Gospel Meditation

By Father John Muir

Matthew 22:1-14

Some friends invited me to one of the most famous and expensive restaurants in the country. I was grateful and eager to go. One invited friend even flew from another state for the experience. Every bite and sip was truly memorable and delicious. But my friends' teenage children spent much of the time on their phones, complained about the food, and generally ignored the once-in-a-lifetime experience. I wanted to yell, "C'mon, you guys! Look what you're missing!"

In today's parable, Jesus describes people invited to an amazing wedding feast who respond with inexplicable indifference. He says, "Some ignored the invitation and went away, one to his farm, another to his business" (Matthew 22:5). The problem is not that they choose evil but that they allow other desires to distract them from an amazing opportunity. The feast is prepared, but their hearts are elsewhere. In Christ Jesus, God offers each of us a wildly extravagant offer: a place at the wedding banquet between heaven and earth.

What are your current excuses for the delay in engaging with Jesus? How are you postponing a deepening of your relationship with him under the guise of responsibility? The good news is that the feast is ready. His invitation remains. Hear the Lord say to us, "C'mon, guys! Look what you're missing!" Then respond with concrete action.

Questions of the Week

1st Reading

Isaiah speaks of the Lord's lavish future blessings upon all nations and peoples.

How should we, as believers, best prepare for God's future blessings?

2nd Reading

Paul sees that the key to peace of mind in all of life's circumstances is to be "empowered" by Christ Jesus.

How does your faith in Jesus strengthen you?

Gospel

In the Parable of the Wedding Feast, Jesus teaches that all who are invited to God's banquet are to be fully open and prepared. What are some spiritual exercises you practice to remain prepared for God's work in your life?

Virtues Explained

Honesty, Explained!

If the question were posed: “Who is God?” a variety of answers could be given, and more than one could be correct. The most succinct, however, would be this: God is truth. “I am the Way, the Truth and the Life,” Jesus tells his disciples (John 14:6). The pursuit of truth, he further instructs, will set them free (John 8:32) from the original untruth uttered and embraced in Eden. If God is truth, he is honored by truthfulness. Untruthfulness, not surprisingly, is synonymous with disorder and broken relationships among mankind — Eden’s everlasting legacy. The virtue of honesty, writes St. Thomas Aquinas, is “a kind of spiritual beauty” which measures the degree to which we honor one another in how we live truthfully (Sum. II:II, 145, Art 1-4). Honesty is something that must be known interiorly in order to be visible exteriorly: “Teach me your way, O Lord, that I may walk in your Truth” (Psalm 86:11).

Mt 22:1-14

Imagine how it would feel to be invited by a king to come to his palace for a party! Well, you have been invited! God wants you to come. People who ignore God will not go to heaven. Don't ignore God. Say "yes" to his invitation. Go to God's party in heaven!

Prayer

Thank you for inviting me to heaven, God.
I want to go!
