Welcome to

St. John the Baptist Catholic Church

We are a community where we welcome all as members of the Body of Christ.

We are welcoming, faithful, passionate, joyful, authentic,
sacramental, loving and charitable.

Today's Readings

Acts 10:34a, 37-43 / Ps 118:1-2, 16-17, 22-23 (24) / Col 3:1-4 or 1 Cor 5:6b-8 / Jn 20:1-9 or Mt 28:1-10

"This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad."
(Ps 118)

Gospel Meditation

By Father John Muir

"When Jesus had risen, early on the first day of the week, he appeared first to Mary Magdalene, out of whom he had driven seven demons." (Mark 16:9)

Popular Catholic piety sometimes posits that the newly risen Jesus appears first to the Blessed Virgin Mary. It is a happy thought, but it's simply not what the scriptures report. We are told quite directly that he appeared first to Mary Magdalene, "out of whom he had driven seven demons."

Why would the gospel writer remind us of this unsavory detail of Mary's past? Historians tell us women were not qualified to give legal testimony. On top of that, to be possessed by not just one, but seven demons, is unsavory and terrifying. What damage had they done to her? What did she do to allow herself to be home to such evil? It doesn't seem to matter.

Jesus chose Mary Magdalene to be the first one who saw him risen from the dead.

He decided she was qualified.

Do you think that you are disqualified from seeing and announcing the risen Jesus because of your past demons? Maybe they are the demons of despair, confusion, self-hatred, pride, addiction, failure, boredom, laziness, or other sins. Well, don't. In the light of the Risen Jesus, all these past demons make our witness that much more believable — only if we allow ourselves to be touched by the liberating hand of Christ, just as Mary Magdalene did.

Scripture Reflections

First Reading

Peter speaks about himself and the other apostles as "witnesses" to Jesus' public ministry as well as his death and resurrection from the dead. What are some ways you could give witness to the risen Jesus this week?

Second Reading

Paul encourages the Christians in Corinth to see themselves as a community defined by sincerity and truth rather than malice and wickedness. Does this describe your circle of friends?

Gospel

The two women (Mary Magdalene and the other Mary) experience a range of emotions (from fear to being overjoyed) as they encounter first the angel and then the resurrected Jesus.

How do you imagine you would react to encountering Jesus risen from the dead?

Dear Parishioners,

Easter Greetings!

"He is Risen, Alleluia!" If the message of Easter can be summed up succinctly, most likely, these words best express the joy of Easter. Short and sweet, indeed. They are very familiar too.

One of the reasons why I said they are familiar is, of course these words are scriptural, as we can see them in the gospel of Matthew; "He is not here, for He has been raised just as He said. Come and see the place where he lay" (Mt 28:6).

Realizing that Jesus has been raised from the dead, His disciples announced to their fellow disciples this great news. Overwhelmed with joy, they courageously proclaimed the joy of Easter. "Then they went away quickly from the tomb, fearful yet overjoyed, and ran to announce this to His disciples" (Mt 28:8). The disciples' resolve was tested, but they remained faithful to their mission of proclaiming the good news that indeed Jesus has been raised from the dead.

As Jesus' present-day disciples, we ought to do the same. The task of announcing the joy of Easter will never be easy, our determination will be tested, we will be challenged, mocked, and discouraged but Jesus said: "those who endure to the end will be rewarded." And so, clasp your crucifix, hold on to it tightly, for the journey of discipleship especially nowadays will be as rocky as this economic turmoil. Sacrifices will be as costly as the inflation that is yet to come. You will be asked to make necessary sacrifices for the greater glory of God.

As disciples, always remember these words:

"...if anyone wishes to come after me, he must deny himself and take up his cross daily and follow me."

On behalf of Fr. Cleetus, Fr. Haran, the Deacons, and the Staff of the Parish, we wish you a Blessed and Happy Easter! May the joy of Easter scatter the darkness of fear and uncertainties that our future holds.

I invite you and your family to come celebrate the Sacred Triduum with us. Together, we proclaim our steadfast and unrelenting faith in the Risen Christ.

Yours in Christ,

Fr. Renier Siva

O God,
You raised up St. John the Baptist to prepare a perfect people for Christ. Fill Your people with the joy of possessing His grace, and direct the minds of all the faithful in the way of peace and salvation. Grant that as St. John was martyred for truth and justice, so we may energetically profess our Faith in You, and lead others to the Way, the Truth, and Eternal Life. Amen.

The hosts of heaven exult and sing aloud in mighty triumph!

Let the earth be glad as glory alights and night reigns no more.

Let the Church rejoice at the victory of her Lord and Master,

*Who paid the debt of Adam,
Who frees those doomed to die,
Who heals the broken-hearted and bind up their wounds,
Who forgives the sinner and raises up the lowly,
Who destroys death forever,
Whose Kingdom shall have no end.*

God our Father, eternal is your love for us!

