Welcome to

St. John the Baptist Catholic Church

We are a community where we welcome all as members of the Body of Christ.

We are welcoming, faithful, passionate, joyful, authentic, sacramental, loving and charitable.

Today's Readings

1 Kgs 19:9a, 11-13a / Ps 85:9, 10, 11-12, 13-14 (8) / Rom 9:1-5 / Mt 14:22-33

*"Lord, let us see your kindness, and grant us your salvation."
(Ps 85)*

Gospel Meditation

By Father John Muir

A man at my parish was struggling to overcome a habitual sin. He said to me, "Father, I know the chance that I will commit sin again is really high. Why should I keep my sins? Isn't that dishonest?" Anyone who has felt the tyrannical power of sin — and who hasn't? — has pondered this kind of question.

I responded to him, "What was the probability Peter would walk on the stormy water?" After some silence, he said, "Zero. But when Jesus called, he did it." I could tell my penitent friend was re-framing the question from his own weakness to the greatness of the Lord's love for him. The question for us should not be one of human probabilities about our sin, but rather whether or not we will trust the Lord's grace in our lives.

This week the Lord is calling you and me to do the impossible: overcome sin with love. The only way to do that is to trust he is calling, and then to walk with the eyes of faith locked on him. And if we sink, he will raise us up again and again. Of that, we can be 100% sure.

Scripture Reflections

First Reading

Elijah looked for the Lord in the strong winds, earthquakes, and fire before discovering the Lord in a light silent sound. Why do you think it is easier to find God when it is quiet?

Second Reading

Paul had "great sorrow" for his fellow Jews (God's chosen people) who did not believe that Jesus was their long-awaited Messiah. How do you feel about family or friends who do not believe in Jesus?

Gospel

Peter cried out to the Lord for help when he feared he might drown. What fears do you have that you could pray to the Lord for help this week?

Inspiration For the Week

Christ is always coming to us in ways that we do not expect. Ways that shock us. Ways that frighten us. Ways that seem impossible. Are we ready to accept him however he comes, amidst whatever fear and doubt we are battling with in our hearts?

At St. John the Baptist Parish,
we welcome all
as members of the Body of Christ.

For those of you who could not attend this month's gathering, perhaps you might mark your calendar for September and join us then.

Just a reminder, the St. John's Companioned Prayer Circle meets on Fridays, at 1:30pm in the music room. All are welcome!

Eucharistic Revival:

Back to Basics

The Catechism of the Catholic Church (CCC,1339-1340) reminds us that the Eucharist is rooted in God's self-revelation to His chosen people. It is the fulfillment of all the ancient symbols of God's favor in the Old Testament:

- The Manna in the desert (Exodus 16)
- The showbread in the Temple, also called the Bread of the Presence in Exodus 25, and
- The Passover meal, with particular emphasis on the Paschal Lamb in Exodus 12.

Recognize God in Your Ordinary Moments

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

God and the Good Strong Wind

My only real memory of the Mackinac Island ferry was the physical sensation of the wind against my face. I remember, distinctly, that it hurt.

It surprised and confused me because wind had never felt painful before. Looking back now, I realize that it wasn't just the wind but the spray from the waves that crashed against the side of the ferry — that was what produced the sharp, biting sensation on my skin. But I couldn't have known that then, because my eyes were clamped shut. I refused to open them, even if I had, I would not have seen much, because my long hair was blown straight across my face.

I was four years old, and it was, in the immortal words of Winnie-the-Pooh, a very blustery day as my family made our way to Mackinac Island. I remember thinking I was going to die. I'm positive now that it wasn't really all that dramatic, but at four years old, you're awfully scared of a good strong wind.

Deep inside, aren't we all, really?

I think of the apostles who cannot recognize Christ — their friend — because he is doing something new. Something impossible. They are so sure he is a ghost, a sinister thing — children are always frightened of what they cannot understand.

And even when he reassures them, still Peter is not convinced. He demands, essentially, a miracle. He demands that Christ make him do what only Christ can do.

