Today's Readings

Acts 1:1-11 / Ps 47:2-3, 6-7, 8-9 (6) / Eph 1:17-23 / Mt 28:16-20

"God mounts his throne to shouts of joy: a blare of trumpets for the Lord."
(Ps 47)

Gospel Meditation

By Father John Muir

Have you ever noticed how often we use "up" and "down" to judge things? Beethoven's Ninth Symphony is "high" art, while professional wrestling is "low." If I'm having a good day, I'm on "cloud nine." A bad day means I am "down in the dumps." A successful career is "moving up the ladder." Failure in work or personal life can be "falling from the heights." Life is filled with "ups and downs" — no one has the slightest problem understanding that means life has both "good and bad."

Now consider Jesus' ascension. He ascends not just to some level slightly higher of goodness, but "above all the heavens," to use the words of Saint Paul (Eph.4:10). That expression means to the source of all goodness. He has gone all the way down — to the farthest depths of human suffering, and death. And now he has taken our humanity all the way up into God. In doing so he has demonstrated what he says in the Gospel of John to the Father: "Everything of yours is mine." He now reigns over every possible aspect of creation in and through his human nature. That's what the ascension is all about.

So what? No matter what the lows and highs, ups and down we face this week, we are totally encompassed by the one who descended and ascended. So, we should happily and confidently entrust ourselves to him. He has shown us not only his power, but especially his love, in filling all our ups and down with his presence.

Scripture Reflections

First Reading

In Jesus' final words to the disciples before his ascension, he spoke of the central task of being "witnesses" to others of Jesus and the kingdom of God through the power of the Holy Spirit. How might you give witness to others about Jesus and the kingdom of God?

Second Reading

Paul offers a prayer of thanksgiving to God for the resurrection and ascension of Jesus and for the church, "which is his body." For what should you be thankful to God this week?

Gospel

In the final scene in the Gospel of Matthew, we hear that prior to his ascension, Jesus told the disciples, "All power in heaven and on earth has been given to me." Where do you see Jesus exercising his power on earth today?

Recognize God in Your Ordinary Moments

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Looking to the Sky

In the past, I have been guilty of being a little depressed by the Ascension. Looking at it from a certain angle, it has the feel of a party that's coming to an end. The important guests have gone home and now it's time to turn the lights back on, switch off the music and start cleaning up.

Of course, if I view the Ascension in this light, I'm not really paying attention. I'm lingering on the mountain, staring at the sky, wondering where God went and when He's coming back.

Christ, of course, is very much the "main event" of the Gospels, and so when he is no longer a physical, visible presence on earth — teaching, preaching, curing, dying, rising — we can be forgiven for feeling a little deflated. But the life of Christ is not a season of our favorite show. It's not a chapter in a book. It doesn't exist for consumption and entertainment, and it certainly doesn't come to an end.

It's easy to think of Christ at Mass when he is there before me in the Eucharist. It's easy to be about the work of God during Lent or Easter. But what about the dreaded "Ordinary Time"? As full as the sky is of clouds, so the world is full of distractions: work, finances, health, politics. I struggle to see where God has gone in the midst of it all.

In reality, He is still here. He is here in the person I choose to love or to abandon. He is here in the truth I choose to embrace or to reject. He is here, waiting for me in the sacraments I all too often take for granted.

"Behold, I am with you always, until the end of the age." — Matthew 28:20

Come out and pray so that you can be a sign of God's love and hope for women and their unborn babies. We give women much needed information, free resources, and help during and after their pregnancy. "Your willingness to stand in the public square and pray for an end to abortion this Lent saved hundreds of lives, led abortion workers out of their jobs, and closed numerous abortion facilities throughout the country." Shawn Carney, President/CEO of 40 days for Life.

Wednesdays and Thursdays are our focus year round as these are late-term surgical abortion days.

A carpool on Thursdays goes out from 11:00-1:00 pm. Can you bring a folding chair and join us to help be a prayer warrior? Call Joanne.

Established by Pope Paul VI in 1967 as an annual Celebration that encourages us to reflect on the opportunities and challenges that the modern means of social communication (the press, motion pictures, radio, television and the internet) afford the Church to communicate the gospel message. The theme of the 2023 celebration - is "Speaking with the heart. 'The truth in love.'" "We should not be afraid of proclaiming the truth, even if it is at times uncomfortable," Pope Francis said, "but communicators should fear doing so without charity, without heart. Communicating should be done "in a cordial manner," one that is rooted in love for the other and caring about and protecting the other's freedom."

Lord, let the good news of your marvelous deeds fall on every ear, and let all tongues rejoice in your wisdom, your compassion, your faithfulness, and your love.

Make me bold and let me share your Word with those you desire to reach. As my heart overflows with your love, speak through me.

Let me proclaim your glory and your majesty, and tell of the kindness you have shown your people.

This I ask, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Why does the Church teach that the Holy Eucharist is the “source and summit” of our faith? Why does she insist that the Holy Eucharist is the “True Presence” of Jesus Christ? Do you believe? If you do, can you explain to someone all the reasons behind this belief? If you don’t believe, why not? In either case, it would enrich your faith to find out how God planned The Eucharist from the very beginning when Adam and Eve had to leave the Garden of Eden. Come dive into scripture with us and find out how God weaved this gift of love through our Salvation History so that everyone who believed can have food for their souls as they journey through life. This eye opening bible study will leave you feeling thoroughly loved and awed. The study will be offered through zoom, so get your family and friends, near and far to join us as we discover God’s incredible gift to each of us. Starting on May 24, 2023 and for 10 weeks, we will embark on a journey through Salvation History with an emphasis on the Holy Eucharist. For questions or to sign up, please call or text Angela.

Holy men and women from the Americas

Servant of God

Fr. Emil Kapaun was an American military chaplain who served heroically on the battlefield as well as inside of a POW camp in North Korea until his death. While a POW, he cared for other prisoners bodily with stolen food and medicine, and spiritually as a priest.

Lord Jesus,

In the midst of the folly of war, your servant, Chaplain Emil Kapaun, spent himself in total service to you on the battlefields and in the prison camps of Korea, until his death at the hands of his captors. We now ask you, Lord Jesus, if it be your will, to make known to all the world the holiness of Chaplain Kapaun and the glory of his complete sacrifice for you by signs of miracles and peace. In your name, Lord, we ask, for you are the source of peace, the strength of our service to others, and our final hope. Amen.

Inspiration For the Week

Sometimes we look for God in all the wrong places. We are paralyzed with fear, with self-doubt, with despair. Let's not forget the extraordinary miracles we have witnessed this Easter season. Let us bring the memory of this holy time with us into the rest of our year.

"Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these."

Mt 28:16-20

Before Jesus went back to heaven, he gave his friends a very special job - to share the good news! Jesus came so that the whole world could be saved, and Jesus did not want anyone to be left out. Now it's your turn to tell your friends about Jesus, so they can go to heaven, too.

 Mission for the Week

Invite a friend over to play. Ask your friend if she'd like to come to church with you.

 Puzzle

Fit this Gospel message into the empty squares.

Go and make disciples of all nations.

 Prayer

Jesus, show me how to tell my friends about you.

Our parish is enriched with many ministries, please consider learning about and engaging in one or more of our ministries. Call the contact listed.
