Welcome to

St. John the Baptist Catholic Church

We are a community where we welcome all as members of the Body of Christ.

We are welcoming, faithful, passionate, joyful, authentic, sacramental, loving and charitable.

Today's Readings

Acts 2:42-47 / Ps 118:2-4, 13-15, 22-24 [1] / 1 Pt 1:3-9 / Jn 20:19-31

"Then he said to Thomas, "Put your finger here and see my hands, and bring your hand and put it into my side, and do not be unbelieving, but believe." "
(Jn 20:27)

Gospel Meditation

A person was going through a very dark time, questioning the meaning of life, not feeling very purposeful or worthwhile, and feeling disconnected and unappreciated. Suddenly, they gazed up at the night sky, found themselves in awe of all the stars and constellations, and exclaimed, "I am here on purpose and I am loved!" Having been brought by God to this moment of intense connection and awareness, his life changed from that moment on.

If we are always preoccupied with the challenges, obligations, and stuff of daily life, we can easily miss the wonderful opportunities when the resurrected Christ is knocking at our door. If we open ourselves to the fullness of experience, we will find ourselves listening and embracing all that is around us, being caught up in the magnificence of creation's grandeur and knowing in our heart and soul that God is and I am.

While that sounds like a simple, tell-me-something-I don't-know kind of revelation, it is life changing when it takes root in the depth of a person's soul. Stumbling upon this awesome truth and internalizing it doesn't require an assent of the mind. It beckons for a claim on our soul. We find ourselves knowing something profound that cannot be explained or reasoned, but purely is. When we are caught up in an experience and encounter the truth, it doesn't matter how all of the pieces got put together. Truth is simply truth. The "my Lord and my God" responses we utter are not evoked because all of the pieces of faith and life make reasonable sense. The "my Lord and my God" affirmations come when we are lifted up out of our preoccupations and silliness and are in the presence of mystery and mercy.

God is mystery, one who is beyond our grasp but at the same time within our reach, knowable yet unknowable. And when in the presence of mystery, there comes an intense experience of mercy. We know deep within the essence of ourselves — and in the very life of creation — this beating, unconditionally accepting, life-sustaining, profound, mysterious yet familiar presence of love. We have found our peace. "Peace be with you." Breathe in and breathe out. Peace.

Scripture Reflections

First Reading

According to Luke, the original community of believers in Jerusalem met daily to pray, break bread, and commit themselves to the teaching of the Apostles. When have you experienced a similar level of communal harmony?

Second Reading

The First Letter of Peter opens with a prayer of thanksgiving for the blessings received from the resurrection of Jesus. In what ways do you show gratitude for Jesus' resurrection from the dead?

Gospel Reading

John is the only evangelist to record the episode of Thomas' initial doubt in Jesus' resurrection. What role does doubt have in your spiritual journey?

Vacation Bible School

Due to the effects of COVID-19 the decision has been made to cancel Vacation Bible School for this year. With the uncertain timeline of the virus, we don't want to endanger any of our parishioners, catechists, helpers, or children. We apologize for the inconvenience but we truly feel this is the best move at this time. Please continue to pray for an end to the pandemic.

Earth Day 2020

Earth Day 2020: Climate Action

April 22, Wednesday

catholicclimatecovenant.org

As people of faith, we are convinced that "the earth is the Lord's and all it holds" (Ps 24:1). We believe our response to global climate change should be a sign of our respect for God's creation

The Saint Francis Pledge

All across our country, Catholics are taking the St. Francis Pledge to Care for Creation and the Poor. The St. Francis Pledge is a promise and a commitment to live our faith by protecting God's Creation and advocating on behalf of people in poverty who face the harshest impacts of global climate change. Commit to act on each of the five elements.

- PRAY and reflect on the duty to care for God's Creation and protect the poor and vulnerable.
- LEARN about and educate others on the causes and moral dimensions of climate change.
- ASSESS how we-as individuals and in our families, parishes and other affiliations contribute to climate change by our own energy use, consumption, waste, etc.
- ACT to change our choices and behaviors to reduce the ways we contribute to climate change.
- ADVOCATE for Catholic principles and priorities in climate change discussions and decisions, especially as they impact those who are poor and vulnerable.

Divine Mercy Sunday

Divine Mercy Sunday may be the greatest day of the year because of the immeasurable amount of grace Jesus promised to pour forth on this day. In the private revelation Jesus made a specific promise to Saint Faustina about Divine Mercy Sunday:

"On that day . . . The soul that will go to Confession and receive Holy Communion shall obtain complete forgiveness of sins and punishment." (Diary, 699)

Pray with us today:

After viewing Mass

1) The Chaplet of Divine Mercy.

2) The Act of Consecration to Jesus –

The Divine Mercy

At 3:00 pm – The hour of great mercy:

In His revelations to St. Faustina, Our Lord asked for a special prayer and meditation on His Passion each afternoon at the three o'clock hour, the hour that recalls His death on the cross.

- 1) Pray for those who are dying within that hour.
- 2) Please pray for all of the victims of this deadly Covid-19 Virus, all healthcare workers, those working in the frontlines including those public sector workers, grocery store workers, and those serving others during this most difficult time.

Prayer of Pope Francis During the Coronavirus Pandemic

O Mary,
you always shine on our path
as a sign of salvation and of hope.

We entrust ourselves to you, Health of the Sick,
who at the cross took part in Jesus' pain,
keeping your faith firm.

You, Salvation of the Roman People,
know what we need,
and we are sure you will provide
so that, as in Cana of Galilee,
we may return to joy and to feasting
after this time of trial.

