Gospel Meditation

Who are you? This question was most assuredly asked of Jesus on the day of resurrection and it is a question asked of each of us. Our identities can be described in so many ways. We can start with our gifts and our talents, expertise and unique personality expressions. We can describe things we like and things we prefer to set aside. As descriptive and captivating as these can be, none come close to our essence, our real and true self. While accurate in their own right, the self who lives and interacts with the world is the self we want others to see, the one we project. But there is much more to us just as there is much more to Jesus.

Jesus could describe himself based on all of the same criteria we use for ourselves. After all, Jesus is totally human. With all that people witnessed and all that Jesus knew about his physical human self, his divinity also shined forth. There was so much more to know about him. Whereas once Jesus was transfigured on top of a mountain before his disciples' eyes, so today he is transfigured before our eyes as he reveals his resurrected self as the Christ. Alleluia, Christ is risen! His glorified presence stands before us showing us that we are all much more than we see ourselves to be and show to others. We have a depth, purpose, and essence that go way beyond the superficial treasures of our existence to the very core of who we are.

Within each one of us is a spark of Divine Love where creature and Creator meet, and we are known uniquely by the name God whispers to us. It is not the earthly name that was given to us but the one that flows from Divine Power and claims us as one who is special and chosen in God's eyes. This is the self that will rise one day with the eternal Christ of God and live eternally as God provides. This is the self that when free from all superficial constraints layered upon it in this life can discover and know freedom in a way never possible before. This is love lifting us up and transforming us into who we really are, not who we want or need ourselves to be. Who are you? A special, unique child of God who has been fashioned in God's image, sustained by the power of God's love and kept eternally with the Blessed Trinity in heaven. Get to know this deeper, truer self as it is who you really are.

Scripture Reflections

First Reading

We hear today part of the speech that Peter delivered in the household of Cornelius, a centurion and Gentile-believer in Christ. Peter bore witness to his experiences with Jesus, including Jesus' resurrection. To whom do you bear witness to your faith in the resurrected Jesus?

Second Reading

Paul urges the Colossians to remain focused on Jesus' resurrection, ascension, and final return — to "seek what is above." What do you find appealing in this spiritual exercise?

Gospel

Mark's account of Jesus' resurrection focuses on the women's discovery of the empty tomb. In fact, Jesus risen from the tomb is the original ending of the Gospel of Mark. Why do you think Mark would end his Gospel with the empty tomb?

At St. John the Baptist Parish, we welcome all as members of the Body of Christ.

Dear Parishioners,

He is Risen! Alleluia!

Jesus said to her (Martha), "I am the resurrection and the life; the one who believes in me will live, even if he dies; and everyone who lives and believes in Me will never die. Do you believe this?" (Jn 11:25-26)

This passage epitomizes what we have been through during this pandemic. We have been tried, tested, and challenged. As a result, the light of our faith seemed to flicker and threatened to be extinguished. Like Martha, during this unprecedented time, we felt as if something salient was taken away from us. There were times that we were not able to do the things we loved doing, i.e., celebrating Mass with our parish family. We missed personal interactions with our fellow parishioners, even with our immediate family for that matter.

However, there is a saying that goes, "After the rain, there's a rainbow; after a storm, there's calm; after the night, there's morning; and after an end, there's a new beginning and renewed hope. He is the Morning Star that never sets. He is the new light who undimmed the darkness of sin and death. He is Risen! Alleluia!

On behalf of Fr. Cleetus, the deacons and the Parish Staff, I invite all of you to celebrate the Sacred Triduum with us. Together, let us walk with Jesus during the last moments of His earthly journey with renewed hope that one day, like Him, "we will rise triumphantly from the dead when He raises our body to be like His in glory"

Fr. Renier Siva

Pastor of St. John the Baptist

Inspiration for the Week

Alleluia! Christ is risen! About today’s feast, St. Augustine writes: “And he departed from our sight that we might return to our hearts and find him there. For he left us, and behold, he is here.” Christ’s resurrected presence lives not only in the highest heaven but in the fragile human heart. Christ’s life inspires us and moves us to see a future for every human being and discover our true purpose and meaning. Every human being has a desire to live, and this cry can be heard within. There is a longing for a connection with Someone greater than ourselves that gives an import to our existence that we cannot supply. Today, our deepest questions find answers.

