Welcome to

St. John the Baptist Catholic Church

We are a community where we welcome all as members of the Body of Christ.

We are welcoming, faithful, passionate, joyful, authentic,
sacramental, loving and charitable.

Today's Readings

1 Sm 3:3b-10, 19 / Ps 40:2, 4 7-8, 8-9, 10 (8a, 9a) / 1 Cor 6:13c-15a, 17-20 / Jn 1:35-42

"Here am I, Lord; I come to do your will."
(Ps 40)

Gospel Meditation

By Father John Muir

As a priest, I'm amazed how happily married couples remember the tiniest details of their earliest encounters. They effortlessly report things like: "he wore a blue shirt," "we ordered brussels sprouts," "her hair was up in a bun," and "he spilled shrimp cocktail sauce at my family's open front door when it was ten degrees below zero," (that one's courtesy of my mom). We delight in remembering and speaking of when our new life of love began.

The little details are glorious reminders that it's all real.

It's similar for John the Apostle. He tells us of the two disciples who followed Jesus into his house, "...they stayed with him that day. It was about four o'clock in the afternoon. " Why does that tiny detail matter? Because that's the time of day when they encountered the love of Jesus the Messiah in their lives. Our religion is not primarily about abstract truths about God, no matter how true or sublime. It is about God meeting and saving us in our human nature. It's about a human relationship.

What was the time of day when you first recall encountering Christ and his Church? Who was there? What did you feel? How did things look and smell? What happened? Take some time to recall it in detail. For me, it was inside an old, rickety church on a hillside in Jerome, Arizona. It was about 9 p. m. on a Saturday evening. I was with my friends Jenny, Brad, and Laura. We were praying, singing, and laughing. When was it for you? Remembering the details isn't empty nostalgia. It reminds us now that God's love for us in our humanity is real.

Scripture Reflections

First Reading

In the Lord's call to Samuel, Eli teaches Samuel the importance of "listening" to God's voice. Can you name something you have heard from the Lord?

Second Reading

Paul saw our physical bodies as a temple of the Holy Spirit, destined to be raised after death just as Jesus was raised from the dead. What are some ways to treat your body with reverence and respect?

Gospel

In John's account of the call of the first disciples, we hear the first words Jesus speaks in the Gospel of John: "What are you looking for?" How can you convince family or friends that Jesus is what we all should be looking for?

Sinulog Festival: Feast Day of Sto Nino

January 20, Saturday

10:45am -Procession, 11:00am -Mass

Contact:

Lili Rehwald, 916-220-2483 or

Lourdes Lorenzo, asjbc@gmail.com

Please join us for the Sinulog Festival celebrating the Feast Day of Sto Nino (Holy Child Jesus). Procession of Sto Nino image is at 10:45am and Mass begins at 11am. Reception to follow after the Mass at the Gallagher Hall.

The Sinulog festival marks an important part of the history of Christianity in the Philippines. It recalls how Christianity began in the Philippines in 1521, when explorer Ferdinand Magellan gifted the Santo Niño image to Rajah Humabon, King of Cebu. Humabon, his wife, and his subjects were the first known Catholic converts in the Philippines. For more information, please contact Lili or Lourdes.

A Prayer for a Just Society

*Heavenly Father,
You create every human person
in Your image and likeness.
You call us together in one human family,
united in dignity, value, and love.
Give us the strength and wisdom
to protect this dignity and life at all stages.*

*Jesus our Savior,
you proclaim the blessedness of those who work for peace and who hunger and thirst for righteousness.
Forgive us for the times we have not responded to the call of Your Beatitudes.
Holy Spirit, the Advocate, empower us to stand in defense of the poor and vulnerable.
Good and Gracious God, make our hearts to love like Yours. Amen.*

Vocations Cross

"The harvest is rich, but there are few laborers to gather it in. Beg the Lord of the Harvest to send laborers into the harvest." –Matthew 9:37-38

Beginning this Lent we will be inviting our parish families to participate in the Vocations Cross Program. It is our hope to support the Church in her effort to pray for priests and for an increase in priestly and religious vocations. Each weekend a family will have the opportunity to embrace praying for vocations at home together. For one week the individual or family takes the Cross into their home and commits to saying the prayers provided on a daily basis. This may also be a good time to reflect together upon God's call of service to His Church. The kit is then returned the following weekend and will be passed on to a different family. We hope this will encourage all of us to pray for the gift of vocations. Please watch for more details in the coming bulletins.

