Gospel Meditation

By Father John Muir

Matthew 24:37-44

A few years ago, my house was broken into on Super Bowl Sunday. Turns out, it's a great day for burglars. If the TV isn't on, people are probably watching the game somewhere else, so ... easy pickins'. I'll never forget walking into my bedroom and realizing someone had been there. My stuff was thrown all over the floor. The closet was torn apart. It was disorienting and disturbing — someone had invaded the space I thought was secure. After that, I bought an alarm system. And every Super Bowl Sunday since, I'm extra careful to lock the doors and keep the lights on. That experience made me more alert. Not scared. Just attentive.

That's much like the spiritual place Jesus wants us to be on this first Sunday of Advent. He doesn't start the season with soft candlelight and cozy manger scenes. He starts with two brutal images: a flood and a thief. In other words, chaos and violation.

Why? Because life will flood us. Chaos will come. And in the midst of it, Christ will come like a thief — not to steal from us, but to steal us back. He is the intruder we should want. The one who breaks in, not to ransack, but to rescue.

Christ presents himself as the thief but also the new Noah. He builds the ark of the Church to carry us through the flood. And he invites us to join him. How? By participating fully in our parishes. By making our homes places of prayer. By guarding our hearts with truth. By refusing to let spiritual complacency leave us exposed. By repentance.

This Advent, don't just stay vaguely "awake." Prepare. Build. Watch. The flood will come. But so will he.

Questions of the Week

1st Reading

The prophet Isaiah envisioned a future with no more wars and nations united in belief and worship of Israel's God. What does a world totally at peace look like?

2nd Reading

Paul encouraged the Romans to live with a sense of urgency in anticipation of their own salvation. What motivates you to live a moral life?

Gospel

Jesus taught his disciples that no one knows when the Son of Man will return, so you must always be prepared. How do you plan to use the season of Advent this year to welcome Jesus into your life?

Pope Francis' Monthly Intention for November For the prevention of suicide

Let us pray that those who are struggling with suicidal thoughts might find the support, care, and love they need in their community, and be open to the beauty of life.

\ Please note ALL monthly intentions for 2025 were chosen by the late Pope Francis at the end of 2024. Pope Leo will choose intentions for 2026.*

Live the Liturgy

Inspiration For the Week

"You do not know on which day your Lord will come," Jesus says. He is reminding us that we do not know the mind of God. But we do know the heart of God, and we know that it is filled with mercy for those who heed the warning: Stay awake!

WELCOME

At St. John the Baptist Parish, we welcome all as members of the Body of Christ.

Shepherds Field Olive Wood Handcrafts

Religious Article Sales

November 29-30, After all Masses

A group from the Holy Land (Bethlehem & Jerusalem) will be selling religious articles after Masses to support the Catholic Christian minorities in Bethlehem. As a tradition, many of the Catholic families in the Holy Land work in small workshops to produce religious articles from olive wood. These articles represent the Christian art of the Holy Land. In the past, they used to sell their artwork to pilgrims who visit. These days they are facing an economic hardship, as pilgrims are not visiting due to the political issues and the current war. Many of the Catholic families immigrated and left. The struggle to preserve the Catholic identity of the birthplace of our savior; Jesus Christ is a serious concern. Sales will be used to help and support the Catholics in the Holy Land and to encourage them not to immigrate.

Join the movement! It all starts with prayer. Come join us in helping women and babies where they are. Planned Parenthood's main focus IS abortion. Many women stop for information from the sidewalk counselors because they don't realize they have alternatives to the "choice" they are about to make. So many resources are given and so much love and support. Not just during pregnancy but as long as needed. Former abortion clinic workers have confided that up to 75% of appointments are "no shows" when people are outside praying. St. Johns has weekly carpools. Join us on Mondays, meeting at our church at 9:30am. Contact Joanne.

Read the Gospel and Color

Mt 24:37-44

Remember that when God told Noah to build an ark, his neighbors laughed at him. Then one day God sent the flood. Only Noah's family was saved because they listened to God, and they were ready. Jesus has already told you that one day he will come back. He wants you to be saved. He wants you to be ready. When you read Bible stories, listen carefully. Love God like Noah did, and learn to do what God asks.

Prayer

Dear God, help me to love you and to be ready for Jesus.

Mission for the Week

Make sure the movies, games, and music you choose help you grow closer to Jesus.
