Welcome to

St. John the Baptist Catholic Church

We are a community where we welcome all as members of the Body of Christ.

We are welcoming, faithful, passionate, joyful, authentic,
sacramental, loving and charitable.

Today's Readings

Ex 20:1-17 / Ps 19:8, 9, 10, 11 / 1 Cor 1:22-25 / Jn 2:13-25

"Lord, you have the words of everlasting life."
(Ps 19)

Gospel Meditation

Many prefer a "create as you go" approach to life where laws and protocols primarily exist to secure and protect liberties rather than dictate and outline proper and right behavior. There are no real benchmarks for acceptable ethical and moral behavior, with a "you can't tell me what to do" attitude prevailing. Parents are even limited in what they can request of their children, and dealing with threatening behaviors, especially from adults, are a challenge as well. Acceptable and expected conduct seems to amount to safeguarding each other's space rather than increasing awareness of necessary relationships that require a more refined and higher response.

We have lost our axis to the world of "anything goes" and no longer see the Ten Commandments as practical and wise guideposts to effective living. We live on "relativism island" where only a possible suggestion to "love and do not harm" may be the only standard able to be preached. While Jesus most certainly emphasized love above anything else, it was never about warm fuzzy feelings or halfhearted humanitarian efforts. The love of which Jesus spoke establishes an intimate connection with God, neighbor, self, and creation. Because this love, who is God Himself, is at the foundational core of our lives, it demands actions and attitudes that serve to build up, increase, and free up those relationships. Love requires proper conduct. Preserving and enhancing these love centered relationships is at the heart of the Ten Commandments (and the Beatitudes) and the reason for Jesus' display of anger in the temple.

The Ten Commandments can save the world from turmoil and conflict by instilling basic moral and relational principles within us. They also hold a healthy sense of sin in balance and always remind us of our relationship with God and the freedom God offers. Our faith preserves these jewels of truth that we often look beyond, dismiss altogether, or seek to remove from public view. Human beings can be so arrogant at times. Our Lenten journey, especially when embarked upon with sincerity and resolve, can restore all of our essential relationships. When we get absorbed in life's preoccupations and demands, things can quickly get distorted and we can find ourselves way off track. In short, we find ourselves in sin. Humanity is losing a sense of both grace and sin. We need both to understand what is real and true. Until we do, the oppressive systems and ideologies that hurt so many will never change. We will never change. We are grateful for those courageous souls who willingly embrace the conversion and hard work Lent demands and stand against antiquated systems and ideologies. They give us hope that all is not lost.

Scripture Reflections

First Reading

In God's revelation to Moses of His "10 Commandments," seven of the ten Commandments regulate how we are to relate to each other. Which of these seven Commandments challenges you most?

Second Reading

Paul speaks of Jesus as both the "power of God and the wisdom of God." How could you prove Paul's assertion to a non-believer?

Gospel

John connects Jesus' cleansing of the Temple in Jerusalem to Jesus' bodily resurrection from the dead with a quote from Psalm 69: "Zeal for your house will consume me." During this season of Lent, how passionate is your faith?

Lenten Rites for RCIA

This Sunday, March 7th, we celebrate the first of three Scrutinies. Scrutinies always take place on the 3rd, 4th, and 5th Sundays in Lent. Scrutinies are for the Elect, those to be baptized, confirmed and receive First Eucharist at Easter Vigil. You may be wondering what a scrutiny is now. The Scrutinies are meant to uncover and then heal all that is weak, defective, or sinful in the hearts of the elect; to bring out and then strengthen all that is upright, strong, and good. These rites are celebrated in order to deliver the elect, and indeed all of us, from the power of sin and Satan, to protect them against temptation, and to give them strength in Christ, who is the way, the truth, and the life.

On the 3rd Sunday, we will also present them with the Creed. The Creed is the tenets of our faith. In ancient times it was very guarded and not shared until the Elect were deemed ready. You in the assembly will present the Creed to Beejahn, José, Alexa, Ximena and Mavery at the 11:15am Mass on March 7th. Jeff and Krista already share the Creed with us as baptized Christians. Let us all pray for our Elect on this next step in their faith journey towards Easter Vigil.

