Welcome to

St. John the Baptist Catholic Church

We are a community where we welcome all as members of the Body of Christ.

We are welcoming, faithful, passionate, joyful, authentic, sacramental, loving and charitable.

Today's Readings

Acts 4:32-35 / Ps 118:2-4, 13-15, 22-24 [1] / 1 Jn 5:1-6 / Jn 20:19-31

"Give thanks to the Lord, for his is good, his love is everlasting."
(Ps 118)

Gospel Meditation

What a wonderful joy fills us today as we ponder the inexhaustible mercy of God. "Mercy is the heart of God," Pope Francis tells us. The image of a heart has been used to point to the very life source of a person as it is the organ that allows life to flow through our veins and sustain us. Mercy is the heart of God. Imagine this dynamic, powerful, compassionate, piercing, embracing, loving, propelling, penetrating, absorbing, and enveloping, transforming presence of God flowing into the very depth of our souls. It is God's mercy that allows blood to flow through our veins. It is God's mercy that forms every atom of our being and leads us to what is true.

God's mercy reveals all superficiality and falsehood, and lays bare all distortions, empty promises, weakness, and sin.

"Mercy is the force that reawakens us to new life and instills in us the courage to look to the future with hope," Pope Francis continues. God's all forgiving, compassionate love is with us. When we finally believe and accept that Christ's resurrected transfigured presence resides with us, we then find within us a strong confidence to accept life's imperfections and disappointments and move on. Every day is a new adventure in new life. God leaves the past behind and opens doors to the future. It doesn't matter how many mistakes we made yesterday. All that matters is what we do tomorrow and what we learn along the way. It is so easy to remain tethered and mired in the past, but there is no need to do so. God is all about tomorrow and the work God has yet to do in our lives.

Mercy gives birth to hope. Hope for the greatest of sinners and hope for the worst of disasters.

There is nothing God cannot do and nothing God cannot fashion. After all, everything we know and treasure was once nothing, and look what God did with the nothing God had!

The resurrected Christ stands before us with nail marks in his wrists and wounds on his body as a testament that not even injustice, suffering and death can trample over and destroy God's mercy. What have we to fear? Why do we keep ourselves from peace? Our lack of faith prevents us from going forward and fully receiving the holiness God desires to breathe upon us.

Breathe in God's mercy, allow the wind of God's presence to kiss all of your sins and caress all of your fears. Exhale peace.

Scripture Reflections

First Reading

Luke gives us a glimpse into the solidarity of heart and mind with the original community of believers in Jerusalem. How does your current community of faith compare to this first-generation Jerusalem church?

Second Reading

John speaks of the power of faith and love for believers in conquering evil in the world. How does the faith and love in your life sustain you?

Gospel

The story of Thomas' doubt in the resurrected Jesus is one of the most well-known resurrection narratives. Why do you think Christians throughout the ages are drawn to this story?

New Mass Schedule in Effect

Please note our new Sunday Mass schedule
7:30am, 9:00am, 11:30am and 6:00pm

Respect Life Ministry Thank you

Thank you to every volunteer who prayed at 2322 Butano Drive during this spring's 40 Days for Life! Over 435 babies were saved from abortion, including at least two babies saved right here in Sacramento! Praise the Lord! We also had hundreds of conversations with people about the value of human life, equipping more people in our community to be a voice for life in their own circle of friends and family! Although our spring 40 Days for Life has concluded, we will continue our prayers at 2322 Butano Drive every TUESDAY from 8am to 4pm, since that is a busy surgical abortion day. Come to the Sidewalk to see what miracles God has planned for you!

Reminder: Attending Mass at St. John the Baptist COVID-19 Guidelines

Eye Has Not Seen

They say seeing is believing. But if you've ever ordered a pair of pants online, you know that's not always the case. Whatever the photos promise us, what looked like a perfectly nice shade of navy blue on our computer screens comes in the mail as an unusual shade of blue green that only appears in the giant box of Crayola crayons.

The Apostle Thomas, who couldn't bring himself to accept that Jesus had risen from the dead without seeing him, is such an utterly relatable figure in the Gospels. Thomas is still reeling from a loss — not only of his good friend but his Lord, who was taken prisoner and crucified before his eyes. Thomas is guarding himself. He's not believing the hype. He's going to be the only judge of what is real and what is fiction.

Would any of us be any different? We've all had those thoughts. Can we believe it all — Jesus, salvation history, the Eucharist — when we haven't seen it with our own two eyes?

That's when we need to remember that those two eyes were absolutely positive they had ordered a pair of navy blue pants.

It's easy for us to sit back stroking our chins in judgment at Thomas, "you didn't believe the testimony of your friends!" But do we accept the testimony of our friends? The saints, the popes, the Church fathers themselves?

Sometimes the things that are most worthy of believing can't be seen with the naked eye.

"The Lord is near. Why then am I anxious? I put my hope indeed in his mercies that the Lord will not delay to bring my course to an end in whatever way he has commanded."
— Pope Saint Martin I

Elected Bishop of Rome in 649. Soon after his election he convoked a council in Rome to condemn the Monothelite Heresy (which denied the human will of Christ) and the involvement of Emperor Constans II in Church affairs. The emperor had Martin kidnapped and imprisoned in Constantinople. Saved from execution he was exiled to an island that was suffering from a severe famine. The last of the Bishops of Rome to be honored as a martyr, Pope Martin died of abuse and starvation in 655.

