Welcome to

St. John the Baptist Catholic Church

We are a community where we welcome all as members of the Body of Christ.

We are welcoming, faithful, passionate, joyful, authentic,
sacramental, loving and charitable.

Today's Readings

Zec 9:9-10 / Ps 145:1-2, 8-9, 10-11, 13-14 (see 1) / Rom 8:9, 11-13 / Mt 11:25-30

"I will praise your name for ever, my king and my God "
(Ps 145)

Gospel Meditation

By Father John Muir

Do you ever feel restless? I certainly do. Daily tasks and challenges, but also the more basic demand of simply existing — sooner or later, this can all feel crushing and tire us out.

Which is why Jesus' words are such stunningly good news: "Come to me all you who labor and are burdened and I will give you rest" (Matthew 11:28). How vastly weird that this man speaks as though he is capable of giving us the deep repose we desire. Is his claim the height of absurd grandiosity? No, because next he immediately proclaims that he is "meek and humble of heart." We here touch a mystery: Jesus is capable of giving us rest because he is the one who forever reposes in the heart of God the Father. He is "yoked" to the Father in his divinity. But he is humbly "yoked" to us, sharing in our humanity.

The good news, my fellow tired-out friends: we don't have to despair in our burdens and exhaustion, no matter how heavy they feel. This week, join me in opening our hearts to hear him say to us, "Come! I will give you rest." We come to him in the Church, Eucharist, the Scriptures, prayer, in the poor. There he will give us rest.

Scripture Reflections

First Reading

The prophet Zechariah saw the future king of Israel restoring both the land and the people, bringing peace and justice to all the nations.
How might you help build toward this promised future?

Second Reading

Paul speaks of the power of the Spirit living in those who believe in Jesus.
When have you felt or experienced the presence of the Holy Spirit in your life?

Gospel

Jesus invites all who are burdened and laboring to find "rest" in him.
What burdens do you or your family need lifted from your life?

Live the Liturgy Inspiration For the Week

The Christian life does not require wisdom, charisma, or strength — no, quite the opposite. To be Christian, we must embrace our faults, our littleness, our shortcomings — gather them up, and lay them all at the feet of Jesus. There, they will be transformed.

Please join us in reciting the following prayer after communion during our weekend and weekday Masses. Prayer cards will be in the pews throughout the year during this Nationwide movement to bring awareness of the Real Presence of Jesus in the Holy Eucharist, Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity.

"Prayer For The Eucharistic Revival"

*My God,
I believe, I adore,
I hope and I love You!
I beg pardon for those who do not believe,
nor adore, nor hope,
nor love You.
Most Holy Trinity,
Father, Son and
Holy Spirit, I adore
You profoundly.*

*I offer You the most precious Body, Blood,
Soul and Divinity of Jesus Christ, present in all the tabernacles of the world in reparation for the outrages, sacrileges and indifference by which He is offended.*

And, through the infinite merits of the Sacred Heart of Jesus and the Immaculate Heart of Mary, I beg of You the conversion of sinners.

Amen

Recognize God in Your Ordinary Moments

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

A Ballad of Flesh and Spirit

“My yoke is easy and my burden is light,” says the man hanging from a cross. And if we only went on what we see with our eyes — flesh driven through by nails and sword, swollen from beating and inches from expiration — it would seem like a joke.

I’ll tell you something we all know: this life on earth is hard. It’s either too long or it’s too short. It’s frequently painful. It’s riddled with problems that seem to make no sense. It is, as Dickens wrote, “made of ever so many partings welded together.”

But it’s also shockingly, senselessly beautiful. It is full of physical experiences of love, joy, and peace that are so powerful they leave you breathless.

It is both these things — good and bad, hard and wonderful, just as we are both body and soul, spirit and flesh.

No one knows the Father except the Son, who entered into our bodily existence to free us from enslavement to it. No one knows the Son except the Father, and the means by which they know one another — the love passing between them, the Third Person himself — has been shared with us, has made its dwelling within us through baptism.

“Brothers and sisters, we are not debtors to the flesh, to live according to the flesh.”
— Romans 8:12

we foster a commitment to lifelong spiritual growth.

Holy men and women from the Americas

John Augustus (Gus) Tolton was born on April 1, 1854, to parents who were enslaved by a white Catholic family in Missouri. Early in his childhood, the Civil War broke out and his father, Peter Paul Tolton, escaped slavery to join the Union Army. John and his mother remained enslaved until 1862 when they escaped by crossing the Mississippi River into Illinois.

Tolton and his family were introduced to Catholicism by their enslavers, and, despite the awful circumstances that they were subjected to, John developed a deep personal relationship with Jesus. It's said that, after escaping into Illinois, his mother told him, "John, boy, you're free. Never forget the goodness of the Lord."

Tolton attended an all-white school in Illinois, where he was noticed and mentored by the school's pastor. As he matured, he intended to go to seminary, but no American seminary would accept him due to the color of his skin. With his pastor's support, Tolton attended seminary in Rome, instead, and began his formation for the priesthood. There, he learned many languages and studied music! He was ordained a priest at the age of 31.

Although his experience of acceptance and racial harmony in Rome was transformative, he still expected that he would be assigned to an African nation for his service within the Church. To his surprise, though, he was instead sent back to the United States where he celebrated his first public Mass in Quincy, Illinois. He is considered to be the first priest in the USA who was publicly known to be black. He became the pastor of St. Joseph Catholic church and school in the same city but, after racial tension continued to escalate in the area, he transferred to Chicago at the invitation of Chicago's Archbishop Patrick Feehan.

In Chicago, Tolton led the development of St. Monica's Catholic Church in Chicago's South Side. After four years of hard work, the Chicago Tribune covered the church's dedication, printing on January 15, 1884, that, "St. Monica's Church was dedicated yesterday with impressive services. It is the first Catholic church in this city to be built by colored people. More than this, it is the first church of the kind constructed in this State and probably the only Catholic church in the West that has been built by colored members of that faith for their own use. The pastor of St. Monica's is the Rev. Father Augustus Tolton and the handsome edifice at the corner of Thirty-sixth and Dearborn streets will stand as a monument to his untiring labor on behalf of the Church of his adoption."

As pastor of St. Monica, Tolton served the poor, fed the hungry, ministered to formally enslaved families. In 1897, at age 43, Fr. Augustus Tolton died of heat stroke. His legacy, however, lives on and he was declared Venerable by Pope Francis in June of 2019.

Mt 11:25-30

Jesus knows that you can get tired. Doing your best in school is hard work. You also may feel tired, sad, or left out on the playground. Whenever you start to feel tired, remember that Jesus is with you. Learn from Jesus. Follow his example. Be honest. Be kind. Help others do the right thing. Jesus will help you.