Companioned Prayer Ministry

Wednesdays, 9:30am, St. John's Church
First Saturdays, 9:15 am, Holy Trinity Church
Contact: Michelle Hendricks
www.CompanionedPrayer.org

We invite you to come on Wednesday mornings to our prayer gatherings here at St. John's. Join us for an introductory welcome beginning at 9:15 after morning Mass. Prayer follows at 9:30.

Be still...and know the love and peace of God...

Join us in prayer, reflection, and sharing as we seek to spend more time listening to God in His Word, our hearts, and in Companioned Prayer. Consider setting aside time to experience in 2024 a loving closeness to the Lord and our prayer circle with us!

Special Note: Companioned Prayer will not be meeting on the First Saturdays of January and February at Holy Trinity Church, El Dorado Hills due to preparation for the Eucharistic Revival Study Sessions in Lent. An update will be published in future bulletins regarding the next First Saturday gathering.

Live the Liturgy

Inspiration For the Week

"Come and see," Jesus said to the disciples who were curious to know about him. Today, he whispers this invitation into the deepest place of our heart. Have courage — go, and see what Christ has to show you.

At St. John the Baptist Parish, time in conversation with our Lord is at the center of our lives.

NATIONAL Eucharistic Revival

Through the Eucharist we become stamped with the pattern of Christ's own self-giving love so that we can reproduce that pattern in our own lives. Thus, the goal of the liturgy is never just to receive the sacrament and go home; it is to become a living tabernacle through which Christ is made present to others.

Eucharistic Revival Study

Jesus and the Eucharist
Contact Shannon Frazier
rsfrazier4@comcast.net

In-person registration will take place the weekends of January 20/21 & 27/28 after all Masses in the vestibule.

We would like to invite you to grow closer to Jesus alongside fellow parishioners through the Jesus and the Eucharist Study. This study was specifically designed for this Year of Parish Revival, and we will be joining many other parishes throughout the US in participating in this small group study. Each session is full of rich theological content, powerful testimonies, and unique and timely messages from individual bishops across the country. This is a great opportunity to dive more deeply into the richness of our Eucharistic faith.

Sessions in English:

- Wednesdays, Feb 7 - March 20
Morning Session: 9am, Garden Room
Evening Session: 6pm, Parish Hall
- Thursday, Feb 8 - March 21
Zoom Session: 7pm

Sessions in Spanish

- Fridays, Feb 9 - March 22
Evening Session: 6pm, Garden Room
- Fridays, Feb 9 - March 22
Zoom Session: 6pm

This study will be a special time to grow in community within our parish as we walk this sacred year together.

To register or for more information visit www.folsomcatholic.org/eucharisticrevival or scan the QR code. Registration forms are also available in the vestibule.

"Don't Give the Enemy a Seat at Your Table" written by Louie Giglio

Jan 8 - Feb 5, Mondays, 7-8:30pm
Guadalupe Room
Contact: Theresa Grant
tgrant@talkpathlive.com

We hear in Psalm 23 that the Good Shepherd will protect and guide us along our journey: "You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies." Our enemy, the Devil, is not intended to join us there. Join us as we reflect upon Louie Giglio's book, Don't Give the Enemy a Seat at your Table. In addition to the book, it is recommended that participants also purchase the study guide. In person participation is preferred, but attendance via Zoom will be available. Sessions will not be recorded due to the sensitive nature of the material. To RSVP please contact Theresa.

- Session 1 (1/8): The Table Before us
- Session 2 (1/15): The Tactics of the Enemy
- Session 3 (1/22): The Battle for our Mind
- Session 4 (1/29): The Path to Victory
- Session 5 (2/5): God's Invitation Always Stands

Coats For Kids

You can donate new or gently-used children's winter coats. We also collect warm coats and jackets for teens and adults. Please wash all gently-used coats and jackets if needed. Winter accessories like gloves, mittens, scarves, beanies, hats, and sleeping bags are also accepted.

Food for Families

What food should I donate?

Healthy, low-sodium, low-sugar, non-perishable food only. Donations assist families, so we encourage donations in sizes you would use at home.

