Gospel Meditation

By Father John Muir

15th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Matthew 13:1-23

Sometimes I feel capable of absorbing almost anything except God's Word. My mind soaks up song lyrics, sports trivia, and endless online content. But what was the reading at Mass this morning? I struggle to recall. That realization discourages me, and it leads to an uncomfortable question. What is my heart really for? Is it shaped for constant information and distraction, or is it truly designed for God? Am I capable of deeply receiving His Word?

Jesus speaks directly to this today with a simple image. "The seed sown on rich soil is the one who hears the word and understands it." By comparing the Word of the Kingdom to a seed, Jesus reveals something hopeful about us. The human heart is made for that seed. Soil and seed belong together. No matter how compacted, rocky, or overgrown the ground has become, the Sower never stops sowing.

God loves our hearts. He sees them as a farmer sees his fields, full of potential. Human hearts can indeed "understand the Word." Understanding does not mean mastering information. It means letting the Word sink in, interacting with it, and giving it a home. It means trusting that, beneath the surface, God is at work in quiet and hidden ways. When we allow the Holy Spirit to loosen the soil of our hearts through prayer, repentance, and simplicity, the same Word that created the universe begins to bear fruit in us, 30, 60, even a hundredfold.

Lord Jesus, Sower of life, soften the soil of my heart. Let Your Word take root in me again, and bring forth the fruit You desire. Amen.

Questions of the Week

1st Reading

Isaiah encourages us to trust in the reliability of God's word and purposes.

When do you find yourself trusting in the Lord?

2nd Reading

Paul places his hope in God's promised future, when both people and creation itself will be freed from corruption and decay. Is there something you or your family have been hoping for lately?

Gospel

Jesus teaches his disciples to be open (be "rich soil") to the often mysterious meaning of the parables about the kingdom of Heaven. Are you someone who is open to new or different ideas?

Pope Leo's Monthly Intention for July For respect for human life

Let us pray for the respect and protection of human life in all its stages, recognizing it as a gift from God.

Live the Liturgy Inspiration For the Week

Our hearts are fertile ground for the Word of God, but we must be careful gardeners. Be conscious of what damages and depletes the soil of your heart. Pay attention to what nourishes it, so that the goodness of the Word can bloom forth into the world.

WELCOME

At St. John the Baptist Parish, we welcome all as members of the Body of Christ.

The procession will start at 5:45pm sharp! We will need four men each month to help carry the statue of Our Lady of Fatima in the procession.

Our theme this year for Vocation Bible School is Rome: Paul and the Underground Church. We need a number of items to help build our set! We would love to borrow pop up tents of various sizes. We'd love to borrow or receive donations for bed sheets and rugs. What we need most are earth tone, solid colored bed sheets (not fitted). We would also appreciate any assortment of rugs that may fit the aesthetic of biblical times.

- Pre-Confirmation for 6th graders
- Confirmation 1 and Confirmation 2 for Confirmation (For 7th through 9th graders)

Vocations Cross Program

We invite our parish families to participate. It is our hope to support the Church in her effort to pray for priests and for an increase in priestly and religious vocations.

- Each weekend a family / individual will have the opportunity to pray for vocations. Take the Cross (kit) into your home and commit to saying the prayers provided on a daily basis.
- Return the complete kit the following weekend and it will be passed to a different family.

If you would like to take the Cross home, there is a sign up binder in the vestibule on the Welcome table. Just fill in your name at the Mass you will be attending. After communion you will be called up by the celebrant to receive the kit and a special blessing. You can return it the following week at any Mass. Just place the kit by the sign up binder. For more information on Vocations visit: scd.org/vocations.

Read the Gospel and Color

Mt 11:25-30

The farmer is God. The seed is God's Word. That makes the soil your heart. If your heart is angry or stubborn, God's Word can't sink in. If your heart is shallow, God's Word can't take root. Instead, you will worry about getting power or riches. If your heart is discouraged by people who hate God, your faith will choke. If your heart is soft, God's Word will change your life, and it will show.

Prayer

God, help my heart to be soft. Help your Word to change my life.
