Welcome to

St. John the Baptist Catholic Church

We are a community where we welcome all as members of the Body of Christ.

We are welcoming, faithful, passionate, joyful, authentic, sacramental, loving and charitable.

Today's Readings

Dn 7:9-10, 13-14 / Ps 97:1-2, 5-6, 9 / 2 Pt 1:16-19 / Mt 17:1-9

*"The Lord is king, the Most High over all the earth."
(Ps 97)*

Gospel Meditation

By Father John Muir

What is Christianity finally about? These days if you ask almost anyone who doesn't know the Bible you'll probably hear an answer like this: "Being a good person" or "following the golden rule." No offense to the golden rule, but our faith is simply much stranger than that.

This week's feast of the Transfiguration of the Lord is a luminous example of this. Jesus becomes radiantly and overwhelmingly beautiful. The glory of God literally shines forth from his body and even his clothes. Here we see that Christianity is not mainly a moral system, but a relationship with God in Christ, one that finally makes human beings gloriously beautiful.

Now we can see our good and bad deeds in a new and de-centered way. Our morality isn't about a heaven or hell scorecard. It's about lives open (or closed) to transfiguration, lives capable of revealing the glory of God in Christ to the world. Spouses, children, friends, co-workers, priests, consecrated women and men, and so on — we are all called to let the beauty of Jesus make our lives beautiful, little by little.

His beauty in us is the center of our faith.

Scripture Reflections

First Reading

In a vision, the prophet Daniel sees the heavenly throne of God and the coming kingdom of God represented by a human figure, a "son of man." The vision speaks to God's everlasting love and ultimate control of the world. Why do you think God reveals Himself in visions?

Second Reading

Peter speaks of his eyewitness to the majesty of Jesus Christ. How might you witness to family or friends this week your beliefs about Jesus?

Gospel

The transfiguration reveals Jesus's divinity to Peter, James, and John, "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased; listen to him." What would you say is the most important lesson from Jesus that we should listen to?

At St. John the Baptist Parish,
we welcome all as members of the Body of Christ.

Celebrating San Lorenzo Ruiz

Volunteers Needed

Contact: Lili Rehwald
916-220-2483, lrehwald@gmail.com

St John's parish will be hosting one of the Diocesan Novena Masses to celebrate the feast day of San Lorenzo Ruiz, the first Filipino canonized in 1987 by St Pope John Pall II. The Novena Mass will be on Saturday, September 23, at 11:00 am with reception to follow after the Mass. We are in great need of volunteers who would like to be part in the planning and preparation of this event. No experience necessary, just a big heart and willingness to serve. If interested, please contact Lili. Our first meeting will be on August 10 at 6 pm in the Garden Room.

Inspiration For the Week

"Do not tell the vision to anyone until the Son of Man has been raised from the dead," Jesus told his disciples. Why keep such an amazing thing as the Transfiguration a secret? Because the world wasn't ready for the end of the story yet. Sometimes, the glory only makes sense after the trials.

Recognize God in Your Ordinary Moments
By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Transfigured

We have all had moments when we seem to get a glimpse of Heaven.

For me, they come with the sacraments: in the pew following my First Communion, kneeling before the bishop as he sealed my forehead with oil at my Confirmation, standing opposite my husband on our wedding day, cradling my newborns as the priest poured holy water over their little foreheads, claiming them for Christ.

Moments when the veil between this world and the one to come is pulled away, and our hearts cry out: "Lord, it is good we are here."

Like Peter at the Transfiguration, we desperately wish the feeling would last forever. We want to hang onto the certainty, the confidence and the joy that radiates from our souls. We want to spend forever looking upon the transfigured face of Christ.

But we are not in heaven yet. We raise our eyes, seeing only this world before us, the words of Jesus ringing in our ears: "Rise, and do not be afraid."

"His dominion is an everlasting dominion that shall not be taken away, his kingship shall not be destroyed." — Daniel 7:14

Sunday Collection

Please place your donations for our RE Program and SJND in the first collection.

2nd Collection

This weekend, we are also collecting for the Mission Cooperative Appeal. This annual program seeks to foster an ever-deeper spirit of universal mission, to inform Catholics of the life and the needs of the Catholic Church in the Missions, and to encourage prayer and financial help for those mission churches. Please note, special envelopes are available for your use to support this program. See page 10 of this bulletin for more information and please welcome Fr. Charles Niwagaba who will be celebrating at this weekend's Masses.

Holy men and women from the Americas

Black Elk was born in December of 1863 into the Oglala Lakota people to a family with a long history of working as medicine men and healers. He grew up in present-day South Dakota and Wyoming and was the second cousin of Lakota war leader Crazy Horse.

