Gospel Meditation

By Father John Muir

Matthew 3:1-12

This week we hear that John the Baptist is out in the wilderness eating “locusts and wild honey” (Mark 1:6). It’s not just a strange historical detail. It’s a symbolic expression of a healthy spiritual diet. The path to Christ includes both the hard and the beautiful, the gritty and the sweet. We have to learn to gulp the locusts and savor the honey.

I remember working with a young couple preparing for marriage. They were sincere, but raw — barely beginning to discover faith. Part of me wanted to rush them ahead, to fill in all the gaps, to bombard them with scripture and church documents. I swallowed that instinct. It was like eating locusts. But I also recall them light up as they spoke about each other, about their first child, then their second. And they wanted to be close to God. Something innocent and beautiful was unfolding. That was the honey. I knew God was asking me to savor it.

This Advent, maybe we’re each being invited to accept both locusts and honey. Maybe it’s time to stop avoiding the difficult parts of faith — prayer that feels dry, the call to repentance, the patience with the troublesome.

It’s time to eat some locusts.

But we also need to notice the small gifts God gives us: a peaceful moment, a good conversation, the joy of serving someone else, new life, good intentions of our friends. That’s the honey. Savor it!

John didn’t avoid either. He took it all in. And so can we. What are your locusts? Your honey? If we let God feed us with both, we’ll be ready — really ready — for the coming of Christ.

Questions of the Week

1st Reading

Isaiah foresaw God’s future when the world will be ruled by a new and ideal ‘King David’ (“a shoot shall sprout from the stump of Jesse”) and the earth will be filled with knowledge of the Lord. What do you hope for in your future?

2nd Reading

Paul encouraged the community of believers in Rome to be in harmony with each other in thought and mind.

Are there relationships in your life you consider to be harmonious?

Gospel

John the Baptist taught the people to prepare for the kingdom of heaven by repenting of sins and producing “good fruit.”

What could you do this second week of Advent to make a positive impact?

Pope Francis’

Monthly Intention for December

Christians in areas of conflict

Let us pray that Christians living in areas of war or conflict, especially in the Middle East, might be seeds of peace, reconciliation, and hope.

\ Please note ALL monthly intentions for 2025 were chosen by the late Pope Francis at the end of 2024. Pope Leo will choose intentions for 2026.*

Live the Liturgy

Inspiration For the Week

The story of Advent is a story of repentance. John the Baptist held up a mirror to the chosen people. He urged them to look at what they saw there. This Advent, will we look in the mirror? Will we choose repentance?

Dear Parishioners,

Bishop Soto has responded to our request to move the Resurrected Christ, the Crucifix and Tabernacle.

Bishop Soto has granted permission for us to proceed with moving the Resurrected Christ into the Stations of the Cross Garden to serve as a reminder of the 15th Station: The Resurrection of the Lord. In return, the Crucifix currently there will move into the Church to serve as our reminder of his sacrifice. According to the General Instruction of the Roman Missal (GIRM) a crucifix should remain near the altar even outside of liturgical celebrations to remind us of the saving Passion of the Lord commemorated in the Holy Eucharist. During Mass, the processional cross will be placed in dignified place, so the fixed cross is the only cross used.

In addition, Bishop Soto has asked that the Tabernacle remains in its current place. Our Church was designed to have a permanent adoration space before the Tabernacle. According to the General Instruction of the Roman Missal (GIRM) the tabernacle should be placed where it "is truly noble, prominent, conspicuous, worthily decorated, and suitable for prayer."

To align our prayer postures with that placement we need to review when to genuflect or bow. When entering and exiting the Church Nave, we should genuflect in reverence FACING the Tabernacle where the Blessed Sacrament resides. Once Mass begins, and throughout the Mass, our focus is on the sacrifice taking place on the altar and we BOW to the altar for reverence.

Simbang Gabi 2025

December 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 22, 23 - 6:30pm

December 20 - 11am, December 21 - 1:30pm (Filipino Mass)

Contact: Lourdes Lorenzo

filipinoapostolate@folsomcatholic.org

Please join us in celebrating Simbang Gabi, a nine-day series of novena Masses, in preparation for the birth of the Lord Jesus and to honor our Blessed Virgin Mary. Rosary starts 30 minutes before Mass. Fellowship follows immediately after each Mass with desserts & drinks provided EXCEPT on the Dec 21 & Dec 23 potluck receptions. Bring your "parol" (Christmas lanterns) to be blessed on the first day. Filipiniana attire is encouraged on the final day. Join the movement! It all starts with prayer. Come join us in helping women and babies where they are. Planned Parenthood's main focus IS abortion. Many women stop for information from the sidewalk counselors because they don't realize they have alternatives to the "choice" they are about to make. So many resources are given and so much love and support. Not just during pregnancy but as long as needed. Former abortion clinic workers have confided that up to 75% of appointments are "no shows" when people are outside praying. St. Johns has weekly carpools. Join us on Mondays, meeting at our church at 9:30am. Contact Joanne.

Why Do We Do That? - Catholic Life Explained

Immaculate Conception

I've heard people call Jesus' conception by the Holy Spirit being "immaculately conceived."

Is that what the Immaculate Conception is?

While these two events are often confused, they are not the same thing. We celebrated the conception of Jesus on March 25th, the feast of the Annunciation. While that was surely miraculous, it isn't what we refer to as the "immaculate conception." The Immaculate Conception is Mary's conception, and we typically celebrate it on December 8th. If the 8th happens to be a Sunday, the Church moves the feast to December 9th. It is a holy day of obligation. Why does the Church consider it so important to celebrate?

Mary's conception is immaculate because she was conceived without original sin. The angel Gabriel acknowledges this when he hails Mary as "full of grace" (Luke 1:28). Scripture scholars identify several theological ideas that confirm this. In the Old Testament, the sacred, pristine Ark of the Covenant held the presence of God. The presence of God is now held within a new "arc" — the womb of Mary. Genesis 3 also prophesies of a woman who would oppose the devil and whose child would crush the devil's head. Christ is the "New Adam." This passage sets up Mary, then, as the "New Eve." Jesus and Mary are the beginnings of a new creation, one we all can participate in through the grace of our baptism. After all, God's love is more "original" than our sin!

KID'S CORNER

"Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these."

Read the Gospel and Color

Mt 3:1-12

John the Baptist taught people to get ready for Jesus. He told them to change their lives. John helped many people wash away all their mistakes and bad choices. He washed away all their cheating, lying, fighting, and stealing. Once they were clean, John wanted them to see that living God's way is so much better. John told the people not only to clean their bodies, but to show that they love God by the way that they live.

Prayer

Dear God, help my words and my choices to show that I love you.

Mission for the Week

Write a prayer to God, asking him to help you stop doing those things, and start being honest, giving and kind.
