Today's Readings

Is 63:16b-17, 19b; 64:2-7/Ps 80:2-3, 15-16, 18-19 (4)/1 Cor 1:3-9/Mk 13:33-37

*"Lord, make us turn to you; let us see your face and we shall be saved."
(Ps 80)*

Gospel Meditation

By Father John Muir

Lately I've been listening to a science-based podcast on healthy daily living. The host frequently discusses the wide range of health benefits of sleep. So, each night I'm trying to get more, and better, slumber, and it's helping me feel energized. So, why in the world should we follow Christ's advice this week? "Watch therefore, for you do not know when the master of the house will come ... lest he find you asleep." Isn't sleep, especially at midnight and cockcrow, a good thing?

Of course, it is. But the wakefulness the Lord calls us to is a deep, personal orientation to Him. A nightly vigil is therefore a metaphor for this, but it's not just that. We should give up real sleep in order to pray, too. This difficult practice is a time-tested way to foster wakefulness of heart. When we give up sleep to pray, it focuses us. We learn that life is not an endless series of days. You and I belong to the Lord — awake or asleep, in life and in death. Sooner or later, even our need for our physical sleep will pass away. And our attentiveness to God — that is, whether we are awaiting Him to meet us — will be all that matters.

May I challenge us this week and this Advent to intentionally give up at least one hour of sleep each week for prayer? Stay up later, wake up in the middle of the night, or an hour earlier, and pray. Will we be a bit more tired the next day? Yes. But we'll be amazed at the spiritual wakefulness that results, too.

Scripture Reflections

First Reading

In prayer, the prophet Isaiah grieves over our sins that separates us from God.

What sorrow or distress have you experienced over the past week?

Second Reading

Paul offers up a prayer of thanksgiving to God for the many gifts the believers have received because of their faith in Jesus. As we begin the season of Advent, for what are you thankful?

Gospel

Each Advent, the Gospel reading begins with Jesus instructing his disciples to watch carefully for the end times. How often do you think about the Second Coming of Jesus and judgment day?

At St. John the Baptist Parish,
we welcome all
as members of the Body of Christ.

Mass in the Church Chapel

All are invited to join us in praying the Divine Mercy Chaplet in English and

In St. Faustina's diary, Jesus asked "Say unceasingly the Chaplet that I have taught you...even if there were a sinner most hardened, if you were to recite this chaplet only once, he would receive grace from My infinite mercy." (Diary p.687)

Small steps for forming a deeper prayer life – Online Retreat Resource

Advent is a time to prepare for us to receive the word made flesh, Jesus! While it still seems like there is time to get ready, time can slip by quickly. Creating a plan ahead of time can help make the best use of the season. One resource you can add to your parish, small group, family, or personal tool kit is this great series – Atomic Habits of Prayer by Fr. Brendan McGuire. You can find that here: <https://www.frbrendanmcguire.org/atomic-habits-of-prayer>

Eucharistic Revival

True Presence

Jesus, we thank you for the gift of the Eucharist. Please give us the grace to believe in your True Presence when our human senses fail. We desire the eyes of faith because we believe you are the spring of every good thing. Nothing is better than you. Allow us to be good and pure vessels, ready to partake and receive you in the Blessed Sacrament. We believe; help our unbelief. Amen.

Eucharistic Revival Study
Contact Shannon Frazier
rsfrazier4@comcast.net

The National Eucharistic Revival is a movement to restore understanding and devotion to the Eucharist here in the United States. This 3-year revival is in its second year, which focuses on parishes across the country. During the Year of Parish Revival, Saint John the Baptist parish invites you to participate in the Jesus and the Eucharist Study. The study will immerse participants in the kerygmatic proclamation and unveil God's saving work in the Eucharist. This study will be available every Wednesday, beginning February 7 through March 20 for 7-weeks. Morning and evening sessions will be offered. A Thursday evening Zoom session will also be available beginning February 8 and ending March 21. For our Spanish congregation this same study (in Spanish) will take place every Friday evening beginning February 9 through March 22.

Please mark your calendar to unite with fellow parishioners for this spiritually enriching parish wide small group study. Let it be your Lenten Challenge in 2024. More information will follow in the parish bulletin, on the St John the Baptist website, and Facebook or contact Shannon Frazier.

Mt 25:31-46

When you play on a baseball team, you learn how to pay attention. Your coach reminds you and your teammates to stay ready. You learn to watch the ball. Those are good lessons to learn, because Jesus wants you to pay attention, too. Keep your eyes and your mind on Jesus, so you're ready when he comes.

 Mission for the Week

Play a quick game of baseball. Cheer for one another. End the game with a prayer that you will keep your eyes on Jesus.
