Welcome to

St. John the Baptist Catholic Church

We are a community where we welcome all as members of the Body of Christ.

We are welcoming, faithful, passionate, joyful, authentic, sacramental, loving and charitable.

Today's Readings

Acts 3:13-15, 17-19 / Ps 4:2, 4, 7-8, 9 [7a] / 1 Jn 2:1-5a / Lk 24:35-48

"Lord, let your face shine on us ."

(Ps 4)

Gospel Meditation

We often act out of ignorance. Armed with the best of intentions, we think we are seeing clearly and correctly, but we are not. We don't always understand the full meaning of things and only perceive part of the truth. Hence, our judgments and actions can be impaired by myopic, incomplete or erroneous perceptions. The meaning of life, understanding of human experience, and negotiating life's challenges can all become skewed without proper understanding and vision. The resurrection of Christ is the corrective to our incomplete and limited view of life. Looking at things with the eyes of faith brings a depth of clarity and understanding to how we see God, ourselves, others, and the world.

Even the disciples struggled with their limited understanding and ignorant perceptions. It was only when Jesus opened their minds to understand the Scriptures that their eyes were opened. It was their "aha" moment when everything clicked. We all want the substance of our lives to come together, make sense, and have meaning. This is easier to achieve when things are going positively and life is good. It is when suffering, disappointment, death, hardship, and injustice enter the picture that things can become unsettled and disoriented.

Our faith in the goodness and love of God is tested. We tend to shift our focus on these difficult and challenging moments and do not see them within the greater picture of how God intends life to unfold. We can gain, from the passion and resurrection of Christ, the clear vision we need in order to move away from ignorance to enlightenment.

We need our "aha" moment when everything comes together and clicks. It can come in a fleeting instant when we feel totally connected with God, where we find ourselves, others and all of creation. It is a moment when all is right and good, regardless of how difficult our journey. Our "aha" moment assures us that God is here, right with us, in us and around us bringing us a gift and blessing we can receive nowhere else: peace. In those brief sacramental encounters when we are lifted up out of ourselves and centered, we can hear God say, "peace be with you," and we feel secure. It's all okay. The resurrected Christ has the power to bring this gift to us. Some people, as they are facing their deaths, remark about this peace. When looking into the window of eternity, they experience a depth of joy and are amazed at God's goodness and closeness. We are called to be witnesses to this Good News.

Scripture Reflections

First Reading

In publicly bearing witness to Jesus' resurrection, Peter urged the people to repent of their sin of ignorance and their denial of Jesus. How does Jesus' resurrection from the dead inspire you to repentance?

Second Reading

John teaches his community that the key to avoiding sin is to follow Jesus' commandments. What do you find challenging in this seemingly simple and clear instruction?

Gospel

Luke tells us that the resurrected Jesus opened the minds of the disciples "to understand the Scriptures" and see how his suffering, death, and resurrection was connected to repentance and forgiveness of sins. What tools do you use to better understand our faith?

2021-2022 Religious Education

Contact: Shannon Langer
Director of Religious Education 916-985-7338 or slanger@folsomcatholic.org

Registration for next year's Religious Education is open! Please go to the parish website for the packet to register your children! ALL sacraments require two years of preparation meaning 1st and 2nd grade for Reconciliation and Eucharist, and Confirmation 1 and Confirmation 2 for Confirmation. We will start in late August and end on the first weekend of May. Calendar will be coming soon. For questions or more information, please call or email Shannon. Thank you!

Calling Knitters

Contact: Alicia Melendez

The Knights of Columbus Bishop Gallegos Council 6197 is pleased to announce that Catholic high school scholarship applications are now available. To request an application, email Professor Dick Phelan. Completed applications with accompanying documents must be submitted no later than April 30, 2021.

How to Fail Your Way to Heaven

You know what are some of my favorite moments in Scripture? The little "Easter eggs" of Jesus' humanity, things like Jesus falling asleep, Jesus drawing in the sand, Jesus playing with kids. And how about Jesus rising from the dead, appearing to his disciples and saying, "So, have you got anything to eat?"

It's right for us to always keep in mind that Jesus is God. But we also have to remember that he was man. He got hungry. He cried when he felt sad and laughed when he felt happy. He got tired. He got bored.

