Welcome to

St. John the Baptist Catholic Church

We are a community where we welcome all as members of the Body of Christ.

We are welcoming, faithful, passionate, joyful, authentic,
sacramental, loving and charitable.

Today's Readings

Zep 2:3; 3:12-13 / Ps 146:6-7, 8-9, 9-10 (Matthew 5:3) / 1 Cor 1:26-31 / Mt 5:1-12a

"Blessed the poor in spirit; the kingdom of heaven is theirs!"
(Ps 146)

Gospel Meditation

By Father John Muir

In my parents' bedroom there were on the wall two photos of my mom and dad from their early adulthoods. The photo of my mother entranced me when I was a boy.

I loved looking at it, even though I saw her in daily life. Something about that picture captured her perfectly. It was an image of the joy, wisdom, beauty, and strength that enveloped me from the start of my life. It was an icon of the woman who fed, taught, and encouraged me. I felt a deep pride that I came from such beauty.

The beatitudes of Jesus are a kind of self-portrait. But it is a strange picture. At first, the blessings of being poor, mourning, and hungering and thirsting for righteousness may seem bizarre or, worse, a religious delusion. Who wants to look like that?

But if we look again, we begin to see the characteristics of Jesus' form. He becomes poor and fills it with his riches for us, he weeps and mourns for us, and fills it with his joy, he hungers and thirsts for us to be righteous, and so satisfies us. And so on.

It's the way he appears on the cross.

Perhaps we should put on our bedroom room walls the words of the beatitudes next to a crucifix of the Lord Jesus. Then we can do what the beatitudes are designed for, to gaze at the joy, wisdom, beauty, and strength of the one who is our origin, and who is with us every day. And little by little, we'll start to look like him.

Scripture Reflections

First Reading

The prophet Zephaniah speaks of a "remnant of Israel" who will survive God's judgement and live as a humble and truthful people.

What other qualities (besides humility and integrity) make for a good community?

Second Reading:

Paul offers us an interesting sketch of the members of the Corinthian community: foolish, weak, lowly, and despised. How would you describe your community of faith?

Gospel

Jesus begins his Sermon on the Mount with a list of eight "beatitudes" (blessings).

Which of these beatitudes do you see in yourself?

At St. John the Baptist Parish,
we welcome all
as members of the Body of Christ.

Knights of Columbus

Join The Knights of Columbus Today

Contact: SK Percy Park

916-936-6145 or dbk576@aol.com

Since 1882, membership in the Knights of Columbus has been open to men 18 years of age or older who are "practical" (that is, practicing) Catholics in union with the Holy See. Since that time, the Knights of Columbus has understood "practical Catholic" to mean a Catholic who accepts the teaching authority of the Catholic Church on matters of faith and morals, aspires to live in accord with the precepts of the Catholic Church, and is in good standing in the Catholic Church.

What It Means To Be A Knight of Columbus

We are catholic men to lead, serve, protect and defend. We share a desire to be better husbands, fathers, sons, neighbors and role models to put charity, Parish and community first.

Our Mission & Our Faith

Together we are empowering men to live their faith at home, in their parish, at work and in their community. Our goal is to help men, their families, and their parishes grow closer to Christ. Through our programs and resources, we provide opportunities to live and spread the Catholic faith.

Responding To Need Since Our Founding

Service and Charity are the heart of the Knights. Founded to meet the needs of immigrants, refugees and families suffering from the death of a breadwinner, the Knights began a small service organization and has grown into a worldwide financial and charitable organization.

Knights of Columbus Charities

Charity is the heart of our work and our faith--- and it always has been. For the Knights of Columbus Charity means supporting a virtually boundless variety of projects.

Knights of Columbus Insurance

The Knights of Columbus is a fraternal benefit society, which means we provide financial security to our members and their families, while turning premiums into charitable impact.

Faith in Action

Lead your parish and community in faith, family, service and life programs through your local Knights council.

Please see one of the ushers after Mass or Percy if you have any questions to join.

Join us as we honor marriage and salute the beauty of faithfulness, sacrifice, and joy in married life. There will be a special blessing for sacramentally married couples and an opportunity for them to renew their marital commitment. After Mass, there will be an opportunity to receive a blessing and picture with Bishop Soto. Special certificates will be distributed at the reception honoring couples celebrating milestone anniversaries (10, 25, 30, 35, 40, 45, 50, 50+) Mass will be also live-streamed. If you plan to attend, please register at: www.scd.org/wmd
For more information contact Moises.

St. Blaise lived in the fourth century in Turkey and Armenia. Due to religious persecution, he was forced to flee and hide in a cave in the back country in order to save his life. History has it that one day a group of hunters stumbled upon where St. Blaise was living. They found the bishop kneeling in prayer, surrounded by wolves, lions, and bears that he had tamed. The legend has it that as the hunters dragged Blaise off to prison, a mother came with her young son who had a fish bone lodged in his throat. At Blaise's command, the child was able to cough up the bone and thus lived.

Through the intercession of St. Blaise, bishop and martyr, may God deliver you from ailments of the throat and from every other evil. In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

O God, You raised up St. John the Baptist to prepare a perfect people for Christ. Fill Your people with the joy of possessing His grace, and direct the minds of all the faithful in the way of peace and salvation. Grant that as St. John was martyred for truth and justice, so we may energetically profess our Faith in You, and lead others to the Way, the Truth, and Eternal Life. Amen.

