Gospel Meditation

By Father John Muir

John 10:27-30

A few years back, I felt as if I couldn't hear God's voice the way I used to. The words in the Bible seemed like cold ink on a page. Prayer felt like sitting anxiously in a lonely room. I was worried — how could I, a priest, preach or help others if I couldn't hear God's voice? It went on for months.

Then a friend encouraged me to go on a retreat and spend as much time as possible in silence. After a day or two of quiet prayer, I noticed gentle but clear thoughts of repentance in two specific areas of my life. I asked God for the grace to change, and I went to confession. Suddenly, the divine silence that haunted me was filled with a sense of God's closeness and goodness. I realized, gratefully, that God had been speaking to me in the quiet voice of my conscience.

This week we hear Jesus say, "My sheep hear my voice. I know them and they follow me" (John 10:27). Jesus links the hearing of his voice to following him. He speaks to us in our conscience in an intimate, personal way, when we most need to hear him. When you feel deaf to God's voice, perhaps it is time to listen in silence for His voice in your conscience calling you to hear and follow the Good Shepherd of your soul.

Questions of the Week

First Reading

Paul and Barnabas experienced resistance from some of the Jews and leaders of the city of Antioch.
What sustains you in difficult and challenging experiences?

Second Reading

John sees a vision in which those who have suffered and died for the faith are comforted by God and relieved of their distress. Is there a family member or friend you could comfort this week?

Gospel

We hear how Jesus gives eternal life to all who follow him. How does following Jesus impact your work or family life?

Inspiration For the Week

Jesus said, "My sheep hear my voice; I know them, and they follow me." To follow him, we must know him. This week, how can we know Jesus better?

Radiate Love

May Theme: Honoring All Mothers

As we learn from today's Gospel, the voice of the Shepherd is unique and unrepeatable. So too the voice of a mother to her children. Newborns already know the voice of their mothers whose bodies have housed them for nine months, and it is mothers who first present children to the world, including to the new father, and teach them about belonging, community, love, and responsibility. Join us for our monthly processions on the 13th of the month from May to October at 5:00pm except on September 13 at 6:15 pm. SPIRITUAL GROWTH

At St. John the Baptist Parish, we foster a commitment to lifelong spiritual growth.

To Be Living Stones in God's Temple Weekly Reflection | Part 1

Bishop Soto's second theme is based on the First Letter of Peter (2:4-5), which says "Come to him, a living stone, though rejected by mortals yet chosen and precious in God's sight, and like living stones, let yourselves be built into a spiritual house, to be a holy priesthood, to offer spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ." This dense passage from Saint Peter continues two more biblical references to the motif of stones. First, from Isaiah 28: "See, I am laying in Zion a stone, a cornerstone chosen and precious; and whoever believes in him will not be put to shame," and second, from Psalm 118: "The stone which the builders rejected has become the cornerstone." This line from the Psalms is moreover found in the Gospels, where the cornerstone is identified as Christ (Matthew 21:42, Mark 12:10). Saint Peter repeats this identification in a speech before the Sanhedrin (Acts 4:11).

The prophecy of a living stone mentioned in Isaiah 28 and Psalm 118 is therefore fulfilled in Christ. The first mark of this living stone is that it is rejected by mortals and the builders. Christ indeed was rejected, not just once, but many times, and the Gospels are full of examples wherein even those who followed Jesus abandoned him. He was rejected from the synagogue of Capernaum, condemned by the people mere days after his triumphant ride into Jerusalem, sent to death by the Romans and Sanhedrin, and even abandoned by his disciples on the day of his death. But God can take what is rejected and transform it into something foundational and necessary for the building up of his kingdom. Christ, by rising from the dead and ascending to the Father, becomes the principle and cause of our own resurrection, and thus the principle and cause of our own hope of being united to him in eternal life.

Jubilee Question for the Week:

Theme 2: To Be Living Stones in God's Temple

As Pilgrims of Hope: We share in Christ's prophetic mission when we profess the Creed, and when we praise, Him, who has called us "out of the darkness of sin into the light of life and glory" (1 Peter 2:9). Reflection for the week: How do I encourage others to become "living stones" in holy temple with Christ as the cornerstone, that is the Church? In my family? At my school? In my workplace? In my community? For further reflections on theme 2, please visit www.scd.org/Jubilee2025

"The bible teaches that God has placed within every human being some sense of right and wrong. We can, however, ignore the voice of our conscience, and over time we can become so hardened by sin that we almost can't hear its voice. This is one reason why Christians need to take a stand in what is right and not let evil go unchallenged."

Come join us at the Planned Parenthood abortion clinic to pray for the lives of unborn children and their moms and their dads.
