Gospel Meditation

By Father John Muir

Matthew 28:16-20

I recently read a book called “The Defining Decade” by psychologist Dr. Meg Jay. She convincingly argues that a person’s 20s are the most impactful decade of one’s life. For example, a twenty-something who waits until she has absolute clarity before making commitments typically drifts and regrets it later. But those who dive into something meaningful — even with doubts and questions — tend to grow and find joy and better outcomes in life. In other words, it takes courage, not perfect certainty, to move forward.

As we celebrate the Ascension of the Lord, that insight comes alive in a new way. Matthew tells us: “When they saw him, they worshiped, but they doubted.” (Matthew 28:17) Even standing before the risen Christ, the disciples were a mixture of adoration and hesitation. It is as though they were in their spiritual 20s...unsure, doubting, but nonetheless called to act in worship and mission.

Here is the key: Jesus does not tell them to wait until they are sure of things. He sends them anyway: “Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations.” (Matthew 28:19) The mission of the Church begins not with perfect certainty but with imperfect disciples who wonder and worship. Then they get going.

That is us, too. We may feel unsure of ourselves, perhaps full of hesitation about following Christ more fully. But now is not the time to wait for perfect clarity. Now is the time to worship and to go, trusting that he is with us always, even to the end of the age.

Questions of the Week

1st Reading

Just before his ascension, Jesus teaches his disciples that they will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit to assist them in giving witness of Jesus throughout the world. Where do you sense the Holy Spirit active in your life?

2nd Reading

Paul offers a prayer of petition for believers to receive a Spirit of wisdom, revelation, and enlightenment. What might you petition for the Lord this week?

Gospel

One of the final messages the resurrected Jesus tells his disciples is that “all power in heaven and on earth has been given to me.” Where do you see Jesus’ power at work on earth today?

Let us pray that everyone, from large producers to small consumers, be committed to avoid wasting food, and to ensure that everyone has access to quality food.

Live the Liturgy

Inspiration For the Week

“Go,” Jesus said, “and make disciples of all nations.” How do we begin such an enormous task? Discipleship is not a lifestyle, but an identity. We begin by simply being disciples, by showing our discipleship in all that we do and all that we are.

WELCOME

Why Do We Do That? - Catholic Life Explained

Ascension of the Lord

Couldn't Jesus have done more good if he stayed on earth, rather than ascended into heaven?

This is an interesting question! During his earthly life, Jesus gave sight to the blind, healed paralytics, drove out demons, and fed thousands with only a few loaves of bread. Imagine what he could have done if he'd never ascended into heaven! Imagine what our world could be! It's an interesting thought to consider, especially as the world faces challenges that only seem to deepen and expand. Yet at the Last Supper, Jesus says, "It is better for you if I go." Why? His response must have seemed strange to the Apostles at the time. In his place, Jesus says, he will send the Paraclete, the Comforter, the Advocate. He promises to send the Holy Spirit.

Jesus' departure allows the Apostles to become the leaders he has formed them to be. Jesus is no longer situated in only one geographical location, and his Church will never be a political kingdom. Soon after the Ascension, we celebrate Pentecost — the descent of the Holy Spirit and the radical empowerment of the followers of Jesus. We share in that empowerment and in that mission. Jesus is present in the sacraments, and he is present in us. Through our faith, hope, and love, we are called to be the good he does here on earth!

KID'S CORNER

"Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these."

Read the Gospel and Color

Matthew 28:16-20

Before Jesus went back to heaven, he gave his friends a very special job - to share the good news! Jesus came so that the whole world could be saved, and Jesus did not want anyone to be left out. Now it's your turn to tell your friends about Jesus, so they can go to heaven, too.

Prayer

Jesus, show me how to tell my friends about you.

Mission for the Week

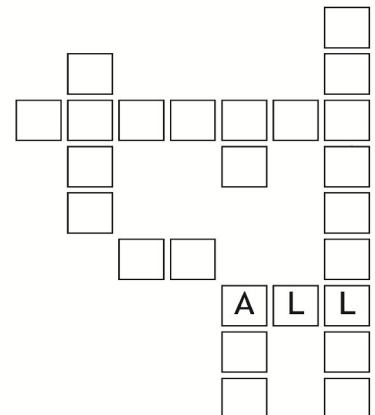

Invite a friend over to play. Ask your friend if she'd like to come to church with you.

Puzzle

Fit this Gospel message into the empty squares.

Go and make disciples of all nations.
