Gospel Meditation

By Father John Muir

Life is troubling. Who among us has not struggled with anxiety and difficulties, sometimes massive ones? I certainly have, as have many of my loved ones. If we do, does this mean that we don't trust the Lord or just need to toughen up?

I don't think so. How encouraging for us anxious and troubled souls to hear Luke describe the Blessed Mother Mary in these words, "But she was greatly troubled at what was said."

An archangel has visited her. An inconceivable promise has been made to her.

Her life has become wildly unpredictable, perhaps more so than any person before or since.

The first point for us: the Lord is with her precisely when she is troubled. Her anxiousness and God's presence are not mutually exclusive. Christianity is not about a trance-like robotic indifference. It's about the presence of divine love.

Even in — especially in — troubled circumstances.

Our troubled soul can become our greatest treasure. What seems so troubling at first to Mary becomes the best possible thing, Jesus, the Savior and Lord, is now her son.

All the difficulties and troubles remain, and yet her movement into the fullness of God is accelerated. What is troubling you right now? This scripture invites us now, this week, to hear the Lord's messenger say to us what he said to Mary,

"Do not be afraid! You have found favor with God."

Scripture Reflections

First Reading

We hear how God established his covenantal promise with King David to raise up a son after him and ensure that David's house and kingdom will stand firm forever.

What promises have you kept with family or friends?

Second Reading

Paul concludes his letter to the Romans with a hymn of praise to God.

As Advent draws to a close, for what can you praise God?

Gospel

Today's Gospel reading is the annunciation to Mary of the upcoming birth of Jesus.

Mary's unconditional acceptance offers us a model to follow.

How open are you to God's work in your life?

You are invited to peacefully pray with us to help spread the word about this important community outreach. Please join us in prayer as we assist women and men in their decision to choose life for their unborn babies with the Word of God and the many resources available to them. Bring a folding chair and meet us at St. Johns leaving at 9:30am and praying from 10am-noon. Our focus is Thursdays on this late term abortion day as babies in the womb can be aborted at 6 months. Mother Teresa traveled the globe condemning abortion, never afraid to speak truth in love. "The greatest destroyer of peace today is the cry of the innocent unborn child." Today millions of unborn children are being killed, but we say nothing." Consider the thought of becoming involved.

Our Wednesday morning prayer circle here at St. John's Church invites you to meet us for an introductory welcome beginning at 9:15 following the morning Mass.

Christmas and Companioned Prayer

As we conclude Advent and look forward to celebrating Christmas, The Companioned Prayer Ministry here at St. John's offers you an opportunity to continue the celebration of Jesus's coming to us and our world during the Season of Christmas. Share your faith, joy, and Christmas peace in prayer and fellowship during the Christmastide. Be still...and know the love of God... Join us in prayer, reflection, and sharing as we rejoice in the goodness of God to send His Son to us as Love. May you know within your heart the gift of His peace and joy at the manger this Christmas and each coming day until His coming again.

Recognize God in Your Ordinary Moments
By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

What Is Your Fiat?

Are you an anxious people-pleaser prone to overcommitting yourself? Welcome to the club! We have slogans, and for your convenience I've listed them here:

"Sounds great!"

"No worries!"

"Absolutely, I can do that, not a problem!"

These are your go-to responses for when someone requests a favor that is a huge inconvenience, but you would rather die than disappoint. It's not exactly disingenuous — it's just a little neurotic. Again, welcome to the club.

You know who doesn't belong to this club? The Blessed Mother. For many reasons, I'm sure, but the biggest one is that she's always completely up-front. Take her response to the Angel Gabriel: "Let it be done."

If there are more powerful words than these, I can't think of them now. And yet, as responses go, this certainly isn't an enthusiastic one. There was never a human creature more willing to obey God than Mary, full of grace, so it makes it all of the more striking that her response to Gabriel is this reserved — and it makes it all the more certain that she means exactly what she says.

Let it be done.

Not: Yes, this is exactly that I asked for!

Not: Nope. This sounds awful. Count me out.

But precisely this: If God is asking, my answer is yes.

The Angel Gabriel visits us all, in a way, at some point or another, bearing news we did not expect. When we can say, in the face of that uncertainty, "Let it be done," we are embracing our calling as disciples. We are becoming like Mary.

*"Behold, I am the handmaid of the Lord." —
Luke 1:38*

Think of the people you trust. These are people you can count on, no matter what happens. Both Mary and Elizabeth were amazed to learn that they were pregnant. God had surprised each of them with a special miracle - a baby. God trusted them both to take care of their babies. Mary and Elizabeth trusted God to help them. You can trust God, too.
