Gospel Meditation

By Father John Muir

John 21:1-19

I eat breakfast. If I don't have something substantial, I'm fading by midmorning. Breakfast is my key meal because it sets up my physical wellbeing for the rest of the day.

Spiritually speaking, we need sustenance to get us going. This is true for the Apostles in this Sunday's remarkable Gospel reading. The risen Jesus makes his third appearance to them in the early morning light and calls, "Come, have breakfast" (John 21:12). The exhausted and cold fishermen sit, and he feeds them bread and fish as the dawn breaks. They are overwhelmed by his presence to the point of awestruck silence. As they eat, their bodies and their hearts come alive. Once refreshed by their morning meal, they will be ready to feed others — indeed, the whole world — with the love of the risen Jesus. But first, they need breakfast from him.

Do you realize how essential early morning prayer is? Jesus desires to refresh us every morning with his word of love, with his grace-filled presence. This week, hear Jesus calling to you: "Come, have breakfast!" Embrace some form of spiritual, meditative practice each morning for spiritual strength to get you going.

Questions of the Week

First Reading

The Apostles "rejoiced" when they suffered public dishonor for preaching that Jesus rose from the dead. Have you ever found joy amid your own suffering?

Second Reading

John has a vision of the whole created order worshipping and praising Jesus as the slain and risen Lamb. In what ways will you praise and worship Jesus this week?

Gospel

The resurrected Jesus reveals to Peter that the cost of following him and leading the disciples will be his own martyrdom. How are you sometimes challenged in following Jesus?

SPIRITUAL GROWTH

At St. John the Baptist Parish, we foster a commitment to lifelong spiritual growth.

2025 Lenten Journey Study

Thank You!

We pray that the 2025 SJB Lenten Journey has been fruitful for you in drawing closer to The Holy Trinity this past Lent. We hope that the program caught your interest and that the love you have for the Eucharist has deepened. By seeing the engaged conversations at each table we were encouraged that your discussions were insightful and provided an opportunity for you to get to know your fellow parishioners better. Your joy and your dedication to faith growth was inspirational and we felt that the Holy Spirit was with us.

We would like to thank Father Gio for providing the funds for this program. He has already talked about doing another Lenten Journey next lent, so keep an eye out for information at the beginning of next year. We would like to also thank Shannon Frazier, who led the charge on our journey. She is the backbone of these programs. She is always planning, cleaning, preparing and organizing. She is the one who is always thanking people, so we wanted her to get special recognition for all her dedication and devotion.

There are numerous others we would like to thank:

- Our table facilitators for their dedication to this program. They put in so much work beforehand so they are well versed for each session. Their insight and guidance were a gift to us and we so appreciate them!
- To all who came out early and stayed late to help us with food prep, room set up, video prep, decorating and clean up. Your joy, ideas and help made the work manageable and so enjoyable! We would love for anyone who would like to join us next year to come and join in on the fun! The more the merrier and the lighter the work!

Before closing, we are inspired to give another plug to the bible study, Lectio Eucharist. Knowing that only 30% of Mass attending Catholics believe in the True Presence, we, who believe need to know how to relay this beautiful gift to others. We are all called to do this. If you feel that you cannot convincingly explain the True Presence, or those who are not yet convinced and convicted of the True Presence, it would behoove you to take this more in-depth course. After all, the Eucharist is the Source and Summit of our faith, so if you don't believe, you are missing a huge part of your faith. With this study, you will have many more aha moments! You will have the opportunity to spend about 20-30 minutes a day steeped in scripture and learning. This might seem like a lot at first, but you will soon see that this will become the best part of your day – time spent with God. Watch for the next study offering!

Jubilee Reflection for the Week:

Theme 2: To Be Living Stones in God's Temple

As Pilgrims of Hope: We share in Christ's prophetic mission when we profess the Creed, and when we praise, Him, who has called us "out of the darkness of sin into the light of life and glory" (1 Peter 2:9). Reflection for the week: How do I encourage others to become "living stones" in holy temple with Christ as the cornerstone, that is the Church? In my family? At my school? In my workplace? In my community? For further reflections on theme 2, please visit www.scd.org/Jubilee2025

Divine Mercy Ministry

"Thank You" Breakfast Feeding
divinemercy@folsomcatholic.org

Thank you amazing volunteers for your dedication being the hands, feet and voice of the Lord for the poor and the hungry. Our Divine Mercy Ministry continued with the monthly Breakfast, feeding Jesus through the poor and the hungry at Loaves and Fishes (L&F) Friendship Park. We served 235 clients Wednesday morning on April 23rd. We received lots of food donations from our generous parishioners which we distributed. Thank you everyone for being the hands, feet and voice of the Lord!

The following were all made with loving hands at our parish kitchen: we made 430 PBJ, 192 Ham & Cheese sandwiches (thanks to our sandwich makers), bagged about 200 bagels (thanks to Noah's Bagels) and boiled 500 eggs, thanks to our generous egg donors. And, from the heart, to all those who put in their efforts to feed those at L&F. Blessings to all. Our cart remains in the vestibule for your donation. Keep the religious articles coming.

Always welcome are socks and mugs. Always looking for New volunteer servers. Send us an email if you are able to help.

Jesus, we trust in you...

KID'S CORNER

"Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these."

Read the Gospel and Color

Jn 21:1-19

After Jesus rose from the dead, he must have looked very different. Jesus helped his apostles catch a lot of fish, just as he had done before. Jesus invited his friends to eat with him, and he still broke his bread to share it in the same way he always had. The disciples still recognized Jesus by the things he did.

Prayer

Dear God, help me to always recognize Jesus.

Mission for the Week

Invite a friend over to eat dinner with your family, so you can share food just like Jesus did.