Praise and Worship

March 9, Tuesday, 6:30 pm

Join us for an evening of inspiring music and powerful prayer. Praise and Worship will be streaming live on the St. John the Baptist Facebook page via Facebook Live. All are welcome!

Respect Life Ministry

The Respect Life Ministry wants to give heartfelt thanks and recognition to Helen Boyd for her dedication, support and most of all her love for moms, families, children, and babies. She was the leader of the Gabriel Project Ministry here at St. Johns for many years and also participated in the "40 Days for Life Campaigns" prayer vigils. She has left us for a new venture out of state and we wish her and the Boyd family all of God's blessings and a beautiful life. They will be very missed by all.

Week 4 (March 9): Reading the Signs

How do we read the signs of the times? Vatican II famously told us to do that in the document Gaudium et Spes (Constitution of the Church in the Modern World): "Inspired by no earthly ambition, the Church seeks but a solitary goal: to carry forward the work of Christ under the lead of the befriending Spirit... To carry out such a task, the Church has always had the duty of scrutinizing the signs of the times" (GS, # 3-4). As members of the Body of Christ, the Church, all of us are called to read what's happening. But, how? How are we read what's going on in the world? To register contact Theresa.

Contact: sera@shra.org, (916) 449-1266

Many families and individuals have been financially impacted by the COVID-19 pandemic. We, at St. Vincent de Paul, want to make you and them aware of the Sacramento Emergency Rental Assistance (SERA2) Program which is being offered by the Sacramento Housing and Redevelopment Agency (SHRA) in partnership with the City and County of Sacramento. Through this program, low-income renters in Sacramento County can receive emergency rent and utilities assistance.

Applications are being accepted for a very short time: February 25 - March 19, 2021. Landlords can apply for assistance on behalf of their tenants and tenants can apply for themselves. Additional information and application instructions can be found at sera@shra.org or call (916) 449-1266.

Please take advantage of this opportunity for assistance, and please share this information with others who may be in need. May God bless you and your families.

LENT 2021 | Reflect. Repent. Restore.

SUNDAY

MONDAY

TUESDAY

WEDNESDAY

March 7

Third Sunday of Lent

In today's first reading, we are reminded of the Ten Commandments. Which commandment do you struggle with the most? Aim for one small improvement this week.

March 8

"The Church's obligation to participate in shaping the moral character of society is a requirement of our faith. It is a basic part of the mission we have received from Jesus Christ."

(Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship, no. 9)

March 9

Today is the memorial of St. Frances of Rome, who organized a women's religious order—the Oblates of Mary—and was known for her great charity. In her honor today, let us pray for those in consecrated life.

March 10

Heart of Jesus, Son of the eternal Father, have mercy on us.

(Litany of the Sacred Heart)

THURSDAY

FRIDAY

SATURDAY

March 11

During Lent we often pray the seven penitential psalms, like this one, "Out of the depths I call to you, LORD; / Lord, hear my cry! / May your ears be attentive / to my cry for mercy."

(Ps 130:1-2, NABRE)

March 12

"When we begin to separate people in our thoughts for unjust reasons, when we start to see some people as 'them' and others as 'us,' we fail to love."

(Open Wide Our Hearts, USCCB)

March 13

In Lent, we are called to renew our baptismal commitment. We recall those waters in which we were baptized into Christ's death, died to sin and evil, and began new life in Christ.

Source: www.usccb.org/resources/len-2021-calendar-english

Lent is a period of preparation to celebrate the Lord's Resurrection at Easter. During Lent, we seek the Lord in prayer by reading Sacred Scripture; we serve by giving alms; and we practice self-control through fasting. We are called not only to abstain from luxuries during Lent, but to a true inner conversion of heart as we seek to follow Christ's will more faithfully.

Lent helps us in our conversion process, that is, to reach a transformation of the heart that shows that Christ really lives in us. Ideas and activities for this at home retreat is just one of many resources provided by the Diocese's Office of Family and Faith Formation. They have created a compilation of different resources to accompany families from their different particular situations.

These are available at www.scd.org/family-and-faith-formation/home-resources-families-faith-formation. Let's walk together this Lent!

