Gospel Meditation

By Father John Muir

Matthew 11:2-11

When I was 11, I was riding my bike on a Friday night in Scottsdale, Arizona. I saw giant spotlights swirling in the sky. Something amazing had to be happening. I pedaled after them with excitement. Sweaty and tired, I arrived, only to find a used car lot. Bright lights, flapping banners, inflatable balloon men swaying wildly in the wind. I stood there, heart sinking. All that spectacle, and all my effort ... for this?

As life proceeds, we learn what it is like to pursue promising but fruitless searches. This week we hear Jesus ask the crowds regarding John the Baptist: "What did you go out to the desert to see? A reed swayed by the wind?" (Matthew 11:7). He's not just describing the crowd's mis-aimed pursuit. He's naming our tendency to chase after what's flashy but flimsy.

What are our swaying reeds? For me, it is endless video reels on my phone, worldly pleasures, entertainment in sports, and the good opinion of others. Inflated distractions that bend whichever way the wind blows. But they can't satisfy my soul. What are your flimsy reeds?

John the Baptist wasn't a swaying reed. He was rooted, grounded, unafraid to speak the solid truth. The people went to see him because, deep down, they were starving for something real.

This Advent, the Church asks us to reassess: What are we really looking for? Are we chasing the dazzling but hollow? Or are we seeking what is solid and lasting — that which points to Christ?

Questions of the Week

1st Reading

The prophet Isaiah taught his community to "be strong, fear not!" because God has planned a remarkable future where both the people and the land will be restored. Is there a friend or co-worker who needs your encouragement this week?

2nd Reading

James encourages his community to be patient and firm of heart in waiting for the coming of the Lord. What are you waiting for during this Advent season?

Gospel

In prison, John the Baptist seemed uncertain about who Jesus is. Who do you talk to when you have questions about Jesus?

December is dedicated to:

The Immaculate Conception

Pope Francis'

Monthly Intention for December

Christians in areas of conflict

Let us pray that Christians living in areas of war or conflict, especially in the Middle East, might be seeds of peace, reconciliation, and hope.

\ Please note ALL monthly intentions for 2025 were chosen by the late Pope Francis at the end of 2024. Pope Leo will choose intentions for 2026.*

Live the Liturgy

Inspiration For the Week

"Go and tell what you have seen and heard," Jesus says. When it comes to proving who he is, he always lets his actions do the talking. We have heard. We have seen. We must go and tell. Let's let our actions do the talking. Who do we think Jesus is?

Confessions During Advent

Additional hours for confession will be added on the Saturdays of Advent. Confessions will be offered 2pm—4:30pm.

Dear Parishioners,

Bishop Soto has responded to our request to move the Resurrected Christ, the Crucifix and Tabernacle.

Bishop Soto has granted permission for us to proceed with moving the Resurrected Christ into the Stations of the Cross Garden to serve as a reminder of the 15th Station: The Resurrection of the Lord. In return, the Crucifix currently there will move into the Church to serve as our reminder of his sacrifice. According to the General Instruction of the Roman Missal (GIRM) a crucifix should remain near the altar even outside of liturgical celebrations to remind us of the saving Passion of the Lord commemorated in the Holy Eucharist. During Mass, the processional cross will be placed in dignified place, so the fixed cross is the only cross used.

In addition, Bishop Soto has asked that the Tabernacle remains in its current place. Our Church was designed to have a permanent adoration space before the Tabernacle. According to the General Instruction of the Roman Missal (GIRM) the tabernacle should be placed where it "is truly noble, prominent, conspicuous, worthily decorated, and suitable for prayer."

To align our prayer postures with that placement we need to review when to genuflect or bow. When entering and exiting the Church Nave, we should genuflect in reverence FACING the Tabernacle where the Blessed Sacrament resides. Once Mass begins, and throughout the Mass, our focus is on the sacrifice taking place on the altar and we BOW to the altar for reverence.