Help us, Mother of Divine Love,
to conform to the will of the Father
and to do as we are told by Jesus,
who has taken upon himself our sufferings
and carried our sorrows
to lead us, through the cross,
to the joy of the resurrection. Amen.

Under your protection, we seek refuge,
Holy Mother of God. Do not disdain the entreaties of we who are in trial, but deliver us from every danger,
O glorious and blessed Virgin.

*"Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good, his love is everlasting."
(Ps 118)*

Prayer and Reflection Resources

Folsomcatholic.org

At the top of the website is a box titled “Catholic Resources” Clicking on it will bring you to the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops’ page where you can find various resources to support prayer and engagement during these difficult days.

FORMED.org

FORMED On Demand is an online media library which includes: video-based study programs, feature films, audio presentations, and eBooks. The website includes content for all ages and all levels of engagement with the Church.

A link to FORMED is available through our parish website under About Us>>Resources >> Continued Learning. Once on the FORMED website type in Folsom in the “Find your Parish or Organization” box then select St. John the Baptist. Click “Next” then enter your name and email to create your own personal account.

With the current situation dealing with the coronavirus pandemic and the necessity to stay at home, we hope that everyone makes use of this valuable resource that the parish is providing to deepen and enrich our Catholic faith.

Inspiration of the Week

Have you ever experienced awe? Awe is commonly defined as a feeling of reverential respect mixed with fear or wonder. A moment of awe has the ability to lift us up out of ourselves and immerse us into something that causes us to wonder about ourselves, the meaning of life, and truth. Awe is an experience of connection that links us to something that is beyond the normal happenings of life. For us who believe that the resurrected Christ is present in all of life and the totality of the universe, being touched by awe can lead us to exclaim, “My Lord and my God!” Pondering the vastness of God’s presence also brings us to a profound sense of God’s mercy, which is the showering of His unconditional love on each of His daughters and sons. When we internalize this mystery, we may find ourselves standing in awe once again and feeling an intense sense of peace.

Give Yourself Completely

The early days of the first Christian community were not easy by any measurement. Jesus had been executed, and his disciples had to be discreet so as not to meet a similar fate. Jesus was now risen, but the truth of his resurrection was not accepted by all. However, the depiction of that early community in Acts 2:42-47 would lead someone to believe it was the opposite situation. We are told of community life where people lean on each other and share great joy. They ate and prayed together, and many wonders and signs were occurring to lift the community and bear witness to the power of Jesus Christ. They were disciples living out their faith, and it was their strong sense of stewardship that made all this possible in the face of threatening Roman and Jewish powers.

Today, we find the Church in a new turmoil. Increasing secularism, abuse scandals, and a lack of true fidelity place us once again in a time that is not easy. A friend of mine likes to say that any challenge of sin we encounter in the Church has its origin in a lack or misunderstanding of the stewardship way of life. We create our burdens by not using our gifts wisely and by turning inward selfishly.

Could we use the story in Acts of the early Church to help us today? If we begin with the decision to give of ourselves completely to God and His people, will we become agents of change? There is only one way to find out.

Loaves and Fishes

"Where Charity And Love are, God is there"

The Divine Mercy Ministry is continuing to collect food for the homeless at Friendship Park. With the church remaining open for private prayer during the week 8am-4:30pm and 7am-6pm on the weekend, it will be possible for you to leave your donations on the designated cart in the vestibule. Whatever you can bring to share will be very much appreciated. Items most requested are cup-of-soups, peanut butter and cheese crackers, juice boxes and oatmeal packets, Nutra and breakfast bars, raisins and fruit cups. All will be dropped off April 22. Thank you for your participation and our continued prayers for the homeless, our parish and community.

Make Your Donations Online

Please remember although the services are put on hold for the time being, parish operations continue; bills are to be paid, staff need to be given their salaries, facilities' maintenance are needed. Your weekly envelopes can be mailed to the parish office or use the online giving.

With online giving you can give a single donation or recurring donations to our church, specific parish ministries, or Diocesan appeals, etc.

Please sign up on our website. Click on the "Give" button located at the top of our home page. This will take you to the "Time, Talent, & Treasure" page. Once there go to the heart and click on "Give Online" and fill out the form and submit.

Sharing the Gospel

The disciples must have been very surprised when they saw Jesus alive again. They got to see him, listen to him, and touch him. We don't get to see him like the disciples did after Easter. But Jesus calls us blessed when we believe in him. One day we'll see him again in heaven.

I come to do your will."

Lighter Side

LET

Home in Heaven

A pastor and a taxi driver both died and went to heaven. St. Peter was at the pearly gates waiting for them.

"Come with me," said St. Peter to the taxi driver.

The taxi driver did as he was told and followed St. Peter to a mansion. It had everything you could imagine, from a bowling alley to an Olympic-sized swimming pool.

"Wow, thank you," said the taxi driver.

Next, St. Peter led the pastor to a rugged old shack with a bunk bed and a little old television set.

"Wait, I think you are a little mixed up," said the pastor. "Shouldn't I be the one who gets the mansion? After all, I was a pastor, went to church every day, and preached God's word."

"Yes, that's true," said St. Peter. "But during your sermons, people slept. When the taxi driver drove, everyone prayed."

What Next?

God was talking to one of his angels and said, "Do you know what I have just done? I've just created a 24-hour period of alternating light and darkness on Earth. Isn't that great?"

The angel said, "Yes, but what will you do now?"

God said, "I think I'll call it a day."
