Welcome to

St. John the Baptist Catholic Church

We are a community where we welcome all as members of the Body of Christ.

We are welcoming, faithful, passionate, joyful, authentic, sacramental, loving and charitable.

Today's Readings

Acts 14:21-27 / Ps 145:8-9, 10-11, 12-13 / Rv 21:1-5a / Jn 13:31-33a, 34-35

"I will praise your name for ever, my king and my God. "
(Ps 146)

Gospel Meditation

"It is necessary for us to undergo many hardships to enter the Kingdom of God." Many folks really work very hard to circumvent difficult situations. We prefer the easier way around something, rather than risk inconvenience, hurt or prolonged suffering. It's no wonder euthanasia is rapidly becoming acceptable around the world. Through purely human eyes, there is no issue bypassing the inevitable, taking control and bringing things more swiftly to a place of peace. If this is the way God sees things, then why does Jesus make such a big deal helping us understand the experience of suffering and embrace it? God's wisdom clearly takes us in another direction.

Imagine if we were able to eradicate ALL hardship and suffering. Where would we be? As we look at our own journeys, many of our solid more growth producing life lessons have been born of suffering, disappointment, inconvenience, darkness, and despair. There is something sacred about all of these experiences as God uses them to create something new. Envisioning a life without hardship and suffering brings us to a vision where everything is flat-lined and dull. As much as hardship and suffering are difficult crosses to bear, not taking them up runs the risk of us becoming shallow, empty, and lifeless.

Helen Keller remarks that, "a happy life consists not in the absence but in the mastery of hardships." What an incredibly wise insight! Many really successful people and saints were brought to their station in life because they suffered. Suffering teaches us about what's important and propels us to search the depths of our souls for resources and strength we never would have known before.

This is especially true when we love as Jesus asks us to love. Love, perhaps above any other experience, can cause us great hardship, pain, and suffering especially when it's authentic and unconditional. While it can thrust us into an incredible experience of God and life on one hand, it can bruise and wound us deeply on the other. Mastering the art of love is the secret to living life well, walking in the presence of God and investing in the joy of the Gospel. Love and suffering walk hand in hand. Compromising one will compromise the other. Maybe that's why Jesus spent so much time convincing us to accept both.

Scripture Reflections

First Reading

We hear in Acts how Paul and Barnabas formed Gentile-believing churches in cities of the eastern Roman Empire. What do you think is needed today to build a strong faith community?

Second Reading

In John's final visions, he sees "a new Jerusalem" coming down from heaven. God is fully present with humanity and there is no more suffering and death. How often do you think about the end-times?

Gospel

As Jesus discussed his impending death with the disciples, he presents them with "a new commandment: love one another." In what ways are you challenged by this commandment?

Thank You to Our Parishioners!

from our Prison Ministry

Thank you to all who donated Easter and Mother's Day cards to the Catholic ministry at California State Prison, Sacramento! Your kindness contributed to the distribution of greeting cards to over 1,500 inmates so that they can stay connected to their loved ones on the outside.

from St. Vincent de Paul

Dear Parish Family, please accept this overdue note of thanks for your generous donations to St. Vincent DePaul this year: food, clothing, household items and financial.

We also want to extend our gratitude to the Cub Scours Pack 94 for their own food drive/collection, and to the Knights of Columbus, for facilitating the "40 Cans for Lent". We certainly received more than 40 cans!

And lastly, we are grateful for your response to the parish Lenten challenge to bring nonperishable food items to the altar. It was a beautiful sight! We have no doubt that the families in need in our community appreciate the support, and we hear their "thank you" and expressions of gratitude on a regular basis.

So, again, thank you! It is because of you and your support that we can serve so many - even families from Ukraine.

Please NO Food or Drinks in the Church

Dear parents of little ones (and all parishioners),

We understand that sometimes our littlest ones get hungry in the middle of Mass. However, if you need to give them a small snack, can you please go to the vestibule for them to eat? Our new carpet suffered some stains on Easter weekend from food. We need to be good stewards of this environment and do our part to keep it clean and in good shape for many years to come.

Thank you!

St. John the Baptist Church

Feast Day: May 16

Though St. Margaret of Cortona (1247 – 1297) is today known as being an incredibly pious Catholic, she didn't start out that way. Born into a farming family in Laviano, Tuscany, her mother died when St. Margaret was seven. Her father remarried, but life with her stepmother was so difficult that St. Margaret moved out of the home and instead chose to live with a man named Arsenio, though they weren't married. They had been living together for nine years when she gave birth to a son. Knowing in her heart that this wasn't the life that God intended for her to have, she prayed for purity.

One day while waiting for Arsenio, his dog led her into the forest where she found Arsenio murdered. So shocked was St. Margaret that she fell into a life of penance. She and her son returned to Laviano, but still found her stepmother to be as unwelcoming as ever. They then went to Cortona, and eventually her son became a friar.

Three years after her conversion, St. Margaret followed in her son's footsteps and became a Franciscan tertiary. During her life, St. Margaret established a hospital and founded a congregation of tertiary sisters. She was canonized in 1728.

Thank you to all who came out to pray during the recent 40 Days for Life campaign.

Almost 450 babies were saved across the globe with 8 of those being right here in Sacramento! Additionally, we handed out over 400 packets of information. Just think of the impact that information is having in our community as Planned Parenthood's parking lot has been empty at times and business has slowed. Praise be to God! Former abortion workers have said that up to 75% of women with appointments have not shown up when people are outside praying.

