4TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

In their synagogue was a man with an unclean spirit; he cried out, "What have you to do with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are—the Holy One of God!" Jesus rebuked him and said, "Quiet! Come out of him!" - Mk 1:23-25

Welcome to

St. John the Baptist Catholic Church

We are a community where we welcome all as members of the Body of Christ.

We are welcoming, faithful, passionate, joyful, authentic, sacramental, loving and charitable.

Today's Readings

Dt 18:15-20 / Ps 95:1-2, 6-7, 7-9 [8] / 1 Cor 7:32-35 / Mk 1:21-28

"If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts."

(Ps 95)

Gospel Meditation

Most of us are quiet people who desire to live a good and holy life, promote the values and mission of the Gospel as best we can and desire to one day inherit the surprise of life eternal

God promises to us. We are not trail blazers. We are simple people who want to do the simple things of life well. But there are others who left a more profound impact along the way of the paths they walked. Folks like Dorothy Day, Martin Luther King, Thomas Merton,

Gandhi, St. Teresa of Calcutta, and many others left lasting impacts and legacies. Like Moses, they show us by word and deed who God is and what integrity and a purpose driven life look like. They show us how to be holy. We need Moses people like these to give us inspiration, hope and an example of holy living.

We do not need to do what they did or even mirror their relationship with God. Each one of us is God's special creation, with a purpose and soul known only to us. We need to learn how to open up and bring, without compromise, our soul-ness to life. We know when someone is authentic and centered because they always point to truth, even though they struggle and sin themselves, and they embody an unspoken timeless wisdom that just sounds and feels right. Jesus taught with this same type of authority and it astonished many who listened. We do not need to move mountains, advance a cause, write books or become notable. All we have to do is become credible witnesses of the faith we profess. Moses people can teach us how to do this.

St. Oscar Romero was an amazing man and a Moses figure for sure. He saw God in the burning bush and brought the flame of Gospel faith to the poorest of the poor, challenging the evils of the society in which he lived. He was tireless and persistent. He must have gotten very close to the problem because it cost him his life. He suspected it would.

St. Romero said, "When we leave Mass, we ought to go out the way Moses descended Mt Sinai: with his face shining, with his heart brave and strong to face the world's difficulties." We can learn from this wisdom. If we allow the power of the Mass to truly transform us, we will leave that holy encounter changed. Our face will shine, and we will have courage. We can then bring what we have received to life's challenges. That sounds doable, doesn't it? Because of the example of our simple holiness, people will be amazed.

Scripture Reflections

First Reading

Moses taught the Israelites that God would send prophets to assist them in knowing His will. Why do you think people so often reject the prophetic message?

Second Reading

Paul speaks of the inevitability of anxiety in life. How does your faith assist you in handling what makes you anxious?

Gospel

In the story of the healing of a demon-possessed man, Mark reports how the demons knew Jesus' true identity as "the Holy One of God." What does this reveal about the unseen order?

Spring Independent Online Scripture Studies

Contact: Lee & Teresa Weider
916-983-8065, laweider631@gmail.com

Our parish is offering a variety of individual online Scripture Studies for the Spring. This is an opportunity for parishioners to continue to work on their faith journey during this time when we can't easily get together. Study at your own pace and in your own home with online classes from Ascension Press, Augustine Institute and St. Benedict Press. The available studies include the following:

- The Gospel of John (8 weeks)
- Bible Timeline (both the 8 week study or 24 week study)
- St. Paul Letter to the Romans (8 weeks)
- Walking Towards Eternity (8 weeks)
- Lectio Eucharist (10 weeks)
- Lectio Peter (10 weeks)
- Lectio Mark (14 weeks)
- Kingdom of Happiness (8 weeks)

We have reduced the suggested donation to $20 for each study (which includes a workbook and access to the online video study) to help clear out excess inventory and provide a little financial relief to parishioners. Please call Lee or Teresa Weider if you are interested or have any questions on the studies. We'll provide the details on how the studies will work and how to get the workbook. Have a great spring and God Bless you all.

A Catholic school is a community of faith, knowledge, and service.

Parish communities have a mandate from the Gospel to preach the good news. Moreover, that is exactly what a good Catholic school does. It is another one of the ministries of a parish: to educate well-rounded individuals in Gospel values, preparing those young individuals to take their eventual place in the larger secular community. All the educational efforts of the parish school are focused on the life of faith. That faith is formed in knowledge of the teachings of the Church and of the Gospel, and those qualities are demonstrated through a life of service to the community.

