Gospel Meditation

By Father John Muir
18th Sunday in Ordinary Time
Matthew 14:13-21

In his song, "Lose Yourself," the artist Eminem raps, "the mood all changed."

We all know that moment when the mood changes, when life turns from lighthearted to deadly serious. That happens in today's Gospel. Jesus has just heard that John the Baptist, his cousin, forerunner, and friend, has been murdered.

As Matthew tells us, "When Jesus heard of it, he withdrew in a boat to a deserted place by himself."

Until now, he had been teaching in parables and healing quietly. But John's death signals a new phase.

The shadow of the Cross begins to fall. Evil shows its teeth.

And how does Jesus respond? Not with rage or despair. He goes to a lonely place to go into deep communion with his Father. From that silence comes action. He feeds the multitude. Out of grief comes generosity. Out of sorrow, life.

This is the rhythm of every disciple's life. When tragedy or violence breaks our hearts, we face a choice.

We can react, or we can retreat into prayer — like and with Christ. This is the hidden place where pain becomes compassion and compassion becomes self-gift.

Lord Jesus, when life intensifies, draw me into Your quiet strength. In that hidden place with You and the Father, turn my heartbreak into the bread of love for the world. Amen.

Questions of the Week

1st Reading

Isaiah speaks of the Lord's invitation to all to join in His feast of rich food and drink without cost.

To whom can you show generosity to this week?

2nd Reading

Paul is convinced that nothing in this life can separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

When do you feel closest to God?

Gospel

Moved with pity for the crowds, Jesus healed the sick among them and fed thousands with only five loaves and two fish.

Can you think of a time when someone showed compassion toward you?

Monthly Intention for August

For evangelization in the city

Let us pray that in large cities often marked by anonymity and loneliness we find new ways to proclaim the Gospel, discovering creative paths to build community.

Live the Liturgy

Inspiration For the Week

When Jesus multiplied the loaves and fishes, he didn't create only what was needed — there were leftovers that could be saved and shared again. God is lavish in bestowing His grace upon us. He always gives enough to share.

August 28, 7:30pm

Cathedral of the Blessed Sacrament
1017 11th St, Sacramento, CA

A rare and extraordinary evening of sacred choral music, performed by Sacred Voices direct from Rome. These distinguished musicians from the Roman and Vatican Choirs bring the timeless tradition of Gregorian chant and sacred polyphony — music that has resonated for centuries within the walls of the Vatican. Rooted in the historic Roman School of sacred music, the program celebrates the beauty, spirituality, and artistic legacy of the Catholic Church and the great composers of the Sistine Chapel. It promises to be a once-in-a-lifetime event in the Mother church of our Diocese, which was recently cited by National Geographic as one of the most beautiful cathedrals and churches in the United States. Tickets may be purchased using the link on the Cathedral website or scan the QR code.

Mt 14:13-21

Imagine being one of Jesus' disciples. One moment you see more than 5,000 hungry people. You don't know what to do. The next moment you see Jesus turn a small lunch into a huge feast. Jesus gives you the food, and he asks you to share it with the hungry people. Jesus asks the same thing today. Share what he gives you with others, too.

Jesus, help me to share what you have given me.
