Welcome to

St. John the Baptist Catholic Church

We are a community where we welcome all as members of the Body of Christ.

We are welcoming, faithful, passionate, joyful, authentic, sacramental, loving and charitable.

Today's Readings

1Dn 12:1-3 / Ps 16:5, 8, 9-10, 11 [1] / Heb 10:11-14, 18 / Mk 13:24-32

"You are my inheritance, O Lord! "

(Ps 16)

Gospel Meditation

"And then they will see 'the Son of Man coming in the clouds' with great power and glory." Take a moment to ponder these words from today's Gospel. How does this image make you feel? For people to truly understand the significance of this message, something profound has to happen within. If we find ourselves reacting with a sense of dread or fear, we have to step back and ask why. Our answer will reveal a great deal about our relationship with God. It's hard to fall in love with a God of whom we are afraid. God does not want us to be afraid. Nor does He want us to align our wills to His in order to avoid some kind of horrendous eternal consequence. That sounds like too much of a superficial power play on the part of God who continues to seek out His children in love.

In order for these words to carry any type of significant meaning for us, they have to resonate with and touch us on a deeper level. They have to be able to connect some dots and have meaning for us in order for this promise to change our lives. Sometimes we get preoccupied with the uncertainty of our deaths. Not knowing when or how we will eventually die can be unsettling. But, more so than needing an answer to the "when" of death, the "what" of death answer we provide has more significance. What happens to us when we die? Whether we die during the natural course of our lives or when Christ comes again, the experience is the same. If we believe that we are meant to live in union with God eternally and that death completes and does not diminish us, then it is worth our time and effort to wait in vigilant hope of the Lord's coming in glory. Our journey back to God is something beautiful to be desired, not dreaded or feared.

Sadly, many folks believe that life is no more than a random occurrence without any purposeful direction or meaning. Death is simply death and nothing more. For them, the Second Coming of Christ and God's eternal promise have no meaning. When we understand the truth about who we are, it changes things up. We then can see ourselves as works in progress who have the choice to either resist the inspirations of the Divine Artist or give into the wonderful creativity of His will. Life awaiting the fullness of Christ to come becomes an unfolding of Divine surprises and abundant joy. God is eternally merciful, forgiving, and welcoming. It is only when we directly reject this gift and turn our backs on Love itself that we have anything to fear.

Scripture Reflections

First Reading

The prophet Daniel foresees a time of "unsurpassed distress" where all receive divine judgement of either everlasting life or everlasting disgrace. Do thoughts of the end times bring you comfort or concern?

Second Reading

The author of Hebrews continues to emphasize Jesus' death as the definitive and final sacrificial offering for sins. Why do you think this is a central theme in the Letter to the Hebrews?

Gospel

Jesus speaks of his Second Coming at the end of time and warns his disciples: "Be watchful! Be alert!" How are you preparing for judgment day?

At St. John the Baptist Parish, we welcome all
as members of the Body of Christ.

Scam Emails & Text Messages

Parishioners and parish staff have been receiving scam emails and text messages supposedly from our parish priests requesting to contact them regarding donations or monetary matters. The scammer will write messages using very personal greetings and indicate there is a need to get gift cards or funds quickly to create a sense of urgency. Please do NOT send money or respond to these people. These messages are NOT from our priests. Our Pastor or clergy members will not solicit donations via emails or texts. If there is any doubt call the parish office to verify.

Grace Quilters Holiday Craft Table

Keep Christ in Christmas Religious Cards

Contact: SK Percy Park
916-936-6145, dbk576@aol.com

The Knights of Columbus invite you to KCIC - Keep Christ In Christmas - through our religious card program! The idea of selling religious Christmas cards came about when we realized that faith-filled greeting cards were becoming more and more scarce. Traditional scenes of the nativity and the Holy Family were replaced with Santa Claus, Christmas trees and other images that minimized or displaced the real meaning of the season. Our large assortment of beautiful classic and modern art, high quality printed cards, celebrate the birth of Christ and reminds both senders and recipients that JESUS is The Reason for the season. Cards are sold in boxed packs. If you would like to make a purchase please contact Percy. We also plan to sell these cards in front of our church on Sunday, November 28, and Sunday, December 5.