O God,

You raised up St. John the Baptist to prepare a perfect people for Christ.

Fill Your people with the joy of possessing His grace, and direct the minds of all the faithful in the way of peace and salvation.

Grant that as St. John was martyred for truth and justice, so we may energetically profess our Faith in You, and lead others to the Way, the Truth, and Eternal Life.
Amen.

Through baptism, we are all called to a life of holiness. Each of us has a vocation. Each year the Church celebrates and honors men and women in religious communities with the World Day for Consecrated Life. They do so much good in the world. As the Holy Father has said, "the consecrated life appears to us just as it really is: a gift of God!"

Let us pray:

*God of all goodness,
you have called people to follow you faithfully.
Humans have heard that call and many choose to follow your call in varied and faith-filled lives.*

Some follow your call in private, silent lives as hermits; some choose to follow you with lives lived as virgins and widows; while others choose public lives of vowed men and women as religious brothers and sisters.

Abundantly give to these men and women the courage to follow their call as witnesses to your gifts and faith and service to the world.

*We ask this in faith
through the name of Jesus our Savior.
Amen.*

At St. John the Baptist Parish,
time in conversation with our Lord is at the center of our lives.

At St. John the Baptist Parish,
we foster a commitment to lifelong spiritual growth.

The Gospel According to Matthew

Presented by Deacon Jim McFadden

February 2, Tuesday, 7:00 pm

Contact: Theresa Grant
tgrant203@aol.com

*Session 14: New Beginnings—
The Resurrection is Irreversible*

We see some dramatic hints that Jesus' death was not the end: the veil of the Temple was torn, earthquake, tombs were open, the impact on the assembled Roman soldiers—all of which spoke dramatically of God's presence. All of this is a prelude to the 1st Sunday following Jesus' death and burial on Friday. The Resurrection is irreversible. That means the Incarnation is forever. These two events: the Incarnation and Resurrection are linked forever. That is the sign of hope given to the world.

If you would like to register for this study (each weekly presentation stands independently on its own!) or receive a link to view this (and the previous week's) recorded sessions, please send an email request to Theresa.

Inspiration for the Week

Most of us are not trail blazers. Throughout history though, there have been many folks who tirelessly and persistently pursued the promptings of their hearts without giving any care to what others thought or trends dictated. Jesus is one of them. St. Teresa of Calcutta and St. Francis of Assisi are examples of others. The rest of us are people who take a more measured look at things, want to test the waters, and take our time choosing what path or person to follow. We need credible witnesses of faith. We need the Moses people in our lives to show us by word and deed who God is and what integrity and a purpose-driven life looks like. They are the pointers to truth, who even though they struggle themselves, seem to embody an unspoken timeless wisdom that just sounds and feels right. Jesus taught with this same type of authority and caught the attention of the greatest of skeptics. They were astonished. Even though we need our human prophets we can also be somewhat prophetic ourselves by putting integrity and conviction behind our embrace of the Gospel. Perhaps much to our surprise, we all have the power to be a credible witness. Are you willing to give it a try?

Listening for God in our Lives

Sign up or contact:

Bill Stobbe at 916-505-3800,
bstobbe@companionedprayer.org

Join us this Lenten and Easter seasons to explore our Catholic traditions and prayers for experiencing the quiet presence of God in our lives through scripture, our daily activities, and in our hearts. Twice a week we will be introduced to:

- Lectio Divina – listening for God in scripture reading in five meetings beginning February 18
- St Ignatius' daily Examen – noticing God in our daily activities in four meetings beginning March 16
- Companioned Prayer – finding God in our hearts in five meetings plus a wrap-up meeting, beginning April 6

You are invited to pause and notice the quiet grace-filled presence of God in our lives. In each online Zoom video meeting, we will open our hearts and our faith experience as we get to know each other and these wonderful prayer practices. We will meet twice a week on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 2:00 to 3:30 PM. There will be a one week break the second week of March and another break for Holy week. An optional four-week extension will also be offered for those who wish to continue after the program.

St. Vincent de Paul Fifth Sunday Collection

This weekend, the fifth Sunday of the month, our 2nd collection will be for St. Vincent de Paul.

