Gospel Meditation

By Father John Muir

Matthew 22:34-40

When I was in seventh grade, like most boys of that age, I was constantly hungry. I could eat at any hour of the day. Then I fell head over heels for a classmate named Kristin. One evening, while lying on my bed and pondering her perfections, my mom called me to dinner. For the first time in my adolescent life, I remember thinking: "I'm not hungry." My heart longed for Kristin more than my stomach for food. Now, I wouldn't confuse adolescent infatuation with mature love. But it was an experience of how love can reorder everything in our lives.

In today's Gospel reading, Jesus says, "You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart" (Matthew 22:37). He is not issuing a burden or a moral goal for high achievers. He is naming the deepest orientation of the human heart. We were made for love so great that it gathers every other love into itself. Jesus does not ask us to love less the persons or things that attract us. Rather, he wants our love for God to be so total and intense that we love everything and everyone else because we love him so much.

Do we believe that such a love is possible for us? Because of the gifts of the Holy Spirit, it is! It is readily available to us. Let's repent of our half-hearted love for God and ask Him to fill our hearts to the brim with divine love.

Questions of the Week

1st Reading

At the heart of the Mosaic social laws, we hear God's expectation for compassion, especially to the most vulnerable among us. Is compassion a virtue that comes easily to you?

2nd Reading

Paul offers a prayer of thanksgiving for the faith of the Thessalonian community members who are seen as role models for believers throughout the regions of Macedonia and Achaia. Is there someone in your life who models the Faith well?

Gospel

Jesus taught that love of God and love of neighbor are the foundation of the Jewish law and the prophets. How does this two-fold commandment inspire you to live the Christian life?

Pope Leo's Monthly Intention for October

For mental health ministry

Let us pray that the mental health ministry be established throughout the Church, helping to overcome the stigma and discrimination of persons with mental illnesses.

Live the Liturgy

Inspiration For the Week

Jesus gives us the greatest commandment: love God with all your heart, all your soul, all your mind. When we do that, the rest comes naturally, and we love others as they should be loved. So, give him everything — and let your life be love.

Welcome

At St. John the Baptist Parish, we welcome all as members of the Body of Christ.

Environment Ministry

Help Needed!
Contact: Arlette Peterson
liturgicalenv@folsomcatholic.org

For the past few weeks the Environmental Committee has been requesting volunteers willing to help with the laundering of the altar linens. As of today, we have had only 2 volunteers. Currently there are 5 volunteers who do the work. They take one week a month to do the laundry. Every week we launder approximately 120 – 150 items. Our goal is to have two volunteers each week, thus cutting the work-load in half. The items can be machine washed (one small load). Most of the time is spent in pre-treating stains and ironing – approximately 2 hours. To volunteer, contact Arlette.

For the deceased members of our Parish who had a Mass since November 2, 2025, candles with the beloved member's name will be blessed and made available for family members to take home. Candles not picked up after Mass will be available in the vestibule until November 8. For our family and friends, a Wall of Remberance will be set up November 2. There will be a basket in the vestibule on a small table on Friday, October 23 for pictures. Please only provide a photocopy of your loved one no larger than 3" X 5". NOTE: DO NOT provide originals. NO copies will be returned. Photos provided by November 1 will be added to the Wall for the 6:30am Mass. Copies of photos received after November 1 can still be added to the board using double-stick tape. The Wall will remain up and available until November 30. Contact Laura for questions.
