Gospel Meditation

By Father John Muir

John 20:19-23

“He breathed on them and said to them, ‘Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained.’” (John 20:22–23)

For those of us who go to confession regularly, there is often a familiar frustration: “Why do I keep confessing the same sins?” It can feel like a loop, cleansed but unchanged.

Pentecost reveals a hopeful perspective. When the Risen Jesus breathes on his ashamed and fearful disciples and gives them the Holy Spirit, he echoes Genesis, when God breathes life into Adam. This is not just primarily the removal of guilt, but new creation.

In confession, we receive more than forgiveness. We receive a fresh outpouring, the breath of the Spirit, and a renewed mission. Jesus does not say to us, “You’re forgiven, now go back to your old life.” He says, so to speak, “As the Father has sent me, so I send you.” (John 20:21)

That is why penance is not just saying a few prayers. It is reorientation. It is the Spirit summoning us to live differently: with mercy and healing.

Just as Adam was sent into the world, and the Apostles were sent out after Pentecost, so too we are sent from the confessional — not just clean, but consecrated.

Pentecost Challenge: After your next confession, ask the Holy Spirit for one way you can participate in Christ’s healing will for you. Then take one small, concrete step, and do not look back.

Questions of the Week

1st Reading

We see how the Holy Spirit filled the Apostles, and they were able to proclaim a message that unified the large crowds in Jerusalem. Have you ever felt united in purpose with a large group of people?

2nd Reading

Paul teaches that each of us receives the manifestation of the Holy Spirit for some benefit.

What gift of the Holy Spirit would friends or family say you possess?

Gospel

The resurrected Jesus sends the disciples forth equipped with the power of the Holy Spirit to forgive or retain sins.

Does forgiving others come easily to you?

May Is Dedicated To:

The Blessed Virgin Mary/Our Lady

Inspiration For the Week

Today, Jesus calls the Holy Spirit “the Advocate.” The Latin for lawyer is “advocatus.” Like a lawyer, the Holy Spirit defends us. The Holy Spirit guides us. So, when you’re in trouble, don’t forget: ask for your lawyer, and do what he tells you.

We invite you to make him the center of your life by joining us for Jesus: The Way, the Truth, and the Life, a 10-week video study program that explores the entirety of Jesus' life and what he means for us as Catholics today. Companioned Prayer

Who was Bishop Francis Quinn?

Contact: Bill Stobbe or Deacon Bill Goeke
companionedprayer@folsomcatholic.org

In 2017 I started visiting Bishop Francis Quinn in his residence at Mercy McMahon Terrace in Sacramento. We had wonderful discussions about spirituality and prayer, and my favorite, Companioned Prayer. He asked us to offer a Companioned Prayer series for him and other residents. For three months in 2018, St John's CP ministry went there twice a week, meeting in their chapel for companionship, instruction, and prayer. While Bishop Quinn's declining health prevented him from participating all three months, what did he nevertheless say about it?

"Companioned Prayer is a prayer with a friend that can eventually bring you to the real purpose of your faith, which is an intimate, daily, loving relationship with God. It is a miracle that you will feel taking place within you. It will take time, but it will happen in you." "I hope everyone can participate in the Companioned Prayer program. It can change your life."

The Most Reverend Bishop Francis Quinn,
9/11/1924 – 3/21/2019

Bishop of the Diocese of Sacramento,
12/18/1979 – 11/30/1993

Come join us this Tuesday in the Church Chapel at 9:45 AM or 5:00 PM to see what might await you! -Bill Stobbe

St. Vincent de Paul Fifth Sunday Collection

Dear Parish Family, this is an overdue note of appreciation for your ongoing support which was apparent in the March Fifth Sunday collection. We received over $10,400. As a result, we are able to provide assistance to our families in need. We continue to encourage them to come for food as often as needed so that they have their dollars available for rent, utilities and gas. However, we do assist with those needs as well. We want to be able to give them a "hand up" and not a "hand out" - meaning they are in a position to continue to move forward and pay future bills.

Next weekend we have another Fifth Sunday, and we continue to ask for your support. We also ask for your prayers for the families we serve. And I close with a special "THANK YOU" to our volunteers - those who go to pick up the donations from Target, Safeway and Trader Joe's as well as those serving our families with food, clothing and household items. God bless you and your families.

KID'S CORNER

"Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these."

Read the Gospel and Color

John 20:19-23

Jesus gave his friends the Holy Spirit, who would always live in their hearts. If any of them were ever sad or afraid, the Holy Spirit comforted them. If someone had sinned, they could bring healing and forgiveness. With the help of the Holy Spirit, they shared God's love with the world.

Prayer

Thank you for the gift of the Holy Spirit, Jesus.

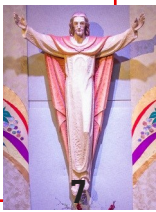

Mission for the Week

Ask the Holy Spirit to help you forgive others.