Although, our food pantry and clothes closet remain closed, we continue to provide financial assistance - primarily for rent. We do anticipate requests for help with utility bills in the future. As a result of your continued financial donations, we have been able to respond to the needs. Thank you. We are grateful for your ongoing support.

In addition, we were able to provide Christmas gifts to all who requested them. And we thank those who provided us with gifts and gift cards. We look forward to being able to once again put up our Giving Tree in 2021. We continue to check phone messages and receive clothing and household donations. Since we do not have regular hours, we can schedule a date and time to meet. And we look forward to the day that we can open and resume serving our families in need with food and clothing.

February 2 is exactly forty days after December 25, the nativity of Jesus. Jewish law (Ex 13:2, 12) dictated that, as the firstborn, be consecrated to God. This was done by the parents as they presented their Son in the Temple.

Jewish law further specified (Lv 12:2-8) that a mother was ritually impure after giving birth, and that she had to wait a set period of time (forty days for a boy) before she was to offer a sacrifice to the Lord for purification.

The convergence of these two Jewish regulations occasions Luke's account of both the Presentation of the Lord and the Purification of Mary. These days the liturgical emphasis is more on the Presentation of Jesus. Luke highlights the role of Simeon and Anna, two righteous Jews who recognized Jesus as the long-awaited Messiah and praised God for being able to see and experience such a marvel in their lifetimes.

Embracing Change in Christ

It's officially one month since we popped the champagne, toasted 2021 and wrote down a list of resolutions. This is usually the time when we start to take a good, hard look in the mirror to assess what we have done — or have not done — with the first month of this brand-new year.

New years can be scary, can't they? Full of promise, sure, but also full of room for failure. Full of space for our old baggage, old fears and the continuation of old mistakes.

The same can be said of Christ, and the new life he offers us, if we are brave enough to accept it. Opportunities like that can be intimidating. In that moment, we might find ourselves like the man with the unclean spirit crying out: "What have you to do with me, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us?"

Jesus is a comforter of the afflicted; he is a consoling figure, but he is also a challenging one. Sometimes we have grown attached to our afflictions. The idea of correcting bad habits or forming new ones is frankly terrifying to us. We have a voice deep inside who sees Christ and his invitation to repentance, and it cries out in fear: "I know who you are!"

When we live in the present, disavowing the baggage of the past or fear of the future, we submit ourselves to the promise of redemption. Let us be brave everyday stewards and invite Christ's healing power into our lives. We won't regret it — I'm sure the demoniac never did.

Sharing the Gospel

Grass stains. Tomato sauce. Brightly colored fruit drinks. When these nasty stains stick to your clothes, it is tough to get them out. Regular soap won't work. You need something stronger. Jesus is really strong, too. In today's Gospel, a nasty evil spirit screamed when it saw Jesus. Jesus was so powerful, he cleaned that evil spirit right out.

✝️ Mission for the Week

Make a new label for your family's stain pre-treatment bottle. Trace around the bottle, write Mark 1:21-28 in big letters, and decorate your label with a picture of Jesus. Tape your new label to the bottle so you and your parents remember how strong Jesus is.

🙏 Prayer

God, you are much stronger than evil. Nothing is too hard for you to clean.

🖍️ Read the Gospel and Color

MINISTRIES

"Here am I, Lord;
I come to do your will."

I get annoyed with myself when I am distracted while I pray.
Is it a sin? How can I be more attentive?

we need to set aside time
and space
to pray

The mind is a marvelous and complex thing, producing amazing thoughts, images, wisdom and inspiration. Yet at times it is like a two-year-old: it does not follow directions, does what it wants and loves to tell us "no!" This is probably the oldest and most common problem in the spiritual life-dealing with distraction. It comes in all forms: good intentions forgotten, wandering thoughts at Mass, daydreaming, etc. A little poem says it all: When the soul begins to pray, the brain always wants to play!

There are many ways to handle distractions. If we are distracted by thoughts about our families or friends, we should pray for them. If we lose our focus, we need just "re-collect" ourselves. If some worry or concern just won't leave our mind, then we deal with it and come back to prayer or make it part of our prayer. And when words just won't come, the only prayer we might offer is our presence, our suffering, and our desire to be close to the Lord. Most importantly, we need to be patient with ourselves. These things are not sinful, but reminders of our human frailty. Our weaknesses and good efforts are all acceptable to God, who reads the love in our hearts and the good intentions of our minds.
