Welcome to

St. John the Baptist Catholic Church

We are a community where we welcome all as members of the Body of Christ.

We are welcoming, faithful, passionate, joyful, authentic, sacramental, loving and charitable.

Today's Readings

Is 35:1-6a, 10 / Ps 146:6-7, 8-9, 9-10 / Jas 5:7-10 / Mt 11:2-11

"Lord, come and save us."

(Ps 146)

Gospel Meditation

Life can leave us feeling dark and desolate. Sandy was just twenty-eight when her husband, Rob, died, leaving her to raise their two young children. She was without paid employment.

Rob went to work one morning and never returned home. Sandy, though, had faith and trusted that somehow God would help her through, even though most days brought deafening, piercing loneliness. She persevered, and the darkness gave way to light.

Remarking one day to a friend hesitant to commit to a relationship, Sandy shared her wisdom. Even if she knew the outcome would be the same, she would marry Rob again.

She assured her friend that she would even do this if eight years could only be eight minutes.

We are being led by God and God transforms the darkness into light.

"Be strong, fear not!" Those are easy words to say. Putting them into practice is the challenge. When our paths are dark and life's roads become treacherous, we can easily complain about life's unfinished nature. When will the pain go away? Will the loneliness ever cease? Will I experience happiness again? As the farmer needs to exercise patience with the soil, we need to do the same with our lives. We have to wait for the early and late rains to come, properly tend to our gardens, and ensure that the rich nutrients of God's merciful and tender presence continue to enrich us. God is not done. God has only just begun his work in us.

We cannot allow life to hold us captive. The systems, agendas, protocols, regulations, expectations, and unfinished business can distract us from what it means to be God's child.

Life can leave us feeling cheated, negative, and parched. All times and seasons of our spiritual and liturgical lives lead us to three virtues: faith, hope and love. Stop complaining about what is wrong and look to what God can make right! Joy that flows from the Baptist's message: in Jesus, the one mightier than he, are found healing, reconciliation, and freedom.

Christ will save us from life's distortions, illusions, and disappointments.

Do you believe this?

Scripture Reflections

First Reading

Isaiah encouraged his community to "be strong, do not fear!" since God has planned a future restoration of both the land and the people. Who in your life needs to hear words of encouragement and support right now?

Second Reading

James urges his community to be patient and non-judgmental with each other as we wait for the coming of the Lord. In what ways is this a challenge for you this Advent season?

Gospel

In today's reading, Matthew offers a glimpse into the personal relationship between Jesus and John the Baptist. Jesus has great respect for John yet counts him "least" in the kingdom of heaven. What do you think this tells us about those in the kingdom of heaven?

At St. John the Baptist Parish, we welcome all as members of the Body of Christ.

Knights of Columbus

Keep Christ in Christmas Religious Cards

Contact: SK Percy Park
916-936-6145, dbk576@aol.com

The idea of selling religious Christmas cards came about when we realized that faith-filled greeting cards were becoming more and more scarce. Over time, traditional scenes of the nativity and the Holy Family were being replaced with Santa Claus, Christmas trees and other images that minimized or displaced the real meaning of the season. Our Bishop Gallegos Council 6197 here at St. John the Baptist have been participating in this program for many years. If you would like to purchase these cards or know of anyone else that might want to purchase them these cards are sold in box packs and not individually. Cards will be available for purchase at the breakfast or contact Percy.

We praise God for the 540 babies saved, 6 abortion workers converted, and 12 abortion facilities closed. These are the outcomes that we know of during this past "40 Days for Life" campaign nationwide. There may even be more babies saved because moms don't always share this news with people outside the clinic. Thank you all for your prayers, fasting, and being a witness for life.

Our focus now are Tuesdays, Wednesdays, and Thursdays, which are late term surgical abortion days.

Prayer and help continue throughout the year so if you can come out to pray, bring a folding chair and come with us on a Wednesday leaving St. Johns at 10:30am staying from 11:00am-1:00pm. Call Joanne.

