Gospel Meditation

By Father John Muir

21st Sunday in Ordinary Time

Matthew 16:13-20

The first time I stood inside St. Peter's Basilica in Rome, its majesty overwhelmed me. The sheer beauty of Michelangelo's dome seemed to lift my soul right out of my body. Later, I joined the Scavi tour that winds below the basilica, down into the ancient pagan cemetery where Peter was buried. There, in the dim light and narrow passageways, I found myself looking at the bones of a murdered Jewish fisherman, his feet cut off so his crucified body could be taken down more easily.

What a paradox. Above me, the most glorious church ever built. Beneath me, the remains of a backwater fisherman. But this man dared to answer Jesus' question, "Who do you say that I am?" And crowning that immense dome above his tomb are the words from today's Gospel, "You are Peter, and upon this rock I will build my Church."

Within you and me is the drama of the lowest and the highest. Every time we confess Christ, humbly, imperfectly, maybe even trembling, we enter that and glory. May our lives embrace both the lowest and the highest, like that great basilica, as we profess Jesus's same mystery. The dust of our humanity, touched by the splendor of heaven. God's presence and our dry bones together. Humility and glory. May our lives embrace both the lowest and the highest, like that great basilica, as we profess Jesus.

Questions of the Week

1st Reading

For disobeying the Lord, Shebna, the master of King Hezekiah's palace, is stripped of his authority and honor, and it is given to Eliakim. Are there people in your life or family that you honor and revere?

2nd Reading

Reflecting on the unimaginable depth of God's wisdom and knowledge, Paul asks, "Who has known the mind of the Lord or who has been his counselor?" What question do you have for the Lord?

Gospel

Jesus establishes Peter as the rock upon whom he will build his church. In what ways do you help build your church community?

The Immaculate Heart of Mary

Pope Leo's Monthly Intention for August

For evangelization in the city

Let us pray that in large cities often marked by anonymity and loneliness we find new ways to proclaim the Gospel, discovering creative paths to build community.

Live the Liturgy

Inspiration For the Week

"Who do you say that I am?" Jesus asks his apostles. Peter is the first to answer. He knows who Jesus is. Do we? In everything we do and everything we are, let us say together with Peter: "You are the Christ, the Son of the Living God."

The St. John's Men's Ministry would like to invite all men of our parish to join us for a special program called "That Man Is You!". This program is helping men around the world grow in their faith, strengthen their marriages and families, and become the leaders God has called them to be. It tackles real issues facing real men. It looks at the leadership role that has been entrusted to men and addresses the temptations and struggles men face in our culture that attacks authentic manhood. Finally, it helps formulate a plan that allows men to overcome these obstacles.

The program is 13 weeks. The first session begins on Saturday, September 12. Light breakfast is provided. This program combines the best scientific research with the teachings of the Catholic Church and wisdom of the saints.

Make a great start to your weekend and join us! The fellowship you'll receive can be truly transforming as we encourage one another to live faithfully and become leaders. There is not cost to attend this program. Contact Oscar for further information. Register for this free program online at thatmanisyou.com or via the QR code.

Second Collection

www.usccb.org/latin-america

This weekend, we take up the Collection for the Church in Latin America! Many people in Latin America and the Caribbean do not have access to church programs and ministries because of a rising secular culture, difficult rural terrain, and a shortage of ministers. Your generosity makes it possible for our brothers and sisters in Latin America and the Caribbean to share in the life of the Church and grow closer to Christ.

The collection cart remains in the church vestibule for dropping off your donations. Items most requested are: cup-of-soups, peanut butter and cheese granola bars, jars of peanut butter and jelly, raisins, nuts, fruit juices, bottled water, and fruit cups. Fresh fruits are welcome and should be dropped off crackers, hot chocolate packets, oatmeal packets, nutritious the day before, on Tuesday, during church open hours. Bibles, holy cards, rosaries and religious reading materials are also appreciated. Always welcome are socks and mugs.

St. Vincent de Paul Fifth Sunday Collection

Next weekend is a fifth Sunday, and the second collection is for St. Vincent de Paul. We are grateful for your support. The number of families we serve has increased, and given the cost of food and necessities, it is not surprising. We continue to provide financial assistance for rent, utilities, etc. Our families are receiving a "hand up", meaning that many are employed and in a position to cover future needs. We are also grateful for the donations of clothing and miscellaneous household items, and the donations of food. Again, we express our gratitude to Target, Safeway, and Trader Joe's for their donations of meat, milk, other dairy products, bread, and sandwiches for the homeless in our community. And I am especially thankful for our St. Vincent de Paul volunteers who come to serve those in need - our drivers who pick up the food donations, those who serve in the food area (ensuring that the food donations are not outdated, giving food out) and those who are in the clothing and miscellaneous donation area. Blessings to you and your families.

KID'S CORNER

"Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these."

Read the Gospel and Color

Mt 16:13-20

God had sent great prophets to his people. Jeremiah, Elijah, and John the Baptist were faithful to God. They told God's people to love each other. But God's people would not listen. That is why God sent his Son Jesus to be your Savior. With Jesus' help, you can turn back to God. Because of Jesus, you can love others. Because of Jesus, you can look forward to heaven.

God, I thank you for sending your Son, Jesus to be my Savior.

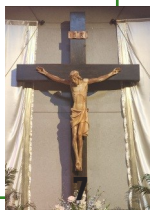

Tell God you are sorry for your sins. Ask God to help you follow Jesus' example.
