Welcome to

St. John the Baptist Catholic Church

We are a community where we welcome all as members of the Body of Christ.

We are welcoming, faithful, passionate, joyful, authentic, sacramental, loving and charitable.

Today's Readings

Ils 25:6-10a / Ps 23:1-3a, 3b-4, 5, 6 [6cd] / Phil 4:12-14, 19-20 / Mt 22:1-14 or 22:1-10

"The kingdom of heaven may be likened to a king who gave a wedding feast for his son."

(Mt 22:2)

Gospel Meditation

God gives us an invitation to have an abundant life. The banquet is ready, and the tables are set. Come! There is so much to attend to in the everydayness of our lives. We have plans, after all. There is never enough time and so much that needs to be done. There is work, children, and grandchildren, paying the bills, planning for retirement, figuring out the details of our next vacation, making sure we are on top of our game with work, planning social engagements, answering emails, texts, and getting our latest pictures on Facebook. There is always something. What is this about some banquet?

I need another party and commitment like a hole in the head. I can't manage what I already have, and someone is asking me to do more! Seriously? I saw the invitation; I think it came in the mail the other day. Did I leave it on the table? Oh wait, it may have gotten thrown away. I can't remember. In any case, I'm managing things pretty well on my own, I think. Thanks for thinking of me, but no thanks. My life is only as good as I make it and I have to be sure that all is in order! Oh, another invitation came today! This guy's being persistent. Now, I'm getting angry. I wish he would just leave me alone and stop with this invitation nonsense.

I woke up feeling a bit unsettled this morning. The kids have left the house, the grandchildren are busy with their lives, my retirement fund is losing ground, I'm worried about my health, folks have moved away, and I find myself alone. I am unhappy. I remember getting an invitation some time ago to a banquet promising new life and life in abundance. Did

I miss something? I think I may have. I am finally discovering that life is not about me and my world. I think I've ignored the God who made me and the God who is the reason for my life, my hope, and my joy. It's always been about me. I have not really discovered Eternal Love.

Is the invitation still open? Can I come to the banquet? I think I'd like to come.

Scripture Reflections

First Reading

Isaiah prophesied God's salvation and delivery for all the nations, not just for Israel. In what ways do you see this prophecy fulfilled today?

Second Reading

As his letter to the Philippians draws to a close, Paul speaks of his constant focus on Christ regardless of his life's circumstances. How do you draw strength from Christ in the ebb and flow of your life?

Gospel

Jesus' parable of the wedding feast speaks to the importance of being properly prepared for the return of Christ. How would you assess your own spiritual readiness for Jesus' Second Coming and the final judgment?

Returning to Indoor Mass Celebrations

Dear Parishioners,

To God be the Glory!

As we move back indoors for all our liturgical celebrations, know that nothing changes with the practices that we already have. Allow me to remind you to:

- Observe the 6ft social distancing
- Wear your mask at all times
- Stay home when you are sick
- Wash your hands frequently
- Avoid congregating at the vestibule of the church
- Sign in for contact tracing purposes

I implore your utmost understanding and vigilance following/observing the visible signage inside the church.

Mass times are as follows:

- 5pm (Sat)
- 7am, 9am, 11am & 6pm (Sun)

This allows the cleaning crew to sanitize the entire church prior to the next service.

For the time being, the daily Mass schedule stays the same:

- 6:30am (Mon-Fri only)

