Gospel Meditation

By Father John Muir

Matthew 18:15-20

A few summers ago, my family had a big reunion. It included my parents, my four siblings, and all their many children. One of my favorite moments was simply watching my parents' contented faces as they took in all of us together, laughing, sharing food, singing, telling stories. They loved seeing their children happily together with each other.

That is something like the heart of God we see in today's Gospel message about Christian reconciliation. These verses come right after Jesus' parable of the lost sheep. He is not giving the disciples a cold formula for dealing with conflict. He is revealing the Father's longing for children who love and reconcile with each other. His heart aches when his children are divided and isolated.

So when Jesus says, "Go and tell your brother his fault," He is not deputizing us as morality police. He is inviting us into his mission of reconciliation. When he adds, "If he listens to you, you have won over your brother," we glimpse the real goal. Not winning arguments, but reuniting a divided family. These days, we often think religion is just between God and me. But the Father's dream is about a lively family, one in which His children forgive, gather, and rejoice together.

Lord Jesus, give me the courage to seek reconciliation where it is needed. Make my heart resemble the Father's heart, longing and working for unity among His children. Amen.

Questions of the Week

1st Reading

Ezekiel learns the importance of telling the truth when speaking God's prophetic word, even if it is difficult. Can you think of a time when telling a difficult truth led to a good outcome?

2nd Reading

Paul teaches that we owe it to others to love our neighbor. How might you show love to a neighbor this week?

Gospel

Jesus places a high priority on reconciling with someone who has sinned against you. Are there people in your life who easily forgive?

Companioned Prayer Ministry

Special Lectio Divina series starts Tuesday morning

Contact: Bill Stobbe or Deacon Bill Goeke

companionedprayer@folsomcatholic.org

During our 9:45 AM Tuesday meetings in September, we will be taking a deep dive exploring the ancient Catholic practice of lectio divina, and how it has come down to us through the ages in different forms. Did you know that lectio divina is Latin for "divine reading"? We say that our scripture is the Word of God – so is it possible to encounter Him in his Word, reading and listening with the Holy Spirit in this ancient way? Everyone is invited to this special five session series from 9:45 to 11:45 each Tuesday in September, starting on the 1st. We will meet in the church in front of the choir area. No registration is needed. Additionally, regular Companioned Prayer will continue Thursdays from 5:00-6:30 PM.

Mt 18:15-20

One day someone might sin against you. Friends may hurt your feelings. A neighbor may take your toy without asking. Remember what Jesus said. Remember that you sin, too. Talk it over quietly, just the two of you, and give your friend a chance to apologize.

Prayer

Be with me, Jesus, when someone has hurt me. Help me to forgive.
Amen