- Items with intact, un-opened, consumer or commercial packaging. Items with non-breakable packaging (no glass please). Plastic containers, tin cans and boxed items are best.
- Food within the expiration date on the packaging.

What are the most requested food items?

- Canned meats: tuna, chicken, turkey, ham, stew & chili, canned vegetables
- Pasta & pasta sauce, canned beans, rice
- Healthy cereals, Peanut Butter
- Baby food & baby formula

Drop Off Locations

- "Knight's Cart", located outside in front of the church, near the doors before, during, and after all Masses on Saturday and Sunday
- St. Vincent de Paul location, adjacent to SJND on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday, 9am to Noon; phone # 916-985-4630.

ALL donations and proceeds go directly to St. John's St. Vincent de Paul ministry for our local community, surrounding communities, people in need and the homeless.

Recognize God in Your Ordinary Moments

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Those Who Seek the Truth

In my work as a freelance writer, I have a regular column in the archdiocesan paper writing profiles of ordinary people in the local church. Laity, religious, and clergy alike — I hound them all to give me an interview, and when I do, the answer is almost always this: "You don't want to talk to me. There's nothing special about me."

I always try to convince them that there is something remarkable about everyone who is searching for the truth. It is easy to think we are not made for holiness because we are ordinary people with ordinary habits, ordinary abilities, and ordinary sins. It is easy (and very convenient) to designate holiness as something belonging to Better People. People like the saints. People like the Disciples.

The Bible gives us next to no personal information about the disciples. There is no archdiocesan newspaper profile on Andrew and Simon that can give us insight into who they were before they became St. Andrew, Inaugural Disciple and Announcer of the Messiah, and St. Peter, First Pope and the Rock-Upon-Which-Christ-Built-His-Church.

Yet I find myself insatiably curious about it. What was their childhood like? What games did they play with each other as the sun set, before their mother called them into bed? What did they think of as they fell asleep at night? What secret jokes did they share to make each other laugh? What were they afraid of? What did they hope for? Who did they want to be?

Before they were towering figures of salvation history, Simon and Andrew were just two men searching for the truth. When they looked at Christ, there was something that made it click. Perhaps they themselves could not identify what it was, but their hearts whispered it nonetheless: There it is. We finally found it.

Isn't that the best we can all hope for?

"Jesus turned and saw them following him and said to them, 'What are you looking for?'" — John 1:38

At St. John the Baptist Parish,
we bring Christ's light to all through service to others.

 Read the Gospel and Color

Jn 1:35-42

Mexican families share a special treat called a Kings' Cake on January 6th. Hidden inside the cake is one tiny little doll shaped like the baby Jesus. If you find Jesus in your piece of cake, you tell everyone. In today's Gospel, Andrew met Jesus for the first time. Andrew was so excited to find the Savior, he ran to tell his brother he had found Jesus.

 Mission for the Week

Ask your family if you could include Kings' Cake in your holiday celebrations next year.

 Puzzle

Fit this Gospel message into the empty squares.

We have found the Messiah.

 Prayer

Jesus, help me tell my family and friends about you.

"Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these."

Walk For Life West Coast

Saturday, January 20, 2024

Contact: Tim O'Neil

916-214-4133, oneil.tms@gmail.com

This year marks the 20th Anniversary of the Walk for Life West Coast, 20 years of standing for the littlest and most vulnerable among us, and 20 years of fearlessly asserting that Abortion Hurts Women. While we are challenged and called to greater efforts by the post-Dobbs defeat of pro-life efforts around the country, at the same time we are transcendently encouraged and elated by the fact that at least 32,000 lives have been saved! This anniversary year we have some special events at the Walk.

The Knights are sponsoring a bus to travel to San Francisco for the annual event. To make Mass at the Cathedral, the bus will be leaving the St. John's parking lot at 7am sharp, returning to the parking lot around 5:30 pm. Reservations and a $10 refundable deposit required. There are 56 seats, first come, first served. It will open to parishioners and youth group the first week in January. For reservations or more information please contact Tim.

Event Schedule

9:30 am - Walk for Life Mass at St. Mary's Cathedral - all are welcome

10:45 am - 12:15 pm - Silent No More Awareness Campaign

12:30 pm - main event

1:30 pm - start walking
