Gospel Meditation

By Father John Muir

Matthew 5:1-12

At the end of her short life, my hero, St. Thérèse of Lisieux, found herself in a curious position. Audaciously, she was convinced that she would become a great saint and would be loved by many after her death. At the same time, she insisted that she was weak, impatient, and ordinary. She became arguably the greatest saint in modern times. How is it possible that an ordinary and imperfect person can also be a great saint?

On this All Saints' Day, Jesus overturns our assumptions about holiness. He says, "Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven" (Matthew 5:3). The blessed are not the impressive or the self-sufficient, but the poor in spirit, the meek, the merciful, and the persecuted. These are not heroic traits by normal standards. They are signs of a heart that has learned to rely on God rather than itself. That's what St. Thérèse, and all the saints, are all about.

All Saints' Day is not a celebration of spiritual elites. Rather, it announces what grace can do in our ordinary lives. The saints are not those who avoid weakness or suffering, but those who allow these things to deepen their trust. What good news for us! The smaller and weaker we are, the more qualified we are to be great saints.

Questions of the Week

1st Reading

John sees a vision of a new Israel consisting of every race and nation who has suffered for their faith in Jesus. Would you say you have suffered for the Faith?

2nd Reading

John speaks of the "children of God" as those who have a deep abiding hope in one day being like Jesus. What do you imagine "to be like Jesus" looks like?

Gospel

Jesus teaches the disciples that God uses the poor in spirit, the meek, the peacemakers, the merciful, etc., to help him build the kingdom of heaven on earth. How is God using you to build the kingdom of heaven?

Pope Leo's Monthly Intention for November

For the proper use of wealth

Let us pray for the proper use of wealth, that not succumbing to the temptation of selfishness, it may always be put at the service the common good and solidarity of those who have less.

Inspiration For the Week

Got a broken heart? Rejoice! An empty bank account? Rejoice! Are you undervalued, overlooked? Rejoice! In the Beatitudes, Jesus offers more than just sweet sayings. He offers a challenge, one we can only meet if he is at our side: rejoice!

Welcome

At St. John the Baptist Parish, we welcome all as members of the Body of Christ.

Environment Ministry

Help Needed!

Contact: Arlette Peterson
liturgicalenv@folsomcatholic.org

We need volunteers willing to help with the laundering of the altar linens. Currently there are 5 volunteers who do the work. They take one week a month to do the laundry. Every week we launder approximately 120 – 150 items. Our goal is to have two volunteers each week, thus cutting the work-load in half. The items can be machine washed (one small load). Most time is spent in pre-treating stains and ironing – approx 2hrs.

Remembering Those Who Died

Monday, November 2
Contact: Laura Wicklman, 916-337-9116

There will be two ways we will remember the parishioners in our community that have died as well as those of our family and friends, regardless of when or where they died. For the deceased members of our Parish who had a Mass since November 2, 2025, candles with the beloved member's name will be blessed and made available for family members to take home. Candles not picked up after Mass will be available in the vestibule until November 8. For our family and friends, a Wall of Remberance will be set up November 2. There will be a basket in the vestibule on a small table on Friday, October 23 for pictures. Please only provide a photocopy of your loved one no larger than 3" X 5". NOTE: DO NOT provide originals. NO copies will be returned. Photos provided by November 1 will be added to the Wall for the 6:30am Mass. Copies of photos received after November 1 can still be added to the board using double-stick tape. The Wall will remain up and available until November 30. For question contact Laura.

This month we are exploring Companioned Prayer as a prayer of surrender into the loving heart of Jesus. Come to our weekly prayer times in the church (in front of the choir area) Tuesday mornings at 9:45 and Thursday afternoons at 5:00 PM for discussion and companionship as we explore and experience how we may surrender into the loving presence of God, into the loving heart of Jesus. What awaits us in His divine presence? (No prayer this coming Tuesday 11/3 due to a funeral.)

Read the Gospel and Color

Mt 5:1-12a

Instead of being bossy, be kind and humble. Instead of being angry, work hard to make peace. Instead of wanting to be popular or rich, spend time with kids who are lonely. When you care about other people, God will smile. He will reward you in heaven.

Prayer

God, help me to make peace in my family and in my school.

Mission For the Week

On the playground, look for someone who is alone. Invite that child to play with you.
