Welcome to

St. John the Baptist Catholic Church

We are a community where we welcome all as members of the Body of Christ.

We are welcoming, faithful, passionate, joyful, authentic, sacramental, loving and charitable.

Today's Readings

Ex 22:20-26 / Ps 18:2-3, 3-4, 47, 51(2) / 1 Thes 1:5c-10 / Mt 22:34-40

*"I love you, Lord, my strength."
(Ps 18)*

Gospel Meditation

By Father John Muir

In our secularized culture, we all struggle with belief in God, at least to some degree. An atheist man named Robert Bridges once wrote to his friend, the Jesuit poet Gerard Manley Hopkins, asking how he could possibly learn to believe in God. Hopkins pithily responded: "Give alms." Would that help someone tempted by atheism today, like you and me?

I think so, and here's why. This week Jesus speaks of love for God and neighbor. These dual commands were nothing new when Jesus used them to sum up the Jewish law. What is new is the way he links them together in mutual dependency. In Jesus, God and man have become one. Human-love and God-love are now inseparably married forever.

The newness of the God-man means that there is now a permanently counter-intuitive way into the knowledge and love of God: love of our neighbor. To experience charity is to know God. That's what Hopkins was getting at for his friend. How we treat our fellow human beings is inseparable from faith in God. Do you want to have a stronger sense of God's loving presence and goodness? Commit to serving someone today and this week. Love him or her. Don't wait for love for God to appear in your heart before loving others. Jesus has united divine and human love. If you want to believe more in God, give alms.

Scripture Reflections

First Reading

We hear today some of the laws that Moses received from God on Mount Sinai. Namely, God's expectation that we show compassion for those most vulnerable in society. How could you show care for those in need this week

Second Reading

Paul praised the Thessalonians for being role models of the faith for the surrounding regions of Achaia and Macedonia. How do you model your faith to family and friends?

Gospel:

For Jesus, love of God and love of neighbor and self are the most important commandments. Which of these commandments do you do best?

At St. John the Baptist Parish,
we welcome all as members of the Body of Christ.

He is always with us. Jesus promised this when he gave the disciples the same mission he gives to each of us: Go.

Go be my hands and feet to a world enslaved by fear. Go to the woman who is unexpectedly pregnant and fears the future. Go to your friend who fears reprisal at work because he takes a stand for the protection of human life. Go to your aging parent in failing health who fears being a burden. And go to others, too, for their support.

Walk with each other. Do not be afraid to embrace God's gift of life. Whatever storms or trials we face, we are not alone.

"Behold, I am with you always, until the end of the age" (Matthew 28:20)

ALWAYS REMEMBERED

Prayer for Our Deceased

*Dear Lord,
Comfort us in our grief as we mourn
those no longer with us on earth.
Free those in purgatory quickly,
and guide us in Your will,
so that one day we may all be united with You, for eternity.
Amen.*

Recognize God in Your Ordinary Moments

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

27 Words That Matter

One of the quickest things you learn as a parent is how dangerous it is to explain too much, especially when your kid is teetering on the brink of a rebellion. The fewer words you use, the more power they have. A kid who is about to be carried away by their feelings needs to be brought back to earth with a tether made of short, succinct directions.

There are a lot of similarities between the Pharisees of Scripture and a toddler on the edge of a meltdown. Stay with me — this will make sense, I promise. Think about it: both toddlers and Pharisees have lots of feelings and lots of opinions. Both toddlers and Pharisees think you're out to get them. Both toddlers and Pharisees keep trying to trick you to get what they think they want.

A thorough Google search informs me that there are about 80,000 words in the Torah. Eighty-thousand words, and Jesus can boil it all down to 27: "You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind" and "You shall love your neighbor as yourself."

It doesn't make the excess words untrue; it doesn't even make them unnecessary. Sometimes I need the long explanation, the full and complete picture.

Because sometimes, as much as I hate to admit it, I act like both a toddler and a Pharisee. I am carried away by my feelings. I don't trust God. I am about to bolt.