Divine Mercy Novena

All are invited to join us in praying the Divine Mercy Novena & Chaplet as a family in Christ here at St. John the Baptist.

Jesus asked that the Feast of the Divine Mercy be preceded by a Novena to the Divine Mercy which would begin on Good Friday. He told St. Faustina “On each day of the novena you will bring to My heart a different group of souls and you will immerse them in this ocean of My mercy....On each day you will beg My Father, on the strength of My passion, for the graces of these souls.”

We will meet the majority of the 9 evenings before the Feast of the Divine Mercy Sunday at 5pm in the church. On Easter Sunday, April 4, 2021, we will meet via Zoom (time TBD). Each evening begins with a prayer and viewing of an episode or two of, “Divine Mercy in the Second Greatest Story Ever Told.” Come and watch how Fr. Michael Gaitley, MIC combines history, Scripture, prophecy and the lives of the saints to show God’s merciful love for the whole world. Immediately following the video we will pray the Novena and Chaplet. We should be done around 6:30pm. Due to Covid restrictions, we will not be having a potluck or social gathering after the prayers.

Saturday, April 10, the Divine Mercy Vigil will be at 4pm (prior to the 5pm Mass). There will also be opportunity for confessions. The Chaplet will be prayed 20 minutes prior to all Masses on Divine Mercy Sunday.

A Happy Ending Isn't the Whole Story

"Is there a happy ending?"

When my kids were young, we never made it past the first whiff of any narrative tension before I got this question. As soon as whatever princess or furry woodland animal who was the hero of the story got into any small scrape, they wanted that reassurance, "Is there a happy ending?"

I can't say I blame them. Don't we all feel that way sometimes? We enter into a relationship with someone or some situation, and we just want to protect ourselves. We want to know it's not going to go badly — or, if it does, that we will be able to come back from it. It's a human instinct, a reflex. Our inclination to protect ourselves makes it so that we sometimes want to press fast-forward on the bad stuff and skip straight ahead to the happily-ever-after.

Easter is the ultimate happy ending. It's the day of miracles. The day when all the stones roll away and all the sins are forgiven. It's the day that puts everything right.

But if we learned anything from this week — from the Passion and death of the Lord — it's that we can't press fast-forward on the hardships of life. That tension, that loss, that fear — it's crucial, isn't it? As Catholics, we are who we are because of Easter. But Easter doesn't happen without Good Friday.

So, does the story of salvation have a happy ending? We know it does. But we also remember that the ending isn't all that matters.

Sharing the Gospel

Mary Magdalene was surprised when she found the empty tomb of Jesus. She ran and told Peter and John that his body was gone. Peter and John ran to the tomb. They found no body, just strips of cloth. One piece was the cloth that covered the face of Jesus. Peter and John knew that Jesus was not in the grave, even though they did not understand what it meant to rise from the dead.

 Mission for the Week

I will tell someone that Jesus is alive.

 Prayer

Jesus, you died and rose from the dead so I can share your life on earth and in heaven. Thank you.

MINISTRIES

"Here am I, Lord;
I come to do your will."

AN EASTER PROCLAMATION

The hosts of heaven exult and sing aloud in mighty triumph!
 Let the earth be glad as glory alights and night reigns no more.
 Let the Church rejoice at the victory of her Lord and Master,
 Who paid the debt of Adam,
 Who frees those doomed to die,
 Who heals the broken-hearted and bind up their wounds,
 Who forgives the sinner and raises up the lowly,
 Who destroys death forever,
 Whose Kingdom shall have no end.
 God our Father, eternal is your love for us!
 Christ the Son, in victory you reign!
 Holy Spirit, set the Easter fire ablaze in our hearts.
 Together you live and reign and ransom your people,
 one God forever and ever.

Amen.