Winner of the Jar of Hugs

Thank you to all the attendees of the Ministry Fair on November. 6-7. The winner of the Hershey's Hugs jar is Lorelei, a 14 year member of our parish. She guessed 330 Hugs, the actual number was 326 Hugs.

Parish Thanksgiving Dinner

Saturday November 20
Drive up at 2:00 PM
Contact: John Boehm 916-933-5154
Dan Kimbell 916-817-4348

The Knight of Columbus will prepare an early Thanksgiving Dinner for you. Dinner with all the traditional fixings. Because of Covid we will provide the dinner on a take out basis only. Reservations will be required before noon on Thursday, November 18th. Please call John or Dan. No cost to those attending. If you can't pick up the dinner and would like a Thanksgiving dinner delivered to you, we have a few Knights who will deliver. Please call and let us know. Donations received will be used to support the Christian Communities in the Middle East.

Inspiration for the Week

Every human being asks and answers a very important existential question. What happens to us when we die? The answer we provide will determine how we chart the course of our existence. It will also determine whether the Second Coming of Christ will be of any concern to us. For many, life is simply a random occurrence with no significant intention or meaning about it. For these people, their eventual death, and the end of the earth as they know it, have little importance beyond their personal consequences. But, for people of faith our natural death and the Second Coming of Christ have huge implications. It is to these things that our faith speaks volumes and can bring a keen understanding and direction that the secular world simply cannot provide. This is where the call to vigilance and the primordial virtues of faith, hope, and love become useful and meaningful. We are works in progress who can either resist the inspirations of the Divine Artist or give into the wonderful surprising creativity of his will.

At St. John the Baptist Parish, time in conversation with our Lord is at the center of our lives.

Tuesdays and Wednesdays are busy surgical abortion days-up to 6 months gestation in the womb in California. Former abortion workers have told us that up to 75% of appointments were "no shows" when people were outside praying. 588 babies were saved during the 40 Days for Life, including 7 babies right here in Sacramento! Thanks be to God! We are continuing with the "365 Days for Life" at the same location. Come help saves lives and see what miracles God is doing at this abortion mill. May the Holy Spirit open eyes and hearts to the humanity of children in the womb.

WORLD DAY OF THE POOR

"The poor you will always have with you"
(Mk 14:7).

"It is my hope that the celebration of the World Day of the Poor, (now in its fifth year,) will grow in our local Churches and inspire a movement of evangelization that meets the poor personally wherever they may be. We cannot wait for the poor to knock on our door; we need urgently to reach them in their homes, in hospitals and nursing homes, on the streets and in the dark corners where they sometimes hide, in shelters and reception centers. It is important to understand how they feel, what they are experiencing and what their hearts desire." ~ Pope Francis

Prayer to Our Lady of Guadalupe for Justice
Most merciful mother, you came to tell us of your compassion through St. Juan Diego, whom you called the littlest and dearest of your sons. Give your strength and protection to all who live in poverty today, especially the young, elderly, and vulnerable. Plead for them to the Father, that they might experience the Divine Love tangibly in their daily lives, and that all who work for justice on behalf of the poor might grow in fortitude and humility. In these ways, manifest your charity and concern in our lives, that the weeping of humanity may be heard, and all our suffering, pain, and misfortune may be filled with divine comfort and healing. May we always know the peace of being in the cradle of your arms, and bring us safely home to your Son, Jesus. Amen.

12 Creative ways to celebrate this Sunday's World Day of the Poor

How can we stretch forth our hands and hearts to all those suffering some form of poverty during this current pandemic?

