Welcome to

St. John the Baptist Catholic Church

We are a community where we welcome all as members of the Body of Christ.

We are welcoming, faithful, passionate, joyful, authentic, sacramental, loving and charitable.

Today's Readings

Mal 1:14b-2:2b, 8-10 / Ps 131:1, 2, 3 / 1 Thes 2:7b-9, 13 / Mt 23:1-12

*"In you, Lord, I have found my peace."
(Ps 131)*

Gospel Meditation

By Father John Muir

Last Easter season a new convert to Catholicism at my parish asked me with a grave tone in her voice: "Why do we call priests 'father' if Jesus says, 'Call no man on earth your father, for you have one Father, who is in heaven'?" Thinking myself clever, I asked, "Do you think it's okay to call someone your 'teacher' or 'mister' or 'dad'?" She said, "Yes, I do."

I responded, "Well, Jesus seems to forbid that, too. So, it's obviously hyperbole that he's using." She thought for a moment and declared, "Then I will stop using those words, too!" And she walked away. Not the outcome I was seeking.

We shouldn't be too hasty in dismissing this complaint voiced by many non-Catholics.

The expression "father" for ordained priests is not honorary for the individual man. The priest's fatherhood doesn't begin or end in him at all. Rather, the title "father" indicates that he is a sacramental sign of God's Fatherhood revealed in Jesus. I can tell you, as a very unworthy bearer of that title, we should give and receive that title with some trepidation (because of God's awesomeness) and with a little sense of humor (because of the lowliness of the men with the title).

The longer I'm a priest, the more I'm comfortable with people not using the title "father" and just calling me "John." After all, only God is Father in the truest sense. At the same time, Jesus has brought the Father close to us, very close. We honor this closeness in some men with the title "father." Who are the priests in your life whom Christ has sent to you?

How wonderful that Christ has surrounded us with humble signs of his Father's love.

It's good to celebrate that love with gratitude for the priests in our lives.

Scripture Reflections

First Reading

The prophet Malachi informs the priests of Israel that God is aware that their instruction has caused many to stumble in their faith. Have you ever had to help someone who has lost their faith?

Second Reading

Paul expresses his gratitude to the Thessalonians for their openness to hear and believe the word of God taught by them. Who in your life might be open to hearing the word of God from you?

Gospel

Jesus challenged the crowds and his disciples to be as servants to each other, acting always in humility. How might you be a servant to someone at work or at home?

At St. John the Baptist Parish,
we welcome all as members of the Body of Christ.

The Knights of Columbus in partnership with Family Fellowship and Grace Quilters will be hosting a Parish Thanksgiving Dinner. Come get to know your Parish family (meet someone new) and enjoy early Thanksgiving Dinner with them. It will be served with all the traditional fixings. There will be no cost to those attending.

Please let us know that you are coming so we can make sure there is enough food for everyone. If you are stuck at home and can't make it to the dinner and would like a Thanksgiving dinner delivered to you, please call and let us know and we will deliver it to you.

There is an extra benefit to those attending this year. The Grace Quilters will be set up in the St. John Paul Room in Gallagher Hall and you can help them and get some of your Christmas shopping done at the same time.

All donations received will be divided to support the Knights of Columbus Charities for Ukraine and Maui Fire Recovery.

Recognize God in Your Ordinary Moments

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

A Heavy Burden, Hard to Carry

"Mommy, you haven't been making any sacrifices."

My daughter was peering through the little opening in the plastic cover of the "sacrifice jar" we made for Lent this year. The repurposed oatmeal container, jazzed up with glitter glue and pictures of St. Therese of Lisieux, was more than half-filled with little slips of paper bearing descriptions of the various sacrifices family members had made for one another.

But she was right: every piece of paper bore the childlike scrawl of herself and her brother. I had not added anything to the sacrifice jar.

"If I wrote down every sacrifice I made for you in just a single day, the jar would explode," I retorted, and even though my daughter giggled, I instantly regretted the comment, sighing as I realized I did it again. I let a snide, self-pitying thought form on my lips and make its way into the world because for a brief moment I thought someone didn't appreciate my (imagine me sniffing injuredly here) hard work.

We sneer at the scribes and the Pharisees as Jesus describes them in the Gospel, lengthening their phylacteries and coveting the places of honor. But then I remember: nobody starts out meaning to be a jerk.

We want to do good things. We try to be holy. But it's hard, that burden weighs heavy on our back.