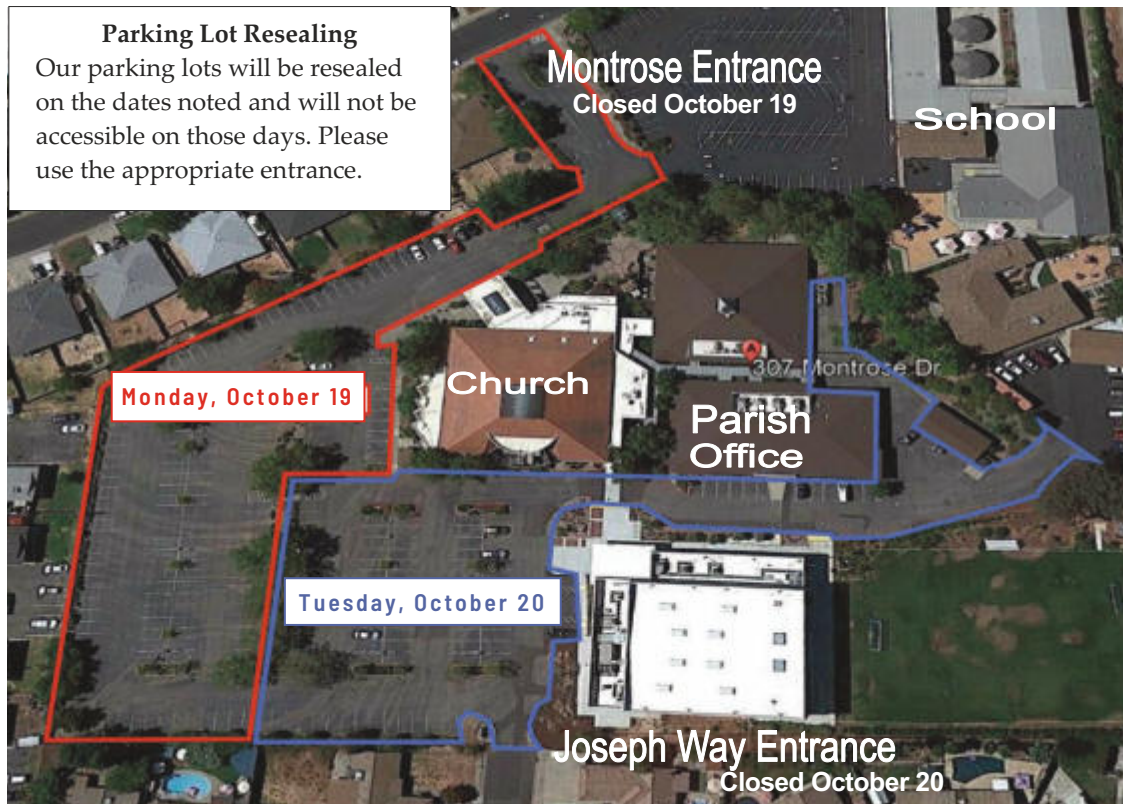

For more information about the guidelines and protocols, please visit our website.

May the love and protection of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Good Shepherd come upon us through the intercession of our Blessed Mother, Mary.

Co-worker in Christ,
Fr. Renier Siva, Pastor

Devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus received a surge of popularity in the late 1600s. Jesus appeared several times to a French religious sister, St. Margaret Mary Alacoque, pointing to his heart. When appearing to Margaret Mary, Jesus affirmed his love for all mankind: "Behold the Heart which has so loved men that it has spared nothing." He asked for a special feast celebrating his Sacred Heart on the Friday following the feast of Corpus Christi.

"I need nothing but God, and to lose myself in the heart of Jesus."

Ignatius of Antioch

What example does he offer us in Christian living as we celebrate his feast day?

As Bishop of Antioch (the modern day city of Antakya, Turkey), Ignatius witnessed to the faith during the reign of Emperor Trajan, who ruled from 98-117. Persecution of Christians broke out in Antioch, and Ignatius was captured and taken to Rome for martyrdom in the arena. On his journey to Rome over land and sea, Ignatius writes seven letters to various churches. These letters give powerful glimpses into the theology and practice of the early church, along with insights into the role of a bishop as pastoral leader. Ignatius is the first to use the term "Catholic Church" to refer to the various Christian communities of the Roman Empire. The best known of his letters is the one he wrote to the Romans. Ignatius addresses influential Christians who might be tempted to intercede on his behalf, thus sparing him from martyrdom. He advises them against it, being resolute in his desire to be the "wheat of God." Eucharistic links are most evident in his words. As Christ willingly offered himself as witness to God's total love, Ignatius, too, desired to be "food for the wild beasts," so that he could become "the pure bread of Christ." Eucharistic living was so crucial to Ignatius that he was willing to die in order to model himself on the Lord who willingly offered all. Reflect on how you can use Ignatius as a model in your own eucharistic life of faith.

The Gospel of Matthew

An Online 15-Segment Zoom Series
Presented by Deacon Jim McFadden
October 13, Tuesday, 7 pm
Contact: Theresa Grant
tgrant203@aol.com

Session 7: The Power of the Kingdom
Matthew now moves beyond words and shows Jesus going out into the world, where he will touch and change lives. Life that is in the Kingdom has become an effective power in the world that changes the human situation.

When the crowds stand before the "mighty works that Jesus did "they were struck with awe and glorified God who had given such authority to human beings"-- Jesus and his disciples. The power that is exercised through and in Christ and the fellowship of his disciples, will be paramount of the emerging Church.

To register for the series, please email Theresa Grant. You will receive an email prior to the scheduled session with the Zoom online link & instructions. Please check your spam/junk mail in case you do not receive the email in your inbox.

