Gospel Meditation

By Father John Muir

Matthew 22:15-21

Occasionally, I'll slip into a parish I've never visited before, pick up the bulletin, and find one of my Gospel reflections. My heart usually swells with a bit of affection for my creation. I imprint a bit of myself into my little "literary labors of love." Anyone who has created something — a piece of writing, a garden, a meal, a child — knows that feeling. We love the things into which we put ourselves. We are happy when they return to us.

With this in mind, listen to Jesus' classic line in this Sunday's Gospel: "Then repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God" (Matthew 22:21). He presents this little riddle to deepen the theme from taxes to human beings. A Roman coin bears Caesar's image, so it belongs to Caesar. Therefore, he has a legitimate claim to it. Fair enough. But what belongs to God? What bears His image? Every human being. God has imprinted Himself on every person. Which means everyone — including Caesar — belongs entirely to Him. Jesus, who is God's perfect image, has come to draw everyone back to God.

We can be tempted to imagine that our lives are made up of "things for God" and "things not for God." The good news is that no such division is possible because everything in life is a gift from God to us. Therefore,all is meant to be placed at the service of God's kingdom. He loves everything He has created. We have the privilege of giving it all back to Him.

Inspiration For the Week

The Pharisees try to trick Jesus into starting a political revolution. They don't realize he came to start a revolution of the heart, not the state. God's image is stamped on our soul, but still the world tries to claim us. Revolt! You belong to God.

Welcome

At St. John the Baptist Parish, we welcome all as members of the Body of Christ.

Help Needed!
Contact: Arlette Peterson
liturgicalenv@folsomcatholic.org

For the past few weeks the Environmental Committee has been requesting volunteers willing to help with the laundering of the altar linens. As of today, we have had only 2 volunteers. Currently there are 5 volunteers who do the work. They take one week a month to do the laundry. Every week we launder approximately 120 – 150 items. Our goal is to have two volunteers each week, thus cutting the work-load in half. The items can be machine washed (one small load). Most of the time is spent in pre-treating stains and ironing – approximately 2 hours. To volunteer, contact Arlette.