Inspiration for the Week

With our world in such constant turmoil and conflict, it makes such good sense to return to the simple directives given in the Ten Commandments. God's guidelines provide the perfect recipe for ordering our relationships with God, others, and even ourselves. But yet, we are so quick to glance beyond them and even remove them from public view because we foolishly believe we can create something better. Arrogance runs far deeper in the members of our society than we can ever imagine. Lent is a perfect time to call ourselves back to our foundations and the basic relationships that comprise our lives. It is also a time to remember that Jesus is the true sign of God's presence. Everything he says and does, including his suffering and death, is a sign of the God who sent him. The anger we witness when Jesus exhorts those in the temple to stop making his Father's house a marketplace can equally be seen in his anger and frustration over humanity's constant mission to turn God's creation into a secular world. We have a lot of work to do for sure.

SPIRITUAL GROWTH

At St. John the Baptist Parish, we foster a commitment to lifelong spiritual growth.

Parents Just Don't Understand

Anybody remember the old rap song by the Fresh Prince, aka Will Smith, "Parents Just Don't Understand?" As we grow up, it is sometimes a struggle for us to imagine that our parents understand us. It can seem impossible that Mom and Dad remember the stress of exam week or peer pressure. We never saw them as children; we never saw their disappointed faces when they weren't invited to a party, or their dashed hopes at a bad test grade. We never saw them homesick their first week of college or nervous to ask their crush to Homecoming.

We're often the same way about God. We gripe about what He asks of us. "He doesn't understand sin — he's all-good," we think. "He doesn't understand temptation — He is perfect."

In Scripture, God can be very much a father, telling us what we can and cannot do. And yet, in His divine genius, He is sometimes simply a man at a well, asking for a drink.

For me, it turns out I didn't need to tell my parents anything about what I was going through as a kid — they knew already. What I needed was for them to tell me what to do, and how to do it.

Similarly, we don't need to tell God about human nature. We need God to tell us about His nature. He's good enough to ask us for a drink, to enter into our humanity. But we have to remember, for our own sakes, to have the humility to ask Him for something, too — the water that will quench our eternal thirst.

~ Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

Sharing the Gospel

Imagine coming to your church to pray. All around your church, you see people selling animals. It smells like a barn. The animals are loud. The people are shouting. You cannot even pray with all the noise and activity going on around you. That is what Jesus found in today's Gospel. It broke his heart and made Jesus angry. God's house is not supposed to be turned into a barn or a store. It should be special place where people can meet with God and talk to him. Jesus cleaned out his Father's house. He turned it back into a place of prayer.

Mission for the Week

Read John 2:13-25 with your family. Ask God to help you keep your church clean. Church should never be a store or a barn. It should be a special place to pray.

Prayer

God, my church is a place for prayer. Help me to remember that always.

MINISTRIES

"Here am I, Lord;
I come to do your will."

What's the difference between priests and brothers, friars, etc.?

The distinctions titles and categories used for priests and the male members of religious communities can be confusing, especially since the categories can sometimes be intertwined as a man can be both a priest and a monk, or a brother and a friar. So, to help to piece the puzzle together, it's important to begin by noting some basic distinctions:

The distinction between priests (who are ordained for sacramental ministry) and brothers (who are non-ordained members of religious communities and who are committed to lives of prayer and service).

Priests: A priest is a man who has been ordained for sacramental ministry and these fall into two categories: A) Diocesan (or Secular) Priests can either be attached to a diocese and who serve under a bishop. Their ministry is usually oriented toward pastoral service. B) Religious Priests are members of religious communities (like the Franciscans, Jesuits, Salvatorians, or Carmelites) and their lives are guided by the special mission and charism of their community. While both kinds of priest practice sacramental ministry, their spirituality and how they live out their priesthood can be very different.

Brothers: Brothers are non-ordained members of religious communities (such as those mentioned above) who live lives committed to prayer and service. Religious priests and brothers serve together in their communities and their ministries include much more than the care of parishes.

Monks, Friars, and Canons: These are broad categories that include religious priests and brothers, and each of these is connected to specific ways of life and spiritualities.