Grant, almighty God, that we may withstand the trials of this world with invincible firmness of purpose, just as you did not allow your Martyr Pope Saint Martin the First to be daunted by threats of broken by suffering,

*Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.
Amen.*

Deus Vocat Retreat

God is Calling

May 1, 2021, Saturday
Contact: msmith@scd.org
(916) 733-0258

The Office of Priestly & Religious Vocations invites girls ages 13 to 17 to our one day Deus Vocat Virtual Retreat for girls ages 13 to 17. You may register at www.scd.org/DeusVocat. Cost: $15 to cover the cost of supplies. Deadline to register is April 15th.

When children grow up, they begin to doubt certain beliefs they had held as long as they could remember. Some of those beliefs stem from stories told to them by others to bring awe and wonderment to their childhood. Some are beliefs about how things work in the world, and some are concerning where they fit into that world. As children reach maturity, some beliefs will be verified and then held onto for the rest of their lives; other ideas will be cast aside for good, either because they have seen no evidence that attests to the truth of those beliefs or because others have convinced them through words or actions that those beliefs were in error. A great sadness results when someone disbelieves the truth because they have seen no evidence to confirm it. Thomas had a chance to believe because he saw Jesus and touched his scars. But there are people all around us who only see injustice, pain, and sorrow, and Jesus is nowhere to be found. Where are those who bear the name of Christian? Perhaps this Easter season, God is calling you to show the real Jesus Christ to others so they may believe.

Divine Mercy Sunday

*“On that day . . .
The soul that will go to Confession and receive Holy Communion shall obtain complete forgiveness of sins
and punishment.”*

(Diary of St. Faustina, 699)

Join us as our celebrant prays the Act of Consecration to Jesus –
The Divine Mercy after each of today’s Masses.

Divine Mercy Sunday may be the greatest day of the year because of the immeasurable amount of grace Jesus promised to pour forth on this day. The Divine Mercy message is one we can call to mind simply by remembering ABC:

A - Ask for His Mercy. God wants us to approach Him in prayer constantly, repenting of our sins and asking Him to pour His mercy out upon us and upon the whole world.

B - Be merciful. God wants us to receive His mercy and let it flow through us to others. He wants us to extend love and forgiveness to others just as He does to us.

C - Completely trust in Jesus. God wants us to know that the graces of His mercy are dependent upon our trust. The more we trust in Jesus, the more we will receive.

(source: www.thedivinemercy.org)

Inspiration for the Week

Alleluia! Forgiveness has risen from the grave! What a wonderful joy fills us today as we ponder the inexhaustible mercy of God. When experienced, we are moved to do all in our power to avoid sin and embrace the loving presence of our risen God. God stands ever ready to receive us and wants nothing more than for us to come home. How reluctant we are to believe this truth! We want proof, tangible evidence and absolute assurance that what we have been told is true. Jesus has risen from the dead and brings us peace. It is the gift of wholeness and holiness that is breathed upon us by God’s life-giving and healing mercy. May the rays of love that flow from the heart of Christ pierce ours!

At St. John the Baptist Parish, we bring Christ's light to all through service to others.

A Grace Quilters Ministry Project: Emergency Quilt Sleeping Bags & Blankets in a Bag

Contact: Diana Irvine
dianairv@yahoo.com

Opportunity to make emergency quilt sleeping bags following a model developed by My Brother's Keeper Quilt Group and/or blankets in a bag a functional alternative/parallel project developed by Catherine Troche-Scott. Clean repurposed fabrics you already have on hand such as clean used blankets, comforters, sheets, mattress pads, fleece, curtains, etc. are used. People are glad to donate fabric; we could use more individuals to help make the sleeping bags. Each sleeping bag is made from three 7 foot by 7-foot layers: 1) shell, 2) fill, and 3) lining. Men's neckties can serve as straps.

These can be distributed by charitable organizations such as St. Vincent de Paul/ Helping Hands, Divine Mercy Ministry at Friendship Park and the Missionaries of Charity to our homeless neighbors.

For more information/instructions please contact Diana who can work with whoever is interested, whether they want to make an entire sleeping bag/blanket or a portion of each, providing instructions, supplies, and fabrics if they do not have their own fabrics. Some sewing is involved but the bulk of the project does not require sewing expertise.

"Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these."

Sharing the Gospel

In today's Gospel, Thomas had a hard time believing his friends. Jesus was alive! They saw Jesus! Well, Thomas could not believe it. He needed proof. Thomas wanted to see Jesus for himself. Thomas wanted to touch Jesus' scars on his hands and his side. Once Thomas did that, then he would believe. You may have doubting friends like Thomas. Be patient with them. Do not get angry with them. Love them instead, and gently tell the truth about Jesus. Ask Jesus to open their hearts, so they can believe in him, too.

Mission for the Week

Talk to God about a friend who does not believe in Jesus. Ask God to give you the right words to say about Jesus. Then ask God to help you be patient.

Prayer

God, help me to be patient with my doubting friends. Show them that Jesus is their savior, too.