And even when the miracle takes place — he walks on water, he defies physics — still he is human. Scared, doubtful, distractible. No match for a good strong wind.

"Immediately Jesus stretched out his hand and caught Peter..." Matthew 14:31

At St. John the Baptist Parish, we foster a commitment to lifelong spiritual growth.

2nd Collection

This weekend, our second collection is for our Building & Maintenance Fund.

Next week we will take up the Collection for the Church in Latin America. For many in Latin America and the Caribbean, a rising secular culture, difficult rural terrain, and a shortage of ministers all present obstacles to practicing the faith. Your support for the collection provides lay leadership training, catechesis, priestly and religious formation, and other programs to share our Catholic faith with those who long to hear the Good News of Christ. To learn more about how your gifts make a difference, visit www.usccb.org/latin-america.

Holy men and women from the Americas

Michael Joseph McGivney was born on August 12, 1852, the first child of Irish immigrant parents in Waterbury, Connecticut. Michael left school at age 13 to work alongside his father and help support the family, but at age 16 he decided to enter the seminary. He studied in Quebec, Canada as well as in New York until he was called home to help work to support his family once more due to the death of his father. Michael eventually returned to his studies at St. Mary's Seminary in Baltimore and was ordained into the diocese of Hartford, Connecticut in 1877. Fr. McGivney's first assignment was to St. Mary's Parish in New Haven. While there, he quickly became very active in the community. He even volunteered to foster a child whose father had passed away, leaving the boy's family in poverty and unable to care for him. It was during this time that McGivney envisioned the need for a Catholic mutual aid society. His intention was to create an institution where Catholic men could provide financial security to families in need who had lost their primary breadwinner. Fr. McGivney began to research similar Catholic-founded societies elsewhere in the USA. As an answer, he decided to form a committee of men at home and, together, they designed an original Catholic fraternal organization that could provide for families in need but also had membership rituals that could compete with the excitement of the other popular secret societies of the time. On February 6, 1882, Fr. McGivney and his men launched the Knights of Columbus. Fr. McGivney fell ill with the flu during the 1889 pandemic. He passed away at age 38 on August 14 of the next year. In 2008, Fr. Michael Joseph McGivney was beatified by Pope Benedict XVI.

At St. John the Baptist Parish,
we bring Christ's light to all through service to others.

 Read the Gospel and Color

Mt 14:22-23

One night the disciples were caught in a storm, out in the middle of a lake. The winds were strong. The waves crashed against their boat. But Jesus was so powerful, he walked on that stormy lake. Then he completely stopped the storm. No problem you have is ever too big for Jesus. He can do anything. Put all your trust in him.

 Mission for the Week

When you are afraid, ask Jesus for help. Remember how powerful he is.

 Puzzle

Fit this Gospel message into the empty squares.

Jesus went out to them, walking on the lake.

 Prayer

Jesus, I thank you for showing me how powerful you are.

“Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these.”

MINISTRIES

"Here am I, Lord;
I come to do your will."

The Assumption

What lessons should I learn from the Assumption of Mary?

Growing in holiness is similar to training in a sport. We need someone to show us how we can live our faith well. Mary is a model of sanctity. She shows us how to be faithful to God's will, living each day with confidence in God's mercy and love. At the Nativity, in Jesus' public ministry, and at the Crucifixion, we see her steadfast trust. She allows the Lord to use her life to accomplish his plan for her and for all of us. In the Preface of the Mass for the Assumption of Mary, we pray: "For today the Virgin Mother of God was assumed into heaven as the beginning and image of your Church's coming to perfection and a sign of sure hope and comfort to your pilgrim people."

It is this image of holiness that we strive to imitate. In the office, at home, or in our community, we look for signs of God's grace that call us to an ever greater love of him and each other. A greater awareness of God is a sign of our conversion of heart that lives the lessons Mary teaches.

*"Taken up into Heaven, Mary shows us the way to God, the way to Heaven, the way to life."
St. Pope John Paul II*