Because he was God, none of those feelings ever led him into sin, like they do us. He never spent a car ride trying to pass the hours by seeing how annoyed he could make his older sister. He never smacked Peter over the head for saying something really stupid. But he did unleash some Biblically righteous anger on those traders in the temple, didn't he? And he wasn't shy about calling Peter "a Satan" when his friend tempted him to take the easy way out.

It's the tightrope walk we all try to balance every day, honoring our human emotions while still answering God's call to be better. Being perfect isn't the domain of the Christian — that's the domain of Christ only. Trying and failing, then trying again (and failing again) and again and again? That's the domain of the Christian.

Church Hours

Monday - Friday

The church will remain open for those who would like to pray before the Blessed Sacrament from 8am-4:30pm.

Saturday - Sunday

On the weekends, the church will be open from 7am-6pm.

Please wear a mask and keep in mind your minimum 6ft social distancing

Confession

Saturdays: 3 - 4:30 pm
and by appointment

Please note confessions at this time will still be offered but not in the confessional. We will be doing a face to face format in a larger setting in order to maintain the social distancing of 6ft.

Every April, Catholic parishes and schools across the United States participate in National Child Abuse Prevention Month.

While dioceses work year round to prevent abuse, during this month a special emphasis is placed on the importance of learning how to protect the vulnerable from this evil. Let us pray that the vulnerable are protected from abuse, and that survivors of abuse may be accompanied on their paths to healing.

Prayer for Healing

God of endless love, ever caring, ever strong, always present, always just:

You gave your only Son to save us by his blood on the cross.

Gentle Jesus, shepherd of peace, join to your own suffering the pain of all who have been hurt in body, mind, and spirit by those who betrayed the trust placed in them.

*Hear the cries of our brothers and sisters who have been gravely harmed, and the cries of those who love them.
Soothe their restless hearts with hope, steady their shaken spirits with faith.*

Grant them justice for their cause, enlightened by your truth.

Holy Spirit, comforter of hearts, heal your people's wounds and transform brokenness into wholeness.

*Grant us the courage and wisdom, humility and grace, to act with justice.
Breathe wisdom into our prayers and labors.
Grant that all harmed by abuse may find peace in justice.*

We ask this through Christ, our Lord. Amen.

Contact: Fr. Renier Siva, 916-985-2065

fr.renier@folsomcatholic.org

Dear Friends,

It is with great pleasure and excitement that we invite you to join us on our 11 Days Splendors of Eastern Europe tour with a once in a lifetime opportunity to attend the world famous Passion Play in 2022 in Oberammergau, Germany. The villagers of Oberammergau first performed the play in 1634 in fulfillment of their promise to God for sparing them from the Black Plague, and it has been presented there every 10 years since then. This tour will take us to some of Europe's most interesting countries including the Czech Republic, Hungary, Austria and Germany. The scenery is absolutely spectacular as we travel through the plains and valleys of the magnificent east-ern European countryside. The points of interest are very diverse spotlighting historical places and natural wonders.

In addition to our time spent in Oberammergau, we will have the opportunity to enjoy visits to Prague, the beautiful 1,000- year-old capital of the Czech Republic; Budapest, Hungary's enchanting capital on the Danube River; Vienna, Austria's elegant city with an old world ambience and a rich musical heritage; and Munich, the capital of Bavaria.

The price of our tour includes roundtrip airfare, first class/ select hotels and guesthouses in Oberammergau, most meals, first class admission tickets for the Passion Play, the services of a professional tour director and sightseeing in a deluxe motor coach.

We look forward to having you join us on this trip of a life-time. It promises to be a wonderful experience for all with time to enjoy the fellowship of old friends and new. Nawas International Travel is making the arrangements for us and has earned a reputation for reliability and excellence in their over 70 years of business.

While the year 2022 seems a long way away, NOW is the time to make plans and reserve your place on the tour as space is limited. Don't miss out on this opportunity to see the Passion Play and experience the history, culture and remarkable scenery of Eastern Europe!

Sincerely,
Fr. Carlo Tejano

We, as Catholics, are called to serve others. And it can be a challenge to cultivate service as part of your family culture. During this Parent Support night we will break open this topic and share some practical ideas that you can bring into your family today to become a family of service.