Join us!

Prayers and help continue on Tuesdays and Wednesdays, busy surgical abortion days. Carpool available. For more info contact Joanne.

*Give them courage, hope and strength.
May they ever experience your firm

Loving as New Creations

“There’s something different about you.”

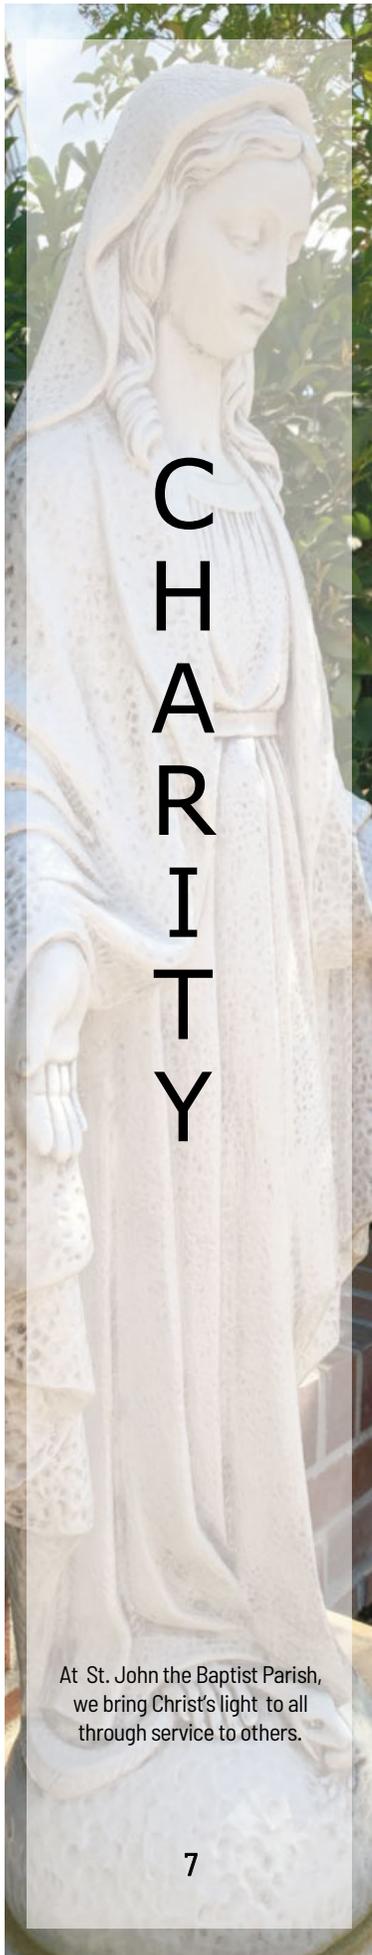

Think about the times in your life when this has been said to you. Maybe it was after someone complimented you on a job well done, and you realized that you were walking through life with a little more confidence. Maybe it was after meeting someone special, as you carried the glow of that relationship wherever you went. Chances are, if someone has noticed something different about you, it’s because, inwardly, you’ve been changed by the loving or respectful actions of another person.

Love, you see, can make us into new creations. From the love of God flows the grace to tackle any challenge, including the biggest challenge of all: loving each other well. Christ knows what a big request this is. He was human, too. He came and lived among us. He knew intimately what it was to love people in the chaos of their own flaws. He knew what he was asking of us when he said, “As I have loved you, so you should also love one another.”

In essence, this is the call to stewardship: loving as Christ loves, amidst the messiness of everyday reality. Loving with accountability, challenging ourselves and our brothers and sisters to be faithful even when it is hard. Loving with an unflinching sense of hospitality that welcomes even those we do not agree with or understand. Loving with gratitude, giving thanks for the great variety of ways that Christ can make himself known to us through others.

It isn’t easy — we all know that. But if we ask God for the grace to remain steadfast in this greatest commandment, we will be given what we need to live as new creations.

we bring Christ's light to all

KID'S CORNER

Sharing the Gospel

Jesus gave his disciples a new rule. He told them they had to love each other, just like he loved them. What did Jesus mean? Jesus was very patient with his friends. He forgave his friends when they let him down. Jesus comforted his friends when they were afraid. Most of all he helped them grow closer to God.

Fit this Gospel message into the empty squares

You must love each other.

Mission for the Week

I will follow Jesus and forgive those who have hurt me.

Rosary Crusade for Priests

Pray for Our Priests

May 28, Saturday, 12:00 noon - 5:00 pm
Hughes Stadium, Sacramento City College

*"Apart from me you can do nothing", Jesus told his disciples.
(Jn. 15:5).*

The Catholic priesthood is under assault by an array of elements within the culture, and without doubt, countless unseen demonic forces as well. If they had their way, they would drive the priesthood into extinction.

The purpose of the event is to pray for all our priests in our dioceses, for vocations to the priesthood and for current seminarians endeavoring to become priests. The faithful will be encouraged to continue novenas, sacrifices and the Rosary, even after the event concludes. Catholics praying in stadiums was once common across America; it is time to bring this back! In these critical times we ask all Catholics to join us in prayer at this historic Rosary Crusade.

Keynote speakers are Fr. Donald Calloway, MIC and Terry Barber.

The Rosary Crusade has been organized with the direction of the Diocese of Sacramento. The stadium has ample parking for cars and buses; ticket information found on the website.
