Welcome to

St. John the Baptist Catholic Church

We are a community where we welcome all as members of the Body of Christ.

We are welcoming, faithful, passionate, joyful, authentic, sacramental, loving and charitable.

Today's Readings

Ez 34:11-12, 15-17 / Ps 23:1-2, 2-3, 5-6 (1) / 1 Cor 15:20-26, 28 / Mt 25:31-46

*"The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want."
(Ps 23)*

Gospel Meditation

By Father John Muir

In May 2023, for the first time in almost three quarters of a century, a monarch was crowned in England. A few days later a friend of mine scoffed, "What a waste of time and energy! What is the point of a king?"

I'm a proud American who wants neither theocracy nor monarchical restoration. I like our democratic republic. But the coronation of King Charles reminded me of something needed in every person and community: confidence in the future. The king's most basic role is to symbolize the unity of the nation. In England, the parliament members handle many of the practical duties of governance. But the king or queen can do what they cannot: embody in a single person the reality and future of a whole nation. To say, "this is our king" is to say, "we exist as a community, and we have a future." Kingship isn't primarily about the power of one person or family. It's about the enduring identity and unity of the whole.

To say Christ is our King is to say we exist as a people. We are one in him. We are, and we will be as long as he is. And since he will be our risen king forever, together we have a future filled with hope. Even the best countries will finally fall. But Christ and his Church will endure forever. What good news! It's not a waste of time to crown a king. We do it all the time. Let's be sure to crown the right one — the one whose kingdom never ends.

Scripture Reflections

First Reading

Ezekiel offers a beautiful vision to the Israelites held captive in Babylon of God as a shepherd tending carefully to the sheep in his flock who are lost, injured, or sick.

Who do you know needs to hear this message of hope?

Second Reading

Paul teaches the Corinthians how believers are destined to share in resurrected life with our Lord Jesus Christ. What do you imagine resurrected life with Christ will look like?

Gospel

The final Gospel reading of the Liturgical Year focuses on Judgement Day. All will be measured by how we treated those on the margins of society. What could you do this week to help the poor or the stranger or those in prison?

At St. John the Baptist Parish, we welcome all
as members of the Body of Christ.

Christmas Obligation

The Precepts of the Church require the minimum effort we must make to be fully nourished by the liturgical life of the Church. All Catholics are called to move beyond the minimum by growing in love of God and love of neighbor.

The Precepts are as follows:

- Attendance at Mass on Sundays and Holy Days of Obligation (All Saints, Immaculate Conception, Christmas, etc.)
- Confession of serious sin at least once a year
- Reception of Holy Communion at least once a year during the Easter season
- Observance of the days of fast and abstinence
- Providing for the needs of the Church

On this note, we want to explain about the 4th Sunday of Advent on December 24th and the Christmas obligation. These are two different obligations. We are called to attend both the Sunday liturgy and a Christmas liturgy.

The schedule is as follows:

- For the 4th Sunday of Advent, choose between Saturday, Dec. 23rd, at 5:00 p.m., or Sunday, Dec. 24th either at 7:30 a.m., 9:00 a.m., or 11:30 a.m.
- For Christmas choose between Sunday, Dec. 24th, at 4:00 p.m. (Church), 4:15 p.m. (Gallagher Hall) or Monday, Dec. 25th, at Midnight, 8:00 a.m. or 10:00 a.m.

Thank you!

Divine Mercy Ministry

December 3, Sunday after the 11:30am
Mass in the Church Chapel

All are invited to join us in praying the Divine Mercy Chaplet in English and Spanish as a family in Christ here at St. John the Baptist.

In St. Faustina's diary, Jesus asked "Say unceasingly the Chaplet that I have taught you...even if there were a sinner most hardened, if you were to recite this chaplet only once, he would receive grace from My infinite mercy." (Diary p.687)

law here in California for up to 6 months!"*

Come out to pray! You can be a sign of Christ's love for men and women and their unborn babies. It has been said by former abortion workers who have quit, that up to 75% of women seeking abortion change their minds when people are on the sidewalk praying and offering help.

A carpool goes out on Thursdays from 11am -
1pm. Contact Joanne for carpool information.

May your name be praised and converse with us. We invite you to journey with us as we seek to grow a deeper oneness with the Lord and each other!

First Saturday, Gathering December 2nd Holy Trinity Church

Come Saturday and enter into prayer, living water that lives within you. Bring a friend.

Eucharistic Revival Study

The National Eucharistic Revival is a movement to restore understanding and devotion to the Eucharist here in the United States. This 3-year revival is in its second year, which focuses on parishes across the country. During the Year of Parish Revival, Saint John the Baptist parish will host the Jesus and the Eucharist Study. The study will immerse participants in the kerygmatic proclamation and unveil God's saving work in the Eucharist.

This study will be available every Wednesday, beginning February 7 through March 20 for 7-weeks. Morning and evening sessions will be offered.

A Thursday evening Zoom session will also be available beginning February 8 and ending March 21. For our Spanish congregation this same study (in Spanish) will take place every Friday evening beginning February 9 through March 22.

Please mark your calendar to unite with fellow parishioners for this spiritually enriching parish wide small group study. Let it be your Lenten Challenge in 2024.

More information will follow in mid- December.

Jesus Is Coming to YOU

Sacramento Diocese is participating in one of the largest Eucharistic pilgrimages in history! Just as crowds followed Christ throughout his earthly ministry, our nation and diocese will process with our Eucharistic Lord through cities, along highways, and past rural towns on his way to the 10th National Eucharistic Congress. The procession comes to Sacramento from May 21-24, 2024. More information to follow.

Live the Liturgy Inspiration For the Week

God is always closer to us than we suspect. He is in every need we encounter and every person we meet. Never stop seeking His face.

Encounter

An encounter with Christ is always loving, but it may not always feel good. A true encounter challenges us because Jesus contradicts those things in our hearts that are not good. While Jesus is always for us (Romans 8:31), he opposes anything that might hurt us. When we encounter Jesus, he is an adversary against the sin in our hearts and the habits and vices that prevent us from being holy.

Recognize God in Your Ordinary Moments

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

The King Comes Holding a Mirror

Of all the many wonderful, thorough examinations of conscience I have come across, the one I normally utilize is very simple, and perfectly suited to someone like me who is not capable of profound thought at the end of the day.

It's just one very short question: Which Christs did I not recognize today?

The King always comes in disguise, and I know I miss him in so many ways every single day. I miss him in people ignored or dismissed. I miss him in opportunities avoided and in moments that could have turned into prayer but instead turned into phone-scrolling. I miss him when he is right in front of me, holding up a mirror and calling my name, begging for my conversion of heart.

The Christian life calls us to constant self-scrutiny. It's not a comfortable life, always thinking about what you could do better, but the Lord shepherds us rightly. His pastures have nothing to offer those who are perfect and strong.

He has gone in search of the lost. He has reclaimed those who have strayed, healed those who were injured, given rest to those who were weary.

We can't be followers of Christ if we are not willing to own our sins. God's mercy does not dismiss our sins, as if they never existed and were not important.

No, it does something far, far better — God's mercy absolves our sins. It sets us free from them. But to be truly free, you have to understand the tyranny of what once enslaved you.

"And he will separate them one from another, as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats." — Matthew 25:32 1 Thessalonians 5:2
