Today's Readings

Jb 7:1-4, 6-7 / Ps 147:1-2, 3-4, 5-6 (see 3a) / 1 Cor 9:16-19, 22-23 / Mk 1:29-39

"Praise the Lord, who heals the brokenhearted."
(Ps 147)

Gospel Meditation

By Father John Muir

Maybe I'm weird, but I like spending time in doctor's offices, confession lines in churches, auto repair shops, prison cells, and support groups of various kinds. It's refreshing to be with people who humbly admit something is wrong and forthrightly set out on a path toward a solution. When we ignore what is off kilter, we become alone and fragile. In places where people are honest and hopeful about brokenness, sturdy if subtle fellowship usually ensues.

Consider the image we see of Jesus in the Gospel of Mark. "...they brought to him all who were ill or possessed by a demon. The whole town was gathered at the door." The entire human community is afflicted in various ways, and so it gradually forms a strange new community around Jesus. The healer from Nazareth is like a sun of health around which orbits a throng of humanity absorbing his healing rays. These blessed souls can't fix themselves and become healthy, and they know it. But they have found in him the living source of all imaginable healing.

It's the Church, isn't it? A sin-sick community gathered and healed is what happens at the beginning of every Mass. We shuffle in through the door from everywhere and announce that we are not okay, and we can't fix it. In doing so, we are drawn into the orbit of the healing power of Christ — and into a renewed community with the whole human family. It's nothing to fear or rush. Maybe we can even learn to enjoy more how good it is to be in such a happy place.

Scripture Reflections

First Reading

Job was overwhelmed with feelings of sadness and despair. How does your faith help you get through difficult times?

Second Reading

Paul sees his "gospel" (the good news of Jesus Christ) as the center of his life. What do you think is the focus of your life?

Gospel

At the start of Jesus's public ministry in Galilee, we hear he was purpose-driven in performing many healings and exorcisms, as well as preaching the good news of the kingdom of God. What could you do this week as an intentional act of charity or kindness?

We offer alternatives to abortion because every child is a precious blessing from God. And all life needs to be protected. You can bring a folding chair or ask for one to be provided, join our carpool and pray for dads, moms, and babies. Meeting time at St John's is at 9:30am Thursdays from 10am-noon. We bring Christ's love and hope to women making a "choice" that will sadly change their lives forever. Contact Joanne.

Companioned Prayer Ministry

Mondays, 9:30am, St. John's Church
First Saturdays, 9:15 am, Holy Trinity Church
Contact: Michelle Hendricks
www.CompanionedPrayer.org

Temporary change from Wednesdays to Mondays during February and March. Join us for an introductory welcome beginning at 9:15 after morning Mass. Prayer follows at 9:30. In February and March, we will offer a renewed focus on Jesus and His presence. We will continue to break open Scripture, using the same way of listening to the Word as offered in the Eucharistic Revival (ER) Program. We will revisit the theme of each ER session the following week during our Monday Companioned Prayer morning gathering. We will continue to focus on Jesus' presence in prayer, in us, the Word, and especially the Eucharist.

World Day for Consecrated Life

Through baptism, we are all called to a life of holiness. Each of us has a vocation. Each year the Church celebrates and honors men and women in religious communities with the World Day for Consecrated Life. On this day, we give thanks for the women and men who have committed their lives to living and working in and through a religious community. They do so much good in the world. As the Holy Father has said, "the consecrated life appears to us just as it really is: a gift of God!"

*Good and gracious God who calls every man and woman to live a life of holiness, we give you praise for those men and women we call brothers or sisters.
Grant them the wisdom to know and love you and to share that love with others.
Grant more vocations to the Church through consecration to religious life.
We ask all this in the name of Christ, your Son and our Lord. Amen.*

Live the Liturgy

Inspiration For the Week

Jesus went from town to town, synagogue to synagogue, following the need. He follows it still, to this very day. Your life is the town he is visiting, your heart the synagogue where he preaches. Remember that for this purpose he has come.

This 7-week study was specifically designed for this Year of Parish Revival, and we will be joining many other parishes throughout the US in participating in this small group study. This is a great opportunity to dive more deeply into the richness of our Eucharistic faith. This study will be a special time to grow in community within our parish as we walk this sacred year together. Sessions are available morning and evenings, in-person and Zoom, and in English and Spanish. ## St. Vincent de Paul

Thank You

This is a long overdue thank you to the Knights of Columbus and our parish family for your continued support. The coats and jackets and the food drive has been very much appreciated by our families. And our fifth Sunday collection plus December online donations exceeded $6,600. The number that we serve each month for food has increased from 350 to 950 per month. We encourage our families to come for food and save their dollars for rent, utilities, and gas. We continue to receive food donations from Trader Joe's and Safeway. We will begin to receive donations from Target in February. And your donations of nonfood items help many families who are in need of appliances and household items as well as food. Thank you! We are blessed to have your support and the volunteers that help those in need.

Recognize God in Your Ordinary Moments

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Purpose and Pride

Father, forgive me. Today's Gospel made me want to fight somebody.

If you want to make me really, really angry, you are sure of doing so if you tell me about an old woman who was sick, but felt a little better, and then her son-in-law and all his buddies showed up, so she cooked them a bunch of food and cleaned up after them.

We all project our own feelings, fears, insecurities, and desires onto the word of God. I certainly do. And most of my feelings, fears, insecurities, and desires spring from my current role as a tired mom of little kids.

I think there is a fear inside many of us of God's purpose for our lives. What if it's not aligned perfectly with what we think we need, or what we imagine we want? Most of the time, I think I need a nap, and I imagine that I want absolutely no one asking me for any kind of help. And here I am, perpetually napless and always being called on to render assistance.

The actions of Peter's mother-in-law were the only actions we would expect of a woman who had just received a miracle. She jumped up, and with bravery and boldness she served the Lord.

But couldn't she rest? Couldn't she serve him later? Couldn't she thank him with a smile and take a nap? Well, I suppose. But is that how you react to a miracle?

I have received my miracle — my family. My purpose. So why am I still lying down?

"He approached, grasped her hand, and helped her up. Then the fever left her and she waited on them." — Mark 1:31

At St. John the Baptist Parish, we bring Christ's light to all through service to others.

"Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these."

Read the Gospel and Color

Mk 1:29-39

Think about how you get ready for a busy day. You eat a healthy breakfast. You wash up and brush your teeth. Then you get dressed and comb your hair. There's one more thing you could do to start your day off right. Pray. Find a quiet spot where you can be alone to talk to God. That's what Jesus did.

Mission for the Week

When you get home, choose a special quiet place where you can talk to God every morning. Tell your family about your special place. They may want to join you in spending quiet time to pray.

Puzzle

Which piece of the puzzle is missing?

Prayer

God, help me to start every day with you in prayer.