When that happens, I need to be told in short and simple terms what my salvation means. I need a tether made of short, succinct directions.

"The whole law and the prophets depend on these two commandments." — Matthew 22:40

Our volunteer ministry here at St Johns for Sister Nora's Place is in need of one more person to volunteer one day, once per year. We prepare OR purchase a meal on the first Wednesday of the month. We have 11 volunteers and only need one more. The meal needs to be prepared or purchased for 10 ladies housed at this facility. Sister Nora's Place is a program of Sacramento Loaves & Fishes that provides long-term shelter and case management for women who have experienced trauma and/or serious mental and physical health impacts. The coordinator of this ministry will either go with you if you like or drop it off for you if needed. Please call Joanne if you can provide a meal once a year.

Coats for Kids

The goal of the Coats for Kids program is to ensure that no child in North America and especially here in our local community of Folsom and other surrounding cities goes without a coat during the winter season. You can donate new or gently-used children's winter coats. We also collect warm coats and jackets for teens and adults. Please wash all gently-used coats and jackets if needed. Winter accessories like gloves, mittens, scarves, beanies, hats, and sleeping bags are also accepted.

Food for Families

Knights of Columbus are committed to helping end hunger through the Food for Families Program. Council and parish families will raise funds to support their local food pantries, food banks and soup kitchens. Though in-kind donation of food is valuable, leaders of hunger-relief organizations often comment that financial contributions can be stretched even further and allow nonprofits to procure the exact items needed by the organization and its clients.

What food should I donate?

Healthy, low-sodium, low-sugar, non-perishable food only. Donations assist families, so we encourage donations in sizes you would use at home.

- Items with intact, un-opened, consumer or commercial packaging. Items with non-breakable packaging (no glass please). Plastic containers, tin cans and boxed items are best.
- Food within the expiration date on the packaging.

What are the most requested food items?

- Canned meats: tuna, chicken, turkey, ham, stew & chili, canned vegetables
- Pasta & pasta sauce, canned beans, rice
- Healthy cereals, peanut butter, baby food & baby formula

Starting in November we're also looking for frozen turkeys; additional Thanksgiving food items (dressing; green beans; mushroom soup, cranberry sauce; etc. for a family meal of four or more.

Drop Off Locations

- "Knight's Cart", located outside in front of the church, near the doors before, during, and after all Masses on Saturday and Sunday
- St Vincent de Paul location, adjacent to SJND on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday, 9am to Noon; phone # 916-985-4630.

ALL donations and proceeds go directly to St John's "Helping Hands" (SVDP) ministry for our local community, surrounding communities, people in need and the homeless.

At St. John the Baptist Parish,
we bring Christ's light to all through service to others.

 Read the Gospel and Color

Mt 22:34-40

When you have a choice to make, think about what God wants. Make sure your choices are good and that they help other people. When you follow God's example, you will be ready to love other people. With God's help you can be gentle, forgiving and kind.

Why Do We Do That? - Catholic Life Explained

What is a sacramental seal and where did it come from?

Leaving more than just a memory, there are some events in our life that are truly transforming, making us different people. The same thing can be said of spiritual things, especially sacraments. A sacramental seal or character is a theological concept to describe the life-changing and permanent effect of three sacraments on the person: baptism, confirmation, and holy orders.

The Catechism of the Catholic Church teaches that these sacraments confer a seal "by which the Christian shares in Christ's priesthood and is made a member of the Church according to different states and functions. This configuration to Christ and the Church, brought about by the Spirit, is indelible" (#1121).

Once we receive these sacraments, we are forever changed. It's a spiritual "point of no return" whereby we take a step forward in our faith journey. We are marked as people of faith, as those who have received the Spirit and as those called to serve in ordained ministry. That is why these sacraments are received only once. The direction is set, the choice is made, and we are called by God to be his people. Nothing can change that, not even our own sinfulness.