Why Do We Do That? - Catholic Life Explained The Morning Offering

There are many variations of the Morning Offering, but all share the same purpose: to begin each day by offering oneself to God, along with all the experiences, struggles and blessings that the day will bring. The ancient Israelites practiced the bikkurim ("first fruits") as described in Deuteronomy, chapter 26. This was a ritual by which the first fruits of the harvest were offered back to God in a sacrificial act of gratitude and obedience. The theology behind the Morning Offering is similar: giving to God the first moments of each day. The most traditional form of the Morning Offering, attributed to Fr. François-Xavier Gautrelet, begins "O Jesus, through the Immaculate Heart of Mary, I offer you my prayers, works, joys, and sufferings of this day, for all the intentions of your Sacred Heart..." A full version of this text can be found at usccb.org/prayers/morning-offering.

SPIRITUAL GROWTH

At St. John the Baptist Parish, we foster a commitment to lifelong spiritual growth.

Companioned Prayer Advent Series

Companioned Prayer Ministry

Tuesday, December 16, 10-11:30am, Church Chapel

Contact: Bill Stobbe or Dcn. Bill Goeke

companionedprayer@folsomcatholic.org

Our first two sessions of our Special Parish Advent Series were terrific! Come and experience our third session in the church chapel this Tuesday, even if you missed the first two. Be refreshed in the loving heart of Jesus this Advent in scripture and interior prayer as we inquire, "What does your heart long for?" The evening prayer schedules during December are intermittent due to other scheduled activities. Please contact Deacon Bill Goeke about attending any evening.

Respect Life Ministry

Planned Parenthood: 201 29th and B Sts, Sacramento

Diocesan Contact: msammartino@scd.org

St. John's Contact: Joanne Dudgeon

916-607-2228, respectlife@folsomcatholic.org

Join the movement! It all starts with prayer. Come join us in helping women and babies where they are. Planned Parenthood's main focus IS abortion. Many women stop for information from the sidewalk counselors because they don't realize they have alternatives to the "choice" they are about to make. So many resources are given and so much love and support. Not just during pregnancy but as long as needed. Former abortion clinic workers have confided that up to 75% of appointments are "no shows" when people are outside praying. St. Johns has weekly carpools. Join us on Mondays, meeting at our church at 9:30am. Contact Joanne.

Shalom World TV

Jesus: Good News for Everyone

Shalom World has created a special page at shalomworld.org/Christmas to help the Catholic faithful prepare for this Advent and Christmas season by focusing on the true meaning of Christmas. The page features powerful documentaries, testimonials, an Advent retreat, musical programs, children's programming, films, and many other inspiring TV series—Catholic faith-filled content to help families celebrate the birth of Jesus. These resources are designed to accompany every member of the family through uplifting stories, global traditions, and meaningful inspirations, helping bring Jesus back into homes as we celebrate the real reason for Christmas. There are no ads or paywalls—everything on the page is entirely free. Scan the QR code for the page.

Advent: A Series of Expectation

Monday, December 15

7 pm, Via Zoom

Contact: Theresa Grant, tgrant@talkpathlive.com

Join us for the final session of this series. Advent is a season of expectation—both for the final coming of the Lord Jesus and for the annual celebration of his birth at Christmas. This series tries to capture the spirit of Advent through the liturgical prayers, Scripture readings, and poetry. Special attention is given to the three great figures of Advent: The Blessed Virgin Mary, John the Baptist, and the prophet Isaiah. Session blurbs are available on our parish website under the Ministry Events/News section of the home page. To register for the series, please email Theresa Grant. Weekly attendance is not required.

For more of Dcn. Jim's Scripture, reflections and ongoing faith-formation visit his blog at www.deaconjim.blog.

Read the Gospel and Color

Mt 11:2-11

Name someone that you think is very important. Jesus said that John the Baptist was the greatest man ever born. John the Baptist did not live in a big house or wear nice clothes. He was not the president, and he did not own a huge company. You would probably think he was very poor. But John the Baptist was truly great because he loved and trusted God with his whole heart. He helped other people follow God, too.

Prayer

Dear God, show me ways to help my friends follow God, too.