May the miracle of Our Lady of Guadalupe be a sign of warmth for you in the cold of winter and of Advent hope for a Christ Child that has redeemed the world.

Inspiration For the Week

We can often feel parched, desolate, lifeless, and dark. Even though we still engage in the business and demands of life, we find ourselves somewhat detached, disengaged, and removed. We lack joy, wonder, awe, and zest. Rather than being an experience of freedom and excitement, life holds us captive. We are tethered to systems, agendas, protocols, regulations, and expectations that go against the grain of what it means to be God's child. We find ourselves in a desert. Jesus came to release us from all of this negativity and desolation. John the Baptist announced the arrival of the One who embodies healing, reconciliation, freedom, and life. Stop complaining about what you don't have. Prepare for the arrival of the remedy to life's despair. Be strong, fear not! Christ will save us from life's distortions, illusions, and disappointments. Be patient. With proper time and care, all will be well.

11-Day Catholic Pilgrimage to Italy

Join Fr. Jovito Rata & Fr. Renier Siva

May 29 - June 8, 2023

$3,995

Including: Assisi, Lancia, San Giovanni Rotondo, Monte Sant'Angelo, Pietrelcina, Rome & the Vatican.

All-inclusive from San Francisco, CA. Daily Mass at the holy sites. A detailed brochure is available for pickup in the Parish Office.

For about a month I was consistently feeling annoyed by the people around me. A friend challenged me to simply notice my internal judgments against others throughout the day. Quickly I "heard" my internal voice saying things like: "He's so lazy." "She's weak and self-centered." "He's arrogant." "They are so stupid." And so on. To have those thoughts was one thing. But I was choosing them and quietly agreeing with them. They perhaps protected my fragile ego, but it fueled my frustration. My friend invited me to commit to refuse to agree with those judgments, and I felt much more at peace.

The Bible says, "Beloved, do not grumble against one another, so that you may not be judged." (James 5:9). That word — "grumble" — beautifully describes what I was doing: quietly judging the inner character of people in my life. Of course, we judge actions and ideas all the time. So we must. But the grumble-judgment is about persons. It is never loving and always isolates and attacks. Happily, we don't have to waste that precious spiritual energy because Jesus alone is the judge of each person.

New year challenge: This week, I challenge you to do what my friend asked me to do: notice your internal judgments about those around you (perhaps also those on tv, social media, etc.), and then to refuse to agree with the judgments. Ask Jesus to help you resist those unloving judgments. It's not easy, but you'll be amazed at the peace that comes when Jesus liberates you from grumble-judgments.

~ Father John Muir

Your support of those in need is apparent, we are so grateful for your continued support.

Christmas Dinner Collection

We will continue to collect food donations so that we can provide ham and sides (stuffing, yams, cranberry sauce, etc.) for Christmas dinners. They can be brought to St. Vincent de Paul on Monday, Wednesday or Friday from 9 to noon, or left on the Knights of Columbus food cart in front of the church doors. If you need another option for your donations, please call Mercy.

Giving Tree

The Giving Tree gives us an opportunity to once again ensure that the families in need in our community will have Christmas gifts. As in the past, the tree will have ornaments for children ranging in age from 1 to 12 years old. Red ornaments are for the boys, green ornaments are for the girls.

You can select an ornament (or two), and we ask that you place your unwrapped gifts in the Christmas barrels behind the Giving Tree. The ornament can be taped to the gift, but it is not necessary. A gift can be put in the barrel even if you did not select an ornament.

We hope to distribute all gifts by December 20th so it would be very helpful if you can drop gifts off in the barrels by December 16th. We will still take gifts after the requested due date. Gifts that are not given out for Christmas will be used for children's birthdays.

 Read the Gospel and Color

Mt 11:2 - 11

Name someone that you think is very important. Jesus said that John the Baptist was the greatest man ever born. John the Baptist did not live in a big house or wear nice clothes. He was not the president, and he did not own a huge company. You would probably think he was very poor. But John the Baptist was truly great because he loved and trusted God with his whole heart. He helped other people follow God, too.