So, we murmur about it here and there. We stop to catch our breath. We glimpse other people looking at our burden with approval and admiration, and we breathe a little harder, groan a little deeper. And somewhere along the way the burden becomes an idol and our labor a performance. We dare not ask for help bearing it, for we prize too greatly the sweat of our own brow.

"The greatest among you must be your servant." — Matthew 23:11

2nd Collection

This weekend, our second collection will be for our RE Program and SJND.

The Eucharist is Jesus

A miracle transpires at every liturgy. Through Transubstantiation, God dwells with us in the form of bread and wine. Though our five senses cannot detect a change in the substances, the eyes of faith reveal that Christ is truly present, Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity. For this reason, the Eucharist is the fount and apex—the source and summit—of every grace and blessing because the Eucharist is Jesus.

Live the Liturgy

Inspiration For the Week

Christ turns the way of the world upside down: the great become the small and the honored ones become humble. Be small, and you will feel his greatness. Be humble, and you will know the honor of Heaven.

Coats for Kids

The goal of the Coats for Kids program is to ensure that no child in North America and especially here in our local community of Folsom and other surrounding cities goes without a coat during the winter season. You can donate new or gently-used children's winter coats. We also collect warm coats and jackets for teens and adults. Please wash all gently-used coats and jackets if needed. Winter accessories like gloves, mittens, scarves, beanies, hats, and sleeping bags are also accepted.

Food for Families

Knights of Columbus are committed to helping end hunger through the Food for Families Program. Council and parish families will raise funds to support their local food pantries, food banks and soup kitchens. Though in-kind donation of food is valuable, leaders of hunger-relief organizations often comment that financial contributions can be stretched even further and allow nonprofits to procure the exact items needed by the organization and its clients.

What food should I donate?

Healthy, low-sodium, low-sugar, non-perishable food only. Donations assist families, so we encourage donations in sizes you would use at home.

- Items with intact, un-opened, consumer or commercial packaging. Items with non-breakable packaging (no glass please). Plastic containers, tin cans and boxed items are best.
- Food within the expiration date on the packaging.

What are the most requested food items?

- Canned meats: tuna, chicken, turkey, ham, stew & chili, canned vegetables
- Pasta & pasta sauce, canned beans, rice
- Healthy cereals, peanut butter, baby food & baby formula

Starting in November we're also looking for frozen turkeys; additional Thanksgiving food items (dressing; green beans; mushroom soup, cranberry sauce; etc. for a family meal of four or more.

Drop Off Locations

- "Knight's Cart", located outside in front of the church, near the doors before, during, and after all Masses on Saturday and Sunday
- St Vincent de Paul location, adjacent to SJND on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday, 9am to Noon; phone # 916-985-4630.

ALL donations and proceeds go directly to St John's "Helping Hands" (SVDP) ministry for our local community, surrounding communities, people in need and the homeless.

At St. John the Baptist Parish,
we bring Christ's light to all through service to others.

"Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these."

Mt 23:1-12

Some people think that they know everything that there is to be known about God.

They think they are better and smarter than other people, too.

Watch out if you think you are acting that way!

Tell God you're sorry.

Ask God to help you change your attitude, and serve others.

 Mission for the Week

Look up the words "humble" and "proud" in the dictionary. When you remember that everything you have is a gift from God, it is easier to be humble.

 Prayer

God, help me to follow you with a humble heart.

National Vocation Awareness Week
 National Vocation Awareness Week will be celebrated in our country November 5-11, 2023

What does it mean to discern a vocation?

The word vocation comes from the Latin word vocare, meaning "to call." A vocation is a calling or invitation from God to serve in a particular way. For Catholics, that calling might be as a priest, sister, or married person. Vocation is the way we respond to the invitation to share in God's grace and witness to God's love in the world.

Discerning a vocation is the process in which we pray for God's guidance. We listen for God's message that is often quiet and unassuming in a world filled with noise and distractions. We look at our gifts and talents, seek the advice of others, examine our motives, and listen to see what God is asking of us. The goal of discernment is to follow what the Lord wills, not what we think is the best idea. Many men enter a seminary to discern if that is their vocation, only to discover that their calling is to marriage. Others have resisted the idea for long periods of time, until finally they could resist no more. Some great saints have described that dilemma. Vocation is a human process of divine origin, and each of us must strive constantly to hear the call of God in our lives.

Please ask Our Lord for more dedicated, holy priests, deacons, and consecrated men and women. May they be inspired by Jesus Christ, supported by our faith community, and respond generously to God's gift of vocation." (www.usccb.org)