"The blood he shed produces ever new spiritual fruits. Adalbert is that evangelical seed which fell to the earth and died, and has brought forth a manifold harvest in all the nations associated with his mission.

This was the case of Bohemia, Hungary, the Poland of the Piasts, and also of Pomerania, Gdansk, and the people living in this region. Thank you, St Adalbert, for your example of holiness, for by your life you taught us the meaning of the words "for to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain" (cf. Phil 1:21)."

Inspiration for the Week

When the greeting "Peace be with you" is sincerely offered to a person, it can resonate very deep within, bringing comfort and reassurance. When someone possesses the power to bring peace, it brings us to a place of safety and fills us with joy. The resurrected Christ has this power. God can open our minds so that we can more fully understand the meaning of Sacred Scripture and God's compassionate, loving, tender, and untiring embrace constantly present and offered to people throughout history.
Without the anchor of truth that only God can provide, we can easily become startled and terrified at the sight of what life brings us. Being open to God's offer of peace, we can turn away from old habits and short-sighted vision and experience the gladness and joy of God's gift. Only then can what is wounded and broken be mended and reconciliation achieved. We are the resurrection witnesses called to proclaim the Good News.

A Grace Quilters Ministry Project: Emergency Quilt Sleeping Bags & Blankets in a Bag

Contact: Diana Irvine
dianairv@yahoo.com

Opportunity to make emergency quilt sleeping bags following a model developed by My Brother's Keeper Quilt Group and/or blankets in a bag a functional alternative/parallel project developed by Catherine Troche-Scott. Clean repurposed fabrics you already have on hand such as clean used blankets, comforters, sheets, mattress pads, fleece, curtains, etc. are used. People are glad to donate fabric; we could use more individuals to help make the sleeping bags.
Each sleeping bag is made from three 7 foot by 7-foot layers: 1) shell, 2) fill, and 3) lining.
Men's neckties can serve as straps.

These can be distributed by charitable organizations such as St. Vincent de Paul/Helping Hands, Divine Mercy Ministry at Friendship Park and the Missionaries of Charity to our homeless neighbors.

For more information/instructions please contact Diana who can work with whoever is interested, whether they want to make an entire sleeping bag/blanket or a portion of each, providing instructions, supplies, and fabrics if they do not have their own fabrics.
Some sewing is involved but the bulk of the project does not require sewing expertise.

"Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these."

Sharing the Gospel

When Jesus came to his friends after Easter, they could hardly believe he was real. Jesus told his friends it was okay to touch him. Jesus had bones. He had muscles. He had scars from the cross. Jesus even ate a piece of fish to show that his stomach worked okay. Yes, they had all seen Jesus die, but God raised him to life. Moses and King David and the prophets had all written about the Savior. The Scriptures all came true through Jesus. He really is alive. If you believe in Jesus, don't keep it a secret. Tell your friends that Jesus is their savior, too.

Mission for the Week

Send a letter to the missionaries your church supports. Ask them how your family can help them spread God's love with other people.

MINISTRIES

"Here am I, Lord;
I come to do your will."

"In today's celebration of Earth Day, we are called to renew our sense of sacred respect for the earth, for it is not just our home but also God's home. This should make us all the more aware that we stand on holy ground!"

~Pope Francis, April 2020

"In this Easter season of renewal, on this occasion of Earth Day let us pledge to love and esteem the beautiful gift of the earth, our common home, and to care for all members of our human family."

~Pope Francis, April 2020

A Prayer for Our Earth

All-powerful God, you are present in the whole universe and in the smallest of your creatures.
You embrace with your tenderness all that exists.

Pour out upon us the power of your love, that we may protect life and beauty.
Fill us with peace, that we may live as brothers and sisters, harming no one.

O God of the poor, help us to rescue the abandoned and forgotten of this earth, so precious in your eyes.

Bring healing to our lives, that we may protect the world and not prey on it, that we may sow beauty, not pollution and destruction.

Touch the hearts of those who look only for gain at the expense of the poor and the earth.
Teach us to discover the worth of each thing, to be filled with awe and contemplation, to recognize that we are profoundly united with every creature as we journey towards your infinite light.

We thank you for being with us each day.
Encourage us, we pray, in our struggle for justice, love and peace.