*Christ the Son, in victory you reign!
Holy Spirit, set the Easter fire ablaze in our hearts.*

*Together you live and reign and ransom your people,
one God forever and ever.*

Recognize God in Your Ordinary Moments

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Easter Sunday and Object Permanence

When you play peekaboo with a very young baby who has not yet developed object permanence, you actually feel kind of mean. As soon as your hands obscure your face, their little eyes widen with alarm and their expression crumbles into confusion and despair.

Because they can no longer see you, they believe you no longer exist. Their little brains are unable to understand that just because a thing cannot be seen, it is still there, still alive, still full of love and care and protection.

Aw, man, you can hear them thinking. I guess I don't have a mom anymore.

On Easter morning, Mary Magdalene sees the burial cloth but no body. Her human mind makes sense of the situation the best way it knows how, she assumes the Lord has been taken. I'm sure I would have thought the same thing, in her position.

She cannot conceive, on her own, the reality that Christ has risen from the dead. It doesn't matter that he has told his disciples again and again that this will happen. They weren't ready to understand then.

In many ways, Easter is when the human race really achieved object permanence. But we still struggle with it, don't we? I certainly do. So often I can be heard accusing God: "You weren't there. Where were you? I couldn't find you."

But I looked for him in the flesh. I looked for him in the stale yeast of the world — in money or success or affirmation or (worst of all) convenience and pleasure. Of course, I would not find him there, among the dead.

*Think of what is above, not of what is on earth. —

40 Cans for Lent

February 25 - April 9

A charity program that connects traditional Lenten alms-giving with the nutritional needs of poor families and homeless in the greater Folsom area. Inspired by Christ's 40 days of fasting in the desert it has been a huge success for the men of Bishop A Gallegos Council 6197, St. John the Baptist. The program is simple, collect cans of food and/or a packaged food item each day during the 40 days of Lent, beginning on Ash Wednesday and ending on Easter Sunday.

What food should I donate?

- Healthy, non-perishable food
- Items with intact, un-opened, consumer or commercial packaging
- Items with non-breakable packaging (no glass please)
- Food within the expiration date on the packaging

What are the most requested food items?

- Canned meats like tuna, chicken, turkey, ham, stew and chili
- Canned vegetables, Pasta & pasta sauce
- Beans, Rice
- Healthy cereals, Peanut Butter
- Baby food & baby formula

Drop off items onto our Knights of Columbus Cart before and after weekend Masses during Lent. Items can also be dropped off at the St. Vincent de Paul location on Monday, Wednesday and Friday from 9:00 am to 12.

"Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these."

Jn 20:1-9

It was very early in the morning on Sunday. The tomb stone was rolled away. Jesus was gone. All that was left inside were the strips of linen cloth. When John and Peter saw it, they were amazed. They did not understand all the promises the prophets wrote about Jesus yet. However, they knew he was alive. He had risen from the dead!

Message and Devotion to the Divine Mercy

This is an invitation to the preparation and celebration of the Feast of Divine Mercy Sunday. A Universal Church Feast observed on the First Sunday after Easter Sunday, April 16, 2023. Divine Mercy Sunday may be the greatest day of the year because of the immeasurable amount of grace Jesus promised to pour forth on this day. The message of The Divine Mercy is simple. It is that God loves us – all of us. He wants us to recognize that His mercy is greater than our sins, so that we will call upon Him with trust, receive His mercy, and let it flow through us to others. Thus, all will come to share His joy. This message and devotion to Jesus as The Divine Mercy is based on the writings of Saint Faustina Kowalska, an uneducated Polish nun who, in obedience to her spiritual director, wrote a diary of about 600 pages recording the revelations she received by emphasizing in a new way the timeless message of God’s mercy.

Jesus promised for the Feast of Mercy: “ The soul that will go to Confession and receive Holy Communion shall obtain complete forgiveness of sins and punishment.” (Diary 699)

Novena of the Divine Mercy: April 7 – 15, 2023

Jesus promised “By this novena, I will grant every possible grace to souls.” (Diary 796)

April 7 – April 14 5:00 p.m. Church Chapel
April 15 4:30 p.m. Church

On April 10 – April 14, we invite you to join us in the Garden Room after the Novena for potluck, fellowship and watch segments of the film Divine Mercy 101 to learn more about Saint Faustina Kowalska’s revelations from our Lord requesting this feast.

Celebration of the Feast of Divine Mercy Sunday: April 15 (Vigil) and 16, 2023

Chaplet of the Divine Mercy will be prayed 20 minutes before all Masses
Mass/Consecration to Jesus, the Divine Mercy ♦ Reception in the courtyard after all Masses