Following a severe illness in his childhood where it is reported that he lay motionless and unresponsive for several days, Black

Elk frequently had spiritual visions. In his first vision, during that period of illness, he witnessed kind and loving spirits that he interpreted to be Thunder Beings — wise and revered spirits like grandparents — who implored him to help save his people from the settlers destroying their way of life. As he shared these visions, the other healers in his community were astonished.

He became a spiritual and physical healer among the Lakota, often using song as a healing element. He took his visions seriously and, after experiencing the decimation of the population of wild buffalo by white settlers, and his people being forcibly confined to reservations, he witnessed the great suffering being forced upon his community by colonizing forces. In response, he fought in the Battle of Little Big Horn as well as in the Wounded Knee Massacre in 1890, being grazed by a bullet to the hip during the battle. The violence at Wounded Knee was, partially, in response to the Plains tribe's interest in Black Elk's Ghost Dance Movement. He developed the Ghost Dance to bring a message of hope to his people — that the invaders would leave, the buffalo would return, and the systematic destruction of their culture would soon end.

He recovered from his injuries and went on to live at the Pine Ridge Reservation. There, he married his first wife, Katie, a Lakota Catholic convert, and they had three children — all were baptized Catholic. After Katie died in 1903, Black Elk also converted and took on the additional name, Nicholas. He eventually remarried and had more children, baptizing and raising them all Catholic.

Nicholas Black Elk became a catechist and blended his Catholic faith with traditional Lakota practices and ceremonies. He continued to be a resource of spiritual wisdom when he became a catechist and gave talks to those in his community and in neighboring reservations. Through his evangelizing efforts, he had a hand in helping over 400 people convert to Catholicism and served as godfather for over one hundred of them.

Black Elk's cause of sainthood was opened in 2017 and he is officially recognized as a Servant of God for his life's work of harmonizing his Catholic faith with his Lakota culture and bringing hundreds to the faith. He is buried at the Pine Ridge Indian Reservation.

At St. John the Baptist Parish,
we bring Christ's light to all through service to others.

"Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these."

Mt 17:1-19

Previews give us a quick peek at a movie, in hopes that we will want to see more. In today's Gospel, we celebrate Jesus' Transfiguration. That's when God gave Peter, James and John a preview of the risen Jesus, the Jesus they would see again one day. Jesus glowed brightly. Moses and Elijah came to talk with Jesus. Then a great cloud covered everyone, and God said Jesus was his Son. Jesus was the Savior that God's people had been waiting for.

 Mission for the Week

Read today's Gospel with your family. What would have surprised you most about seeing Jesus like that on top of the mountain?

 Prayer

Dear God, thank you for showing us through your Word that Jesus is our Savior. Amen.

Mission Cooperative Appeal

The Mission Cooperative Appeal provides an opportunity for approved missionaries from around the world to speak in our parishes, increase awareness about their evangelization efforts and offer parishioners an opportunity to support their work in the field.

Please welcome Fr. Charles Niwagaba with the University of St. Joseph Mbarara in the Archdiocese of Mbarara in Uganda. He will share with us their courageous evangelization efforts on behalf of the Catholic Church and give us an opportunity to support their work.

Special envelopes will be provided for your convenience. Donations made by check should be made payable to the parish. All funds collected throughout the Diocese will be equally divided among the missionary organizations visiting the Diocese of Sacramento this year.

University Of Saint Joseph Mbarara IN NEED OF 100 COMPUTERS

The University of Saint Joseph Mbarara (USJM) was established by the Archdiocese of Mbarara, Uganda, in 2018. The main purpose of USJM was to provide affordable higher education to the children of the poor who are the majority of the people in the diocese. Secondly USJM exists to maintain values and standards that the church stands for which are not provided for in government and other available institutions of higher USJM had started well until when COVID 19 set in 2020 with its challenges of shutdowns and social distancing. Because we had few computers and our students and teachers had not anticipated the magnitude of online and distance learning, we faced enormous challenge on how to keep the students and teachers in teaching and learning.

The blended methodology we used was not so user-friendly.

This is the reason we are requesting for 100 computers that will help USJM to enhance teaching and learning, accessing information and resources, have flexibility and convenience through online courses and distance learning, research and innovation and well as global connectivity and administrative efficiency. ICT plays a vital role in preparing students for a technology-driven world and equips them with the necessary digital skills and competencies. We are so grateful for your financial and prayerful assistance.

As a young institution we believe that synergy may come from every person or volunteers through sharing their experiences and resources in their various fields. Please, feel free to offer your time with us for a period of time you can afford assured that you are very welcome and we shall be grateful to offer any possible assistance.
