Gospel Meditation

By Father John Muir

Why do we believe in Jesus and the Catholic Church? Why should we continue to do so? We've never seen him face-to-face (at least not most of us, I assume). Most of us have never had mystical visions of angels or saints. We live in the same world as our atheist and secularists friends. Why do we believe in Christ if we've never seen him?

The simple, symbolic answer the Gospel presents to us this week might surprise us: we believe because of John the Baptist. Early in John's Gospel we hear: "There was a man sent from God, his name was John. He came for testimony, to bear witness to the light, that all might believe through him." The Baptist powerfully announces Jesus. This is a historical fact, and it is also now a pattern at work in our lives.

John the Baptist stands for the entirety of the old covenant, everything entrusted to the Jewish people. And yet he prophetically opens the door to something entirely new in Jesus, to the revival and fulfillment of God's promises. In every generation, and in every human life, God continues to do this. He has done it through people named Augustine, Francis, Catherine, Theresa, and countless others. In my life, the Baptist's spirit has come through persons named Eric, Paul, Mary, and Ron. I challenge you to name at least three people through whom God has announced the coming of Jesus in your life. Consciously thank God for their testimony. And let's commit ourselves to listening to the spirit of John the Baptist testify again this week so that we might more strongly believe in the light.

Scripture Reflections

First Reading

Isaiah rejoices over God's call in his life and the promise of restoration for all nations. As we continue in the season of Advent, what has brought some joy to you or your family?

Second Reading

Paul encourages the Thessalonians to be people of prayer and joy, open to the work of the Holy Spirit in their lives. Is there anything recently that has brought you joy?

Gospel

John presents the religious leaders of Jerusalem as puzzled and uncertain as to who John the Baptist was. How do you approach friends or family in your life who are confused or questioning the faith?

You are invited to peacefully pray with us to help spread the word about this important community outreach. Please join us in prayer as we assist women and men in their decision to choose life for their unborn babies with the Word of God and the many resources available to them. Bring a folding chair and meet us at St. Johns leaving at 9:30am and praying from 10am-noon. Our focus is Thursdays on this late term abortion day as babies in the womb can be aborted at 6 months. Mother Teresa traveled the globe condemning abortion, never afraid to speak truth in love. "The greatest destroyer of peace today is the cry of the innocent unborn child." Today millions of unborn children are being killed, but we say nothing." Consider the thought of becoming involved.

Advent and Companioned Prayer

Ask yourself, how am I preparing for the coming of Jesus?

The Companioned Prayer Circle here at St. John's invites you to join us during this special time of preparing our hearts for the coming of Our Lord this Christmas and His return at the end time. Our Wednesday morning prayer gatherings here at St. John's Church invites you to meet us for an introductory welcome beginning at 9:15 following the morning Mass. As the Church prepares during Advent for the coming of Christ into our world and hearts, the Companioned Prayer Ministry likewise journeys toward Christmas and beyond. Come, be still, and know He is God... Join us in prayer, reflection and sharing, as we ponder the mystery and significance of Christ's coming to us. During Advent, we will consider the themes of hope, peace, joy, and love.

Third Week of Advent

Dear Lord, Give us boldness as we move through the motions of the holiday season, to reflect and remind those around us of Your deep and abiding love for them. Allow them to encounter Your love, through us. Amen.

2nd Collection

Help aging religious. Elderly Catholic sisters, brothers, and religious order priests have offered their lives in service to others—educating the young, comforting the sick, and ministering to the less fortunate. Today, many are frail and need assistance. Your gift to the Retirement Fund for Religious helps furnish medications, nursing care, and more. Please give generously to today's second collection.

St. Vincent de Paul Christmas Giving Tree

Many of you have most likely noticed the Christmas Giving Tree in the vestibule. As in the past, we have hung ornaments on the tree for children in need in our community - ranging in age from 1 to 13 years old. The ornaments reflect the ages of children who have been registered to receive gifts. Each child will receive two to three gifts.

- Red ornaments are for the girls
- Green ornaments are for the boys

We request that gifts be unwrapped and placed in the Christmas barrels. We are also asking that gifts be dropped off as soon as possible and by Sunday, December 17, 2023.

Jn 1:6-8, 19-28

People noticed John the Baptist. He loved God, and he used words honestly. He really wanted to help people change and grow closer to God. He stood out as someone really different and special. People came from all around to hear him and learn about him. When people asked him questions, he pointed them to Jesus.

MINISTRIES

"Here am I, Lord;
I come to do your will."

Why Do We Do That? Catholic Life Explained

The Sign of Peace

Why do Catholics give the sign of peace to one another at Mass?

The sign of peace is a part of the Mass that takes place immediately after we offer the Lord's Prayer. Inspired by the Jesus' words to his first followers, we stand together in a spirit of communion to pray as Jesus taught us: "Our Father who art in heaven..." In this prayer, we call for the coming of God's kingdom in all its fullness and ask that God provides for our needs — "Give us, this day, our daily bread" — to forgive our sins and to bring us to the joy of heaven. It is almost natural, then, that the rite of peace would follow. As the celebrant prays that Christ's peace will fill our hearts, our communities, the Church, and the whole world, we extend to those around us a sign of peace (usually a hug or a handshake) as a symbol of the communion that we experience now and will experience forever in the fullness of the reign of God.

We are also reminded of Jesus' teachings that if we are at prayer and remember that a brother or sister is holding something against us, then we are to go and seek reconciliation with them before we continue our prayer (see Matthew 5:23). And so, the sign of peace also reminds us of the need to truly be in communion — united in love and peace — with God and one another before we approach the altar to receive the Eucharist.

So, the next time you're at Mass and the time comes for the sign of peace, remember that this is a moment to celebrate the gift of Christ's peace that each of us has received from God and to pass that peace along to those around us. We need this moment to practice, because this is also the same peace of Christ that we are instructed to carry out into the world at the end of Mass when the priest or deacon says to us, "Go, in peace, glorifying the Lord by your life."
