Welcome to

St. John the Baptist Catholic Church

We are a community where we welcome all as members of the Body of Christ.

We are welcoming, faithful, passionate, joyful, authentic, sacramental, loving and charitable.

Today's Readings

Lv 13:1-2, 44-46 / Ps 32:1-2, 5, 11 (7) / 1 Cor 10:31-11:1 / Mk 1:40-45

*"I turn to you, Lord, in time of trouble, and you fill me with the joy of salvation."
(Ps 32)*

Gospel Meditation

By Father John Muir

Recently I had a skin rash, and it was awful. (Please don't tell anyone.) I am embarrassed to admit that I didn't handle it well. Complaining, whining, begging for sympathy, and crying were my responses to the merciless itching and burning. In the aftermath, a silver lining emerged. I feel a new heartfelt sympathy for all those vexed with chronic skin problems. If you've ever had a seemingly unending skin problem, you know how that sympathy flows up from deep inside.

This gut-level compassion is something like what the Gospel describes in Jesus when the sore-covered leper says, "If you will it, you can make me clean." At this, just before the healing, Jesus was "moved with compassion." The Greek word used here is strong and earthy, closer to "his bowels and guts trembled with the deepest emotions of sadness, pity, and love." In Jesus, God heals our infirmities not from a divine distance but by learning what it feels like to be us. He acquires first-hand experience of what it costs us to be afflicted and still be faithful to God. He sympathizes with the burning, itching, and blistering of human existence in the deepest, first-hand way. To discover that is to touch Jesus' heart.

What in your life, right now, is breaking out like diseased skin? What is getting worse the more you try to soothe it? Perhaps only you feel it. Or maybe it's exposed to all. A bad habit, broken relationship, loneliness, fear of failure, self-hatred? Name it, and then find a way to bring it confidently to Jesus who will feel what we are feeling, and thereby heal us.

Scripture Reflections

First Reading

We hear how ancient Israel was concerned about purity laws and the spread of disease, such as leprosy. How do you support people in your life who are suffering from disease or isolation?

Second Reading

Paul encouraged the Corinthians to be selfless and kind to each other as a practical way of living out their faith. Is there a friend or co-worker who could benefit from your generosity toward them?

Gospel

The healed leper disobeyed Jesus' command to remain silent and as a result, Jesus had to stay outside towns and in "deserted places." How do you deal with people in your life who disappoint or frustrate you?

At St. John the Baptist Parish, we welcome all as members of the Body of Christ.

NATIONAL
Eucharistic Revival

Make a commitment and plan to receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation sometime in the next seven days. What if you rearranged your schedule and went today? The Sacrament of Reconciliation requires us to confront our sins and disordered attachments, but it is always an encounter with the mercy of Jesus.

Companioned Prayer Ministry

First Saturdays, 9:15 am, Holy Trinity Church
Contact: Michelle Hendricks
www.CompanionedPrayer.org

Temporary change from Wednesdays to Mondays during February and March. Introductory welcome at 9:15 after morning Mass, prayer at 9:30. In February and March, we will offer a renewed focus on Jesus and His presence. We will continue to break open Scripture, using the same way of listening to the Word as offered in the Eucharistic Revival Program (ER). We will revisit the theme of each ER session the following week during our Companioned Prayer gathering. We will continue to focus on Jesus' presence in prayer, in us, the Word, and especially the Eucharist.

Vocations Cross Program

Who will bring Christ to us through the Eucharist at Mass? Who will baptize our children into the Catholic Faith? Who will hear our confessions and be at our sides when we die? Who will perform the marriages of our children and grandchildren? Who will preach the Gospel to us and teach us to be good as Christ asks?

Next weekend we will be inviting our parish families to participate in the Vocations Cross Program. It is our hope to support the Church in her effort to pray for priests and for an increase in priestly and religious vocations. Each weekend a family will have the opportunity to embrace praying for vocations at home together.

- The family will be asked to sit up front and to approach the Altar when Father asks for "the family who will take the Vocations Cross" to come forward. They will receive the kit (cross and prayers) and a special blessing.
- For one week the individual or family takes the Cross into their home and commits to saying the prayers provided on a daily basis.
- The kit is then returned the following weekend and will be passed to a different family.
- The Knights of Columbus will be coordinating this ministry. If you would like to take the cross home, please seek out the Brother Knight for the Mass you are attending.

It was pity that moved the heart of Jesus to heal the leper. He worked this miracle because the leper, in his faith, boldly asked him to. Have that same courage in approaching God with your needs. Have that same faith in His power to heal.

- Canned vegetables
- Pasta & pasta sauce, Beans, Rice
- Healthy cereals, Peanut Butter
- Baby food & baby formula

 Read the Gospel and Color

Mk 1:40-45

It is not fun to be sick. You miss your friends at school. You can't go outside to play. On top of being bored and lonely, you don't feel well at all. The man with leprosy in today's Gospel was sick a long, long time. He was really bored, lonely, and feeling awful. There was no medicine for leprosy. Jesus was the only one who could help him.

 Mission for the Week

Visit the sick. Make a card. Take a treat to share. Give them something to read. Pray for them before you leave. You will brighten their day.

 Puzzle

Find and circle these words from today's Gospel

LEPROSY	WELL	GIFT
