Gospel Meditation

By Father John Muir

John 2:13-22

When I was 22, I entered St. Peter's Basilica for the first time. It floored me. I could hardly take it in, its grandeur, majestic arches, vibrant colors, and the light that danced through its high windows. Somehow, amidst such splendor, I felt an overwhelming sense of belonging, as if I had finally come home.

Jesus reorients how we Catholics see sacred buildings. In today's Gospel he says, "Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up" (John 2:13-22). His riddle implies, shockingly, that his own body is now the fundamental dwelling place of God and humanity. The temple in Jerusalem has been superseded.

In our churches today — whether they mirror the basilica's grandeur or embrace humble simplicity — we experience architectural symbols of Christ's risen body. It is no accident we call them "churches": they make visible in brick-and-mortar Christ's body which is made up of the living stones we call Christians. Each church building, like St. John Lateran in Rome, or St. Peter's, or any other, is meant to be a vibrant sign of Christ's resurrected body. We should cherish and protect our churches as places where heaven touches earth, where we, as a community, are raised to the fullness of life in Christ.

Questions of the Week

1st Reading

The prophet Ezekiel envisions a future of restoration and renewal for the exiled Israelites held captive in Babylon.
What future do you hope for with your family?

2nd Reading

Paul tells us that as believers in Christ, the Spirit dwells in us, making us holy, the temple of God.
Can you share a time when you felt the Holy Spirit active in your life?

Gospel

The disciples understood the full meaning of Jesus' cleansing of the temple only after his resurrection from the dead.
What has hindsight taught you about your life?

November is Dedicated to:

Pope Francis' Monthly Intention for November For the prevention of suicide

Let us pray that those who are struggling with suicidal thoughts might find the support, care, and love they need in their community, and be open to the beauty of life.

 Please note ALL monthly intentions for 2025 were chosen by the late Pope Francis at the end of 2024. Pope Leo will choose intentions for 2026.*

Inspiration For the Week

"You are the temple of God," Paul tells us. But in today's Gospel we see how easily even temple areas become corrupted. Jesus, purge the greed and selfishness from our hearts. Make them fit dwellings for your Holy Spirit.

WELCOME

At St. John the Baptist Parish, we welcome all as members of the Body of Christ.

Dan Kimbell, 916-990-8824

The Knights of Columbus in partnership with Family Fellowship and Grace Quilters will be hosting a Parish Thanksgiving Dinner with all the traditional fixings. Come get to know your Parish family (meet someone new) and enjoy early Thanksgiving Dinner with them. Don't be afraid to bring someone who might not come if you don't bring them. They are especially invited. There will be no cost to those attending. Please let us know that you are coming so we can make sure there is enough food for everyone. If you are stuck at home and can't make it to the dinner and would like a Thanksgiving dinner delivered to you, please call and let us know and we will deliver it to you. There is an extra benefit to those attending this year. The Grace Quilters will also be set up in in Gallagher Hall and you can help them and get some of your Christmas shopping done at the same time.

Donations Gladly accepted. All donations received will be divided in support of the Knights of Columbus Charities for Ukraine.

Remembrance Envelopes

November is the month of the Holy Souls. The Church encourages us to remember the deceased members of our families in a special way. Envelopes are available in the vestibule and parish office throughout the month of November. You can list the names of those you would like to be remembered in the November Masses. Completed envelopes can be returned to the basket located in the vestibule. They will be kept on the altar in remembrance of those you have listed.

*Heavenly Father,
You are the giver of all life and the source of all mercy.
Today we come before You with a heavy heart, burdened by the pain and division that surround the issue of abortion.
Lord, You know every soul — the born and the unborn, the mothers and fathers, and all who carry sorrow or regret.
Please pour out Your compassion on those who are suffering.
Heal those who feel lost, ashamed, or afraid.
Strengthen those who choose life, and surround them with love and support.
Forgive us, Lord, for the times we have failed to protect or to love as You call us to.
Teach us to show mercy instead of judgment, and to be voices of truth, hope, and grace in this world.
May Your peace and justice prevail, and may every life — born and unborn — be treated as precious in Your sight.
In Jesus' name, Amen.*

You will receive an email prior to the scheduled session with the Zoom link & instructions. Please check your spam/junk mail in case you do not receive the email in your inbox. Weekly attendance is not required.

Advent: A Series of Expectation

Deacon Jim will be offering a four week Advent series from November 24—December 15. Details to come in upcoming bulletins.

Did you know there are churches in Rome older than St. Peter's? St. John Lateran is one of four major basilicas in the Eternal City, and it is by far the oldest. The land was donated by an ancient Roman family to the Emperor Constantine, who in turn gave it to the Church. For hundreds of years, St. John Lateran was the "mother church." Popes lived on the grounds through the 14th century. The church itself suffered from pillaging by invaders, fires, and earthquakes. It has been restored and rebuilt five times since the 300s.

On this feast, we remember more than a building. We celebrate the resiliency of our faith. Though trials may come in our parishes, personal lives, and the world, the Church endures through the grace of Jesus Christ.

CHARITY

At St. John the Baptist Parish, we bring Christ's light to all through service to others.

St. Vincent de Paul Update

Dear Parishioners, I believe an update from St. Vincent de Paul is overdue. We are now serving as many as 70 to 80 families a day. This is a significant increase from the totals four months ago - 30 families per day. We are grateful for your support as well as the donations that we receive from Target, Safeway and Trader Joe's. We are hopeful that we will be able to serve those who will not be receiving their SNAP (food stamps) in November. We are blessed to have the Knights of Columbus food drive at this time. And we are certainly blessed to have the support of our parishioners and neighbors, and our volunteers. Thank you and blessings to you and your families.

Knights of Columbus

Thanksgiving Food Drive

November 1 - 21

We are looking for frozen turkeys and additional Thanksgiving food items for a family meal of four or more. Items such as dressing, green beans, mushroom soup, cranberry sauce, pies, hot rolls, etc.

Coats for Kids

We're looking for donations and need Coats/Jackets/Hoodies/Sweaters for kids, teenagers and adults, "new" or "slightly used", but cleaned. We are also collecting tents, blankets, sleeping bags, socks, gloves, shoes, winter caps for kids, teenagers and adults.

Food for Families

What are the most requested food items? Canned meats: tuna, chicken, turkey, ham, stew and chili. Canned vegetables, pasta & pasta sauce, beans, rice, healthy cereals, peanut butter, baby food & formula. Please collect non-perishable food items only. Avoid glass containers. Plastic containers, tin cans and boxed items are best. Donations assist families, so we encourage donations in sizes you would use at home.

Donation Drop Off

Items may be dropped off in the Knights Cart after all Saturday and Sunday Masses or the St. Vincent de Paul Ministry location next to SJND parking lot. They are open Monday, Wednesday, and Friday from 9 - 12 pm. All donations and proceeds go directly to the St. Vincent de Paul ministry for distribution to our local community and other communities in need.

KID'S CORNER

"Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these."

Read the Gospel and Color

John 2:13-22

The temple in Jerusalem was very special. It was the place people came to pray, to give offerings, and to be close to God. One day Jesus went to the temple. People weren't praying there at all. They were buying and selling animals. No wonder he was angry!

Prayer

God, help me to always treat you with love and respect.

Mission for the Week

After Jesus rose from the dead, God promised to live inside of us. Love and respect God by taking good care of your body, just like your body was God's temple.