"The poor are and always will be with us to help us welcome Christ's presence into our daily lives cf. Jn 12:8)." ~Pope Francis

- Collect Holy Bibles or purchase Christmas cards, stamps, and envelopes and send them to the Catholic Chaplain in your state's men's or women's prison. In this way, prisoners can have greater access to the Word of God and can also be motivated to contact their families for the coming holy days and not feel abandoned.
- Purchase food, masks, and hand sanitizers and bring them to your local parish food pantry, homeless or domestic violence shelter.
- With any donation you give to the homeless, also give them a holy card; in this way you are also caring for their spiritual lives.
- Create a Zoom meeting and invite family and friends to read and discuss the Sunday Gospel every week, by asking what are the readings saying to us during this pandemic?
- Pray the Holy Rosary for the recently deceased in your parish and write a letter to your pastor indicating that you have done this, so that he can inform the grieving family.
- You or your children can draw Thanksgiving Day cards and send them to your local nursing home or to a religious retirement home to cheer up its residents.
- See which elderly or sick neighbor needs you to purchase food or even take out their trash for them; in this way, they are less exposed to coronavirus.
- Ask your pregnant friends or parishioners if you can be prayer sponsors for their unborn children and pray three Hail Marys daily for their babies' lives and safe births. (You could do this in secret if you feel it is more prudent, but few expectant mothers will turn down an offer of prayer for their little ones!)
- Make sure no one in your home eats alone or eats watching the television; now more than ever, families need to eat and pray together.
- Support your local St. Vincent de Paul Society with food gift cards. If there are no local chapters in your area, be courageous and start one!
- Write Thank You cards and send them to doctors, nurses, staff, and first responders in your local hospital. Gratitude will encourage them as they continue risking their lives for us during this pandemic.
- Say yes to God's call to give your entire life in the service of God's poor by becoming a priest, a missionary, or a consecrated religious. Christ needs you!

Giving Until it Hurts

In the time of Christ, sacrifice was nothing new to the Jewish people. The Israelites were experts at sacrifice. So, after centuries of every kind of offering imaginable, what was so special about Christ's? What made it so different from the sacrifices offered by the Levitical priests for centuries before his death?

Well, to adequately answer that question would consume whole volumes. And, of course, the first and most important reason is that Christ was the son of God and the savior of the world, not a random (if "unblemished") lamb offering. It was only by the blood of Christ that we could be redeemed.

But another answer is this: Christ's sacrifice cost him. In fact, it cost him everything. The offerings made by the Israelites through their priests cost them too, of course. They gave of their flocks, of their household stores, of their wealth. But Christ gave differently. He gave of himself. He gave until it was all gone.

Such is the highest form of stewardship: the gift of self to the point of discomfort. It can take a multitude of forms and I am not saying we are all called to be nailed to the cross. In fact, for most of us, our gifts will not involve physical discomfort at all. But certainly, stewardship demands discomfort. It demands that we go against our human nature of putting ourselves first, of thinking primarily of our own needs and desires. And most of all, it demands love. For that, above all else, distinguished the gift Christ gave us.

Prison Ministry

Christmas Card Collection

The Christmas and holiday seasons are especially difficult times for those who are incarcerated. The opportunity for inmates to send cards to family and loved ones is hugely important. Cards should not be used and should not have any writing in them. A box is located in the vestibule to collect the cards.

Sin on the Soul

Why do some sacraments leave a character or mark on the soul?
Don't all sacraments affect the soul?

All sacraments mediate grace and connect us to Christ and to the Church. Some sustain us in our faith journey, while others help us heal from the effects of sin. Each one offers a share in God's life, giving us what we need to be faithful followers of Jesus. But some sacraments change us in ways that are irreversible.

The three sacraments that leave a character are Baptism, Confirmation, and Holy Orders. We are literally different people because of the effect of the grace of those sacraments. We are changed at the core of our being in such a fundamental way that we cannot go back to what we once were.

In Baptism, we are freed from original sin, initiated into the Body of Christ as adopted sons and daughters. In Confirmation, we are given the fullness of God's Spirit, sealed in his grace and gifted with what we need to live a Christian life. In Holy Orders, a priest is marked as an 'alter Christus,' another Christ, and is once and forever a priest who offers sacrifice, forgives sin, and acts in the person of Christ.

In these three sacraments, we are conformed more closely to Christ, reflecting his love and truth.