Inspiration for the Week

Come to the feast! God calls us to participate in the banquet of life, a banquet that can fill and satisfy us like no other. It is a spiritual feast where we kind find inner refreshment and satisfy the thirst and hunger of our souls. Do you want to come? Every human being receives an invitation; no one is excluded. There is no charge and an abundant table is set. Some will blatantly refuse. They see no merit in attending and feel that they can fill their needs in other ways. Others will simply ignore the invitation. Maybe they are too consumed with other matters they feel are more important at the time. Still others may even get angry and feel deep resentment for even being asked, resorting to acts of violence in protest of the very presence of the feast. In spite of this, many will also come. They will be the good and the bad, the lost and the lonely, and the ones who understand. They know love when they see it. When they go to the feast, they will rejoice and be glad as they will have found the God for whom they looked!

At St. John the Baptist Parish, we bring Christ's light to all through service to others.

2nd Collection

This weekend our 2nd collection will be for our Building and Maintenance Fund.

Last weekend our 2nd collection was for our RE Program and SJND. Together we collected $1056.

Next weekend is World Mission Sunday. We are called through our Baptism to be part of the Church's missionary efforts, through prayer, self-sacrifice and support of the Mission Church through material aid.

This year, Pope Francis asks us to respond to that call, saying, "Here I Am, Send Me!" To "send" ourselves, we can: PRAY for the Church's worldwide missionary work. OFFER financial HELP and CHARITY through the collection for the Society for the Propagation of the Faith for vulnerable communities throughout Asia, Africa, Latin America and the Pacific Islands.

Respond with Love

Do you remember a time when you spent much time or money on a surprise or gift for someone else and they failed to appreciate it? We do open ourselves up to disappointment if our expectations do not match the response. Perhaps we reached down deep to share a part of ourselves only to encounter apathy and insensitivity. That can hurt even if the person ignoring our gesture meant no ill will toward us.

What must God feel like when we fail to respond to what He has done for us. We probably do not purposefully slight God, but perhaps we are so busy and mindless that it becomes impossible to be responsive and mindful. We can miss the gift of God which is right before our eyes.

It is very difficult to be a good steward if we do not intentionally choose to be mindful. We miss the important stuff in life, and we neglect those placed in our path as gifts to enrich our lives. If we are to live as Jesus asks, we must work on focusing our eyes of faith on the things that matter and the gifts we have been given. If we are made in the image of God, I suppose we can guess how God might feel when His gifts are not acknowledged, or His love not returned. If I reflect on the One who loves me more than anyone, how can I choose to not offer my love in return?

Born in 1174, Hedwig was one of eight children born to the Count of Andechs and Duke of Croatia and Dalmatia. She was educated at the monastery of Kitzingen, and according to an old biography, at the age of twelve (1186), was married to Henry I of Silesia. Henry I was an energetic prince, who greatly extended the boundaries of his duchy. Hedwig exercised her great influence in the government of the land through her prudence, fortitude, and piety. In particular she gave her support to new monastic foundations and assisted those already in existence. It was chiefly through the monasteries that German civilization was spread in Silesia. At the instance of his saintly wife, the duke then founded at his own expense, and on ground donated by himself the convent of the Cistercian nuns at Trebnitz in 1202, and generously endowed it.

The couple had seven children. After her husband's death, Hedwig took the grey habit of the Cistercians, but was not received into the order as a religious, that she might retain the right to spend her revenue in charities. The duchess practiced severe mortification, endured all trials with the greatest resignation, with self-denying charity cared for the sick and supported the poor. Her piety and gentleness won for her even during life, the reputation of a saint. She died on October 15, 1243, and laid to rest in the church attached to the Monastery at Trebnitz. Many miracles were wrought through her intercession that Pope Clement IV proclaimed her a saint on March 26, 1267 and on August 25 of the same year, her remains were raised to the honors of the Altar.

This servant of God, never neglected the practice of all good works. She had the power to relieve the bodily and spiritual troubles of all who sought her help. St. Hedwig is the patroness of brides, death of children, difficult marriages, victims of jealousy, widows and duchesses.

Gina Shaughnessy, our parish representative from LPi, is working on setting up the advertising for our bulletin for the upcoming year. Given the COVID-19 situation, she is working on the ads remotely. We hope that parishioners who have a business will consider sponsoring an ad on the back of the bulletin, since the revenue from the ads is what makes the bulletin possible, at no cost to the parish.

Also, if you know of any other business in the community that would like to support the parish, please let them know about this opportunity. Advertisements can be purchased for a business, family, or a sponsorship ad can be purchased supporting community service organizations such as emergency pregnancy counseling, the local food shelf, etc. As you might imagine, we could use some extra support this year, as many businesses have suffered as a result of COVID-19, and other unforeseen events this year. Please give these ideas some thought.

We need and appreciate your help!