At St. John the Baptist Parish, time in conversation with our Lord is at the center of our lives.

Inspiration For the Week

Every day, God offers each of us countless opportunities to embody the Beatitudes. Blink and you might miss them. Where is God inviting you to poverty of spirit? Where does he beg you to hunger for righteousness? How does he ask you to make peace?

World Day for Consecrated Life will be celebrated in the Church on Thursday, February 2, 2023 and in parishes over the weekend of February 4-5, 2023. Please pray for all those who have made commitments in the consecrated life and be sure to thank them on their special day. May they continue to be inspired by Jesus Christ and respond generously to God's gift of their vocation.

*Good and gracious God who calls every man and woman to live
a life of holiness,
we give you praise for those men and women we call brothers or sisters.*

Grant them the wisdom to know and love you and to share that love with others.

Grant more vocations to the Church through consecration to religious life.

*We ask all this in the name of Christ,
your Son and our Lord.*

Amen.

Lectio Eucharist Bible Study

Starts February 2, 7pm, via Zoom
Contact: Angela Reed
916-342-3368, recatechists60@gmail.com

The United States Conference of Bishops established a 3 year Eucharistic Revival last year! That's great and exciting news but what has it meant for you? Could this be your opportunity to deepen your relationship with Jesus? Is He drawing you near with this spotlight on the Holy Eucharist? Will you accept his prompting and turn towards Him? Will you accept his invitation to learn more about Him; to draw nearer to Him? If you choose to accept, your faith will not only be deepened, but you will know and love him in a way that you have never before. Your appreciation for the Holy Eucharist will kindle within you a fire of His love. You have everything to gain!

Come join us as we steep ourselves into Scripture and see what God had planned for us from the very beginning. Join us via Zoom in your living room, in your own comfortable surroundings! Invite friends and family from any part of the United States to join you. A beautiful workbook compliments this 10 week study. If you would like more information or if you would like to sign up for the study, please contact Angela.

Spring Scripture Studies

Begins the week of February 13th
Contact Lee or Teresa Weider

Knights of Columbus "Neighbors Helping Neighbors" Coats for Kids and Food for Families

Thank you to all of our St John Parish families, ministries and brother Knights,

Our Bishop Gallegos Council 6197, along with our St. Vincent de Paul ministry here at St. John's so far we have collected to date 458 Coats for Kids Program this year. 130 coats for teens; 128 coats for adults, and 200 coats for kids, along with sleeping bags, gloves, blankets, socks and winter hats. They have distributed 160 adults/teens and 130 child coats, to date. Our goal for this Columbian Year is 250 Coats for kids, teenagers and adults and we have almost doubled and surpassed our goal.

Our Council along with St Vincent de Paul have also collected "Food Items" weighing in at 837 pounds so far, our goal by January 8, 2023 was to collect at least 1,000 pounds. We missed our goal by 163 pounds, but still did very well.

The St. Vincent de Paul ministry plans to distribute the Coats for Kids and Food for Families items throughout the winter and holiday seasons on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays from 9:00 am to 12 noon for any and all needy and homeless here in Folsom including the surrounding cities and neighborhoods in need.

Recognize God in Your Ordinary Moments

The Humble of the Earth

When I think of the Beatitudes, I think of collectible coffee mugs emblazoned with the words Blessed are the peacemakers, with little pastel flowers stenciled in the white spaces of the lettering. I think of greeting cards and decorative wall hangings.

Why? These are the Beatitudes, for heaven's sake — revolutionary and radical. An uncompromising impeachment of worldly values. They are the opposite of banal.

But I cringed from my head to my toes when I read my first draft of this reflection, a retelling of a time in my life when I decided to embrace humility and meekness.

I realized that the Beatitudes aren't something I can tell you about. Poverty of spirit, the hunger for righteousness, the gladness God gives to the downtrodden — these are concepts that must be animated within us. They must be lived. So instead of telling you my story, I want you to tell yours.

I invite you to think of a time when you were vulnerable. When you were discouraged or humbled or felt like a failure. A time when you were cut low. The loss of a job, perhaps, or the rejection of a loved one. The abrupt end of some road that you felt sure would be long and prosperous.

Resentment, envy, and vengefulness flourish in moments like this. Did you experience those feelings? Did you embrace them? Did you want to?

What did the world tell you this moment should mean?

What does Christ tell you it should mean? Have you figured it out, or are you still working on it?

God chose the foolish of the world to shame the wise, and God chose the weak of the world to shame the strong. — 1 Corinthians 1:27

~ Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

 Read the Gospel and Color

Mt 5:1-12a

God sees the loving things you do. When you show kindness to others, especially when they don't deserve it, your kindness will come back to you. When you see others fighting, and you help them get along, you show that you are God's child. When you are gentle, not bossy, you make God smile. Even when it is hard, keep on doing what's right. One day in heaven God will reward you for the good choices you make.

 Mission for the Week

God loves peacemakers. The next time you are tempted to argue with someone, think of ways to get along instead.
