Today's Readings

Jer 20:10-13 / Ps 69:8-10, 14, 17, 33-35 (14c) / Rom 5:12-15 / Mt 10:26-33

*"Lord, in your great love, answer me."
(Ps 69)*

Gospel Meditation

By Father John Muir

When I was in middle school, there were times I didn't want my fellow students to see my parents drop me off or pick me up in the school parking lot. I was embarrassed of my parents. Why? I have no idea. Maybe it was our station wagon. Or I didn't want to look like a little kid. But in retrospect that was a silly thing to do. I was a kid. And I had two parents who loved me and had built a wonderful family. I was afraid of the other kids' judgment. How silly! I should have been afraid of forgetting or downplaying my family, which is where my identity had its deep roots.

This is a way to understand Jesus' words to his disciples this Sunday, when he says, "Don't be afraid of those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul; rather, be afraid of the one who can destroy both soul and body in Gehenna." Fear, in this sense, refers to where we find our deepest identity and our highest love. That's why Jesus says next that when we acknowledge him before others, he will acknowledge us before the Father. It doesn't mean we're brash or boastful. But rather we unhesitatingly and humbly embrace our identity as followers of Jesus and children of God the Father. After all, if we love who we are and where we come from, who cares what the other kids think about us?

Scripture Reflections

First Reading

We hear how the prophet Jeremiah turned to God when he felt alone and attacked.
What do you need to pray to God for this week?

Second Reading

Paul taught that through the grace of God, Christ reversed the sin of Adam, which brought death to all. When have you felt God's grace in your life?

Gospel

Jesus encourages his disciples not to be afraid. What are some fears you have that you could turn over to God?

Farewell Reception For Father Cleetus

We have been blessed to have Father Cleetus as our Parochial Vicar for the past four and a half years. Please join us in the Garden Room as we say goodbye and thank you to Father Cleetus for his dedicated and joyful service to our parish community. Receptions will take place after each weekend Mass on June 24 and 25.

Volunteers Needed Children's Liturgy of the Word Contact: Shannon Langer Religious Education 916-985-7338

Children's Liturgy of the Word is a ministry focused on our Kindergarten through 4th grade students. The purpose of the Children's Liturgy of the Word is to provide God's Word in the language they can understand and then to invite them to respond in lives lived out in faith and action.

We are preparing to restart this ministry in the fall! We have main coordinators and are now looking for adults willing to help serve. The goal is to have enough support so that we only ask parents to serve one weekend a month at 9:00am Mass or 11:30am Mass. We will provide training over the summer to prepare you. Teens can also help serve and receive service hours.

If you are interested in this special ministry, please call Shannon.

Live the Liturgy Inspiration For the Week

Christ promises to acknowledge us before his Father if we will acknowledge him. In what ways are we called to acknowledge Christ today? In what ways are we tempted to deny him, to distance ourselves from him?

Offer your heart to Jesus with this prayer

*O most holy Heart of Jesus,
fountain of every blessing,
I adore you, I love you and with a lively sorrow for my sins.*

*I offer you this poor heart of mine.
Make me humble, patient, pure, and wholly obedient to your will.*

*Grant, good Jesus,
that I may live in you and for you.
Protect me in the midst of danger; comfort
me in my afflictions;
give me health of body, assistance in my temporal needs, your blessings on all that I do, and the grace of a holy death.*

*Within your heart I place my every care.
In every need let me come to you with humble trust saying,
Heart of Jesus, help me.*

Amen.

Holy men and women from the Americas

Venerable Pierre Toussaint was born into slavery but became an elite hair-stylist in New York City and a free man. He used the money he earned to transform the lives of impoverished New Yorkers, former slaves, and immigrants alongside his wife, Servant of God Juliette. The Toussaints became a charitable tour de force and well known among New Yorkers. They began an employment agency, a credit bureau, and a refuge for traveling priests and immigrants. During the cholera outbreak in New York City Pierre and Juliette would cross quarantine barricades and nurse sick people back to health in their own home. They raised money to build what is now Old St. Patrick's Cathedral on Mulberry Street and helped found the first black Catholic school in New York City — St. Vincent De Paul on Canal Street. He died in 1853, and was buried alongside his wife in the cemetery of St. Patrick's Old Cathedral in New York. When the investigation into his life for the cause of sainthood started, Pierre was exhumed and reinterred in the main cathedral, an honor usually reserved for bishops of the Archdiocese of New York. He was declared Venerable by Pope John Paul II in 1996.

Recognize God in Your Ordinary Moments

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

The Necklace

I have a necklace that originally belonged to my great-grandmother. I don't really know much about the man who gave it to her, most of those details have been lost to time. But I know that he wanted to marry her, and that she refused, and it had something to do with religion — ultimately, he did not share her faith. And while I've certainly seen many interfaith couples have loving and successful marriages, in this particular case, my great-grandmother discerned that this would not be one of those marriages.

Like I said, I don't have many details about this man, but I know that she felt she couldn't marry him because it might jeopardize the souls of her children, and therefore the souls of their children, and their children after them — me. She turned him down because of me.

My great-grandmother never sold that necklace, not even when the Great Depression further reduced her financial circumstances. She kept it, and she gave it to her daughter, who gave it to her daughter, who gave it to me. The necklace is always given with a warning: there is something worse than being poor, worse than being scared, worse even than being desperate. Worse than all of these things is separation from God.

When I wear this necklace, I think about my grandmother and this man she possibly loved a hundred years ago. I think of the many decisions we make every day — large and small, good and bad — that reverberate down through the generations in ways we cannot, at the time, imagine. I think of the God who knows every hair on my head.

"And do not be afraid of those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul; rather, be afraid of the one who can destroy both soul and body in Gehenna." — Matthew 10:28

Why Are There Liturgical Cycles? Why Does the Church Have Different Liturgical Cycles?

While most Catholics know that the Church Year is divided into various seasons (e.g. Advent, Christmas, Ordinary Time, etc.), many are unaware that the one Church Year is not like the one that follows. While the main seasons and feasts are the same from year to year, the 3-year cycle for Sundays and the 2-year cycle for weekdays means that, as a general rule, the readings in the Lectionary that we hear at Mass will change from year to year, helping us to have a richer encounter with Sacred Scripture. Each new cycle begins with the beginning of the liturgical year, the First Sunday of Advent.

The reasoning behind this innovation is outlined in Sacrosanctum Concilium, the “Dogmatic Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy” of the Second Vatican Council: “The treasures of the bible are to be opened up more lavishly, so that richer fare may be provided for the faithful at the table of God’s word. In this way a more representative portion of the holy scriptures will be read to the people in the course of a prescribed number of years” (no. 51). This was fully achieved in 1969 when the new cycles of readings were approved by Pope Saint Paul VI.
