Gospel Meditation

By Father John Muir

St. Thomas Aquinas said that friends share three things: time, possessions and secrets. For example, how do I know if you're my friend? Well, let's say we've been to Mexico together, you've tried my shaky attempts at pasta carbonara, and you know what ridiculous costume I wore in a music video I filmed in my early twenties. We, dear reader, are definitely friends. We've shared time, possessions and secrets.

How does friendship with Jesus develop? The same way. Jesus lives and eats with his disciples. Then he takes Peter, James and John to Mount Tabor and there reveals to them his deepest secret: his glorious, divine Sonship. The majesty of God shines from within his humanity in a way that goes beyond description. God the Father confirms this "secret," saying, "This is my chosen Son, listen to him" (Luke 9:35). It's all so precious that "they fell silent and did not at that time tell anyone." Do we take time to be alone with Christ, to allow him to mystically share this "secret" with us as his dear friends?

Lenten challenge: This week, identify one time when you experienced an awareness of some specific aspect of Jesus — perhaps on a retreat, at Mass, in prayer or in an act of service. Spend ten minutes consciously re-living that experience in your heart. If you can't recall one, set aside at least two hours this Lent as a mini retreat, either alone in nature or in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament. Focus on him and ask him to share the secrets of his heart with you. He will. Then, as his friend, share the secrets in your heart.

Scripture Reflections

First Reading

The Lord God promised Abram land and many descendants because Abram put his faith in the Lord.

Why do you have faith in God?

Second Reading

Paul teaches the Corinthians that upon Jesus' return, he will change our bodies to conform with his glorified body.

Can you imagine what a glorified body will be like?

Gospel

As Peter, James and John witnessed Jesus' transfiguration, they heard God say, "This is my chosen Son; listen to him."

As the season of Lent continues, what do you hope to hear from God?

March is Dedicated to:

Monthly Intention for March

For Families in Crisis

Let us pray that broken families might discover the cure for their wounds through forgiveness, rediscovering each other's gifts, even in their differences.

Live the Liturgy

Inspiration For the Week

The Apostles do not realize what is happening during the transfiguration. They are confused and afraid, and then they hear a voice from the cloud: "This is my chosen Son; listen to him." Sometimes in life, all we have is the voice of God. Listen to it.

WELCOME

At St. John the Baptist Parish, we welcome all as members of the Body of Christ.

Annual Catholic Appeal Weekend

Through the Annual Catholic Appeal we offer ourselves as missionaries of hope to those who suffer in our communities

We may not all work on the front lines of charity, but through the Annual Catholic Appeal, our whole community leans in to help our Catholic charities... and our own parish... to sustain programs and ministries that help lift our neighbors and friends out of the hardships of poverty. The Annual Catholic Appeal is dedicated solely to the social mission of the Church here in Northern California. Last year, 509,000 people were helped by Appeal-funded charitable works. Please be as generous as you can. Every gift makes a profound difference in someone's life.

KID'S CORNER

"Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these."

Read the Gospel and Color

Lk 9:28b-36

One night when Jesus prayed, Jesus showed Peter, James and John what he would look like in heaven. Jesus' face changed and his clothes glowed brightly. Jesus even talked to Moses and Elijah, who had gone to heaven many years earlier. Jesus was different. He was from God!

Prayer

Dear Jesus, I can hardly wait to see what you really look like in heaven.

Mission for the Week

Find something that glows in the dark. As you see it in a dark room, imagine how brightly Jesus must have glowed.

Puzzle

Help Jesus find his way to his tent.
