restoration, renewal and healing.

For more information, call 916.733.0161 or email projectrachel@scd.org. All messages are confidential.

What is the Divine Mercy Ministry's purpose?

Contact: Leilani Badley
Leilani.badley@gmail.com.

Our purpose is to profess and proclaim the truth of the Real Presence of Jesus in the Most Holy Eucharist, and to promote, insofar as possible, Perpetual Adoration of the Most Blessed Sacrament and the hourly offering of the Divine Mercy Chaplet for the dying; pray for and encourage vocations to the priesthood and the religious life and pray and work to end the scourge of abortion in the world. We pray the Divine Mercy Chaplet every day after 8:15am mass and at 3:00pm in the Adoration Chapel. We offer Bi-Monthly or Monthly group meetings called, "Eucharist Apostles of Divine Mercy (EADM) Cenacles" in Spanish and would like to begin Cenacles in English. In these cenacles we praise the Lord for his goodness and mercy...have prayers of thanksgiving.....and praying the Divine Mercy Chaplet. Meetings deepen our understanding of Church teachings by reading and discussing passages of scripture along with the Catechism of the Catholic Church and select passages from St. Faustina's Diary. We provide food for the following ministries:
Loaves and Fishes – Monthly ministry in Sacramento – Serves 100s of people in the People's Park area on the fourth Wednesday of every month.
Help the Missionary Sisters of Charity to feed meals for between 75-100 to the poorest of the poor here in Sacramento County. We prepare the meals ahead of time and deliver them to the sisters on the First Tuesday of every odd month. We go with the sisters and actually serve the meals to those needing them.
If you are interested in any of our ministries, please contact Leilani.

At St. John the Baptist Parish, we foster a commitment to lifelong spiritual growth.

Inspiration For the Week

Doubting Thomas is a mood, and we've all had it. We hang our every hope on this sign, that proof. We challenge God: "Make me believe." To each of us he extends his wounded hand, to each of us he shows his pierced side. He will always meet us in our unbelief.

Practice corporal works of mercy by: feeding the hungry; giving thirst to the thirsty; clothing the naked; sheltering the homeless; caring for the sick; visiting the imprisoned, and burying the dead.

The Divine Mercy Ministry continues to be grateful for the generous response received in the collection of food for the homeless. You are truly sharing God's love with others less fortunate with your contributions. The collection cart remains in the church vestibule for dropping off your donations. Items most requested:

- cup-of-soups, raisins, peanuts
- peanut butter and cheese crackers
- hot chocolate packets, fruit juices
- oatmeal packets, bottled water
- nutritious granola bars, fruit cups
- creamy peanut butter, disposable bowls

Fresh fruits are welcome and should be dropped off, during church open hours, on the Tuesday the day before we distribute. We are in need of creamy peanut butter and disposable bowls. Bibles, holy cards, rosaries and religious reading materials are also appreciated. All donations will personally be handed out at Friendship Park with smiles of caring and encouragement. Thanking you in advance for your generous sharing this month. There is always joy in giving. Are you interested in driving or helping serve? Please call Greta or Catherine.

"Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these."

Jn 20:19-31

The disciples must have been very surprised when they saw Jesus alive again. They got to see him, listen to him, and touch him. We don't get to see him like the disciples did after Easter. But Jesus calls us blessed when we believe in him. One day we'll see him again in heaven.

MINISTRIES

"Here am I, Lord;
I come to do your will."

May our struggles and our concern for this planet never take away the joy of our hope.

Pope Francis, Laudato Si', 244

Catholic Climate Covenant

We can help you answer the call to care for creation and the poor through the sharing of Church teaching, our resources, and our programs. Loving God's creation and God's most vulnerable is at the heart of who we are as Catholics.

Earth Day 2023 - Simple Living: God's Vision of Abundant Life Meditation on Creation

Find a comfortable position/place for this meditation.

Breath: Take three deep breaths, filling your lungs thoroughly, holding your breath momentarily and exhaling through your mouth.

Heart: Quiet your inner self – embracing the gift of life with each breath and heartbeat. Let yourself reflect on these words of St. Hildegard of Bingen: “Human beings are the thinking heart, called to be co-creators with God in shaping the world.”

Express your gratitude for the wonders of creation's rhythm of interconnection.

Reflect: How do you feel that this most beautiful place, Earth, is threatened by destruction due to our own actions and neglect?

Ponder the call to be co-creators and not dominators and oppressors of this web of life for now and future generations.

Resolution: Come in touch with the passion/energy you feel to protect this most beautiful place, Earth. In what way(s) might you help sustain Earth's life?

(Adapted and used with permission by the Sisters of Providence of Saint Mary-of-the-Woods. Written by Sister Barbara Sheehan and Providence Associate Gene Majewski.)

Pray: God of all creation, your goodness and glory shine forth through everything you have made. Through the light of faith, help us to see this world, our common home, not as a resource to dominate and exploit, but as a gift to be cherished by all generations. Prompted by your Spirit, we ask this in the name of Jesus, through whom all creation was made. Amen. (Prayer from Catholic Charities)
