Gospel Meditation

By Father John Muir

Matthew 17:1-9

When I sit down to answer emails or write a Gospel reflection or return a phone call, I sometimes wonder: Does any of this humdrum work matter? Maybe you ask the same thing about your daily labor. Today's Gospel, the Transfiguration, offers a surprising answer. Jesus leads Peter, James, and John up a mountain. There, "his face shone like the sun face and his clothes become white as light" (Matthew 17:2). That detail regarding his clothes is worth considering.

We know Jesus' body is inseparably united to the divine nature. But his clothing? That's something made by human hands. It's an artifact. And yet it shines with the same uncreated light. What does this detail mean? The early Church noted that Adam and Eve's first act after the Fall was to make clothing. This clothing symbolizes all human labor that supports our dignity. In Jesus' glorified garments, we see not just the redemption of our body, but of human effort to protect and uplift human dignity.

Parents, your family is your work. Baristas, plumbers, nurses, accountants — your labor, your emails, your phone calls, your spreadsheets — can all become radiant when offered to God in love. The question isn't just do I believe in Jesus' glory, but do I believe he can share it with the work of my hands?

Lenten Challenge: Identify the "artifact" you are making to uplift the dignity of others: your job, your home, your relationships. Consciously bring it to the Lord this Sunday at Mass. Offer it to share in His glory. It will begin to shine.

Questions of the Week

1st Reading

Trusting in the Lord, Abram is obedient to the directive to leave his land and home.
When have others had to place their trust in you?

2nd Reading

Paul instructs Timothy to draw on the strength God gives us when facing hardships.
Can you think of a difficult time when you relied on God's strength to help you?

Gospel

In the transfiguration of Jesus, Peter, James, and John are fearful when they hear God's voice speak from the cloud.
As the season of Lent continues, what are some fears you are facing?

March is dedicated to:

Monthly Intention for March

For disarmament and peace

Let us pray that nations move toward effective disarmament, particularly nuclear disarmament, and that world leaders choose the path of dialogue and diplomacy instead of violence.

Inspiration For the Week

"Go forth," God told Abram. We hear that message again in the Transformation: go forth. We cannot always remain where we are comfortable. We cannot always remain where things are simple. We must go forth.

CHARITY

At St. John the Baptist Parish, we bring Christ's light to all through service to others.

Online Donations

To make a donation, update a weekly donation or donate to our maintenance fund scan the QR code and follow the directions.

Today's Second Collection

For our Religious Education Program

Annual Catholic Appeal

Annual Catholic Appeal helps us bring Christ's saving mercy to our brothers and sisters. 25% comes back to our parish for our own outreach to those in need.

Today, we offer ourselves as missionaries of hope to those who suffer in our communities. We may not all work on the front lines of charity, but through the Annual Catholic Appeal, our whole community leans in to help our Catholic charities and our own parish to sustain programs and ministries that help lift our neighbors and friends out of the hardships of poverty. The Annual Catholic Appeal is dedicated solely to the social mission of the Church here in Northern California. Last year, over 630,000 people were helped by Appeal-funded charitable works. Please be as generous as you can. Every gift makes a profound difference in someone's life.

Parish Lenten Family Challenge Non-Perishable Food Donations

We invite all families to bring non-perishable food items to Mass throughout the Lenten season (see below for the most-needed items). Please keep your donations with you in the pew. At the offertory, you will be invited to join the procession by moving to the back of the church with your donated items and processing forward, placing your offering at the foot of the altar. Most needed items: boxes of Macaroni & Cheese, canned tuna, chili beans (pop-top), Top Ramen, canned fruit, canned tomatoes, breakfast cereal (regular-size boxes), beef jerky/Chomps, peanut butter (16 or 28-ounce jars), bars of soap, toothpaste, shampoo.

This act of generosity—our almsgiving—is one of the three central practices of Lent. Its purpose is to bring our faith into the world through concrete expressions of kindness, compassion, and love offered in honor of God.

We pray that all members of our parish will take part in this grace-filled Lenten challenge as we journey together toward Easter.

KID'S CORNER

"Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these."

Read the Gospel and Color

Mt 17:1-9

In today's Gospel reading, Jesus showed his closest friends - Peter, James, and John - what heaven would be like. Jesus' friends were amazed to see Moses and Elijah talking to Jesus. Moses and Elijah had gone to heaven hundreds of years before this day. Then Peter, James and John heard God's voice from the cloud. Jesus, their friend and teacher, was God's Son. They fell down in fear. You might, too, if you were there.

Prayer

Dear God, thank you for showing Jesus' friends what heaven would be like.

Mission for the Week

If you could see Jesus in heaven today, what would you talk about? What would you ask him?

Puzzle

Find seven differences in this scene of Jesus in Heaven.
