Welcome to

St. John the Baptist Catholic Church

We are a community where we welcome all as members of the Body of Christ.

We are welcoming, faithful, passionate, joyful, authentic, sacramental, loving and charitable.

Today's Readings

Dt 8:2-3, 14b-16a / Ps 147:12-13, 14-15, 19-20 (12) / 1 Cor 10:16-17 / Jn 6:51-58

"Praise the Lord, Jerusalem."
(Ps 147)

Gospel Meditation

By Father John Muir

Years ago, a woman at daily Mass approached me in the communion procession. She had her arms crossed, indicating she wanted a blessing instead of the Sacred Host. She had tears in her eyes. I gave her a little blessing. She returned the next day. And the next. The same thing repeated. After a few weeks, I asked her why she didn't receive Holy Communion.

She said she wasn't Catholic yet and was preparing to become so. I asked her why she wanted to be Catholic. She said, "Because I long to be in a real communion with Christ and with everyone I love." That, I submit, is a darn good reason. A few months later, she became Catholic and received the Body and Blood of Christ with unspeakably great joy and still does to this day.

Saint Paul says of the Eucharistic bread, "Is it not a participation in the body of Christ?" For Paul, the answer is obvious. Yes, it is exactly that. Which is why he can say, "we, though many, are one body." Jesus is truly, really, and substantially present in the Holy Eucharist. This is no magic trick, but a mystery of our salvation. He feeds us with the Sacrament of his body so that our communion with him — and with the other members of his body — is built up and becomes mature. That's why the Eucharist quenches our deep thirst for love and communion. The Body and Blood of Christ is the best reason to be Catholic.

It's our participation of love in the one we love.

Scripture Reflections

First Reading

At the end of their forty-year journey in the desert, Moses instructs the Israelites not to forget how God taught them to depend on Him alone. How might you remind yourself of this important lesson in life?

Second Reading

Paul teaches the Corinthians that through the body and blood of Christ, the community of believers are "one body." Who in your life needs to hear this unifying message?

Gospel

Jesus teaches the crowds that through his body and blood believers will obtain eternal life and be raised on the last day. This is the core of our Catholic belief about Jesus.

How do you think we can best celebrate this gift of eternal life?

Knights of Columbus

Join The Knights of Columbus Today

Contact: SK Percy Park

916-936-6145 or dbk576@aol.com

Since 1882, membership in the Knights of Columbus has been open to men 18 years of age or older who are "practical" (that is, practicing) Catholics in union with the Holy See. Since that time, the Knights of Columbus has understood "practical Catholic" to mean a Catholic who accepts the teaching authority of the Catholic Church on matters of faith and morals, aspires to live in accord with the precepts of the Catholic Church, and is in good standing in the Catholic Church.

What It Means To Be A Knight of Columbus

We are catholic men to lead, serve, protect and defend. We share a desire to be better husbands, fathers, sons, neighbors and role models to put charity, Parish and community first.

Our Mission & Our Faith

Together we are empowering men to live their faith at home, in their parish, at work and in their community. Our goal is to help men, their families, and their parishes grow closer to Christ. Through our programs and resources, we provide opportunities to live and spread the Catholic faith.

Responding To Need Since Our Founding

Service and Charity are the heart of the Knights. Founded to meet the needs of immigrants, refugees and families suffering from the death of a breadwinner, the Knights began a small service organization and has grown into a worldwide financial and charitable organization.

Knights of Columbus Charities

Charity is the heart of our work and our faith--- and it always has been. For the Knights of Columbus Charity means supporting a virtually boundless variety of projects.

Knights of Columbus Insurance

The Knights of Columbus is a fraternal benefit society, which means we provide financial security to our members and their families, while turning premiums into charitable impact.

Faith in Action

Lead your parish and community in faith, family, service and life programs through your local Knights council.

Please see one of the ushers after Mass or contact Percy if you have any questions to join.

Children's Liturgy of the Word

Contact: Shannon Langer

Religious Education

916-985-7338

Children's Liturgy of the Word is a ministry focused on our Kindergarten through 4th grade students. The purpose of the Children's Liturgy of the Word is to provide God's Word in the language they can understand and then to invite them to respond in lives lived out in faith and action.

We are preparing to restart this ministry in the fall! We have main coordinators and are now looking for adults willing to help serve. The goal is to have enough support so that we only ask parents to serve one weekend a month at 9:00am Mass or 11:30am Mass. We will provide training over the summer to prepare you. Teens can also help serve and receive service hours.

If you are interested in this special ministry, please call Shannon.

Live the Liturgy Inspiration For the Week

The Eucharist is the most sacred thing in the world, and yet in his mercy, God has made it accessible. In the Eucharist, God bends to meet us. Appearing under the appearance of our daily nourishment, he makes it not just possible but simple — blessedly simple — to fulfill his commandment.

Entrust your friends and family to the loving care of the Sacred Heart of Jesus.

The Sacred Heart of Jesus is a beautiful expression of God's love for humanity. This devotion shows that Jesus loves us so much, his heart bursts out of his chest. Recognizing this immense love for humanity, we can pray to the Sacred Heart of Jesus, asking him to cover our loved ones with his mercy.

Here is a prayer from the early 20th century that asks God to pour down blessings upon your friends and family.

Most Sacred Heart of Jesus, pour down Your blessings abundantly on Your holy Church, on the Supreme Pontiff, and on all the clergy.

Grant perseverance to the just, convert sinners, enlighten unbelievers, bless our parents, friends, and benefactors, assist the dying, free the souls in purgatory, and extend over all hearts the sweet empire of Your love.

If you're seeking to better understand your role in the Church, strengthen your spiritual life, or learn to see as Jesus sees and to judge and act with him, then Lay Mission is where you belong! The Lay Mission Project is an apostolate which focuses on the secular mission of the Laity in the Church – that's us! The objective is to prepare us for the sake of our fundamental calling to transform secular society through living the faith in all aspects of life: in the family, socially, in one's occupation, etc. It is designed for the average busy life of the lay person. Learn how to effectively use your gifts to influence your work, society, and your relationships for the good and draw others to our Lord. For more information now, go to the website at laymission.net or call Laura.

Our Parish Patron Saint,

St. John the Baptist's Feast Day is

June 24. Please join us at your convenience in praying this Novena

from June 16-24

Let us begin,

*In the name of the Father, and of the Son,
and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.*

*O Holy St. John, from all eternity you were chosen to prepare the way for
Our Lord Jesus Christ.*

We implore your intercession for all of our members in their work and for all those we serve.

Pray for us that we may receive the courage and strength to persevere in announcing the Good News of Jesus Christ, who came to seek and save the lost, to heal the broken hearted and to bind up their wounds.

May we be guided by the Holy Spirit with good words of counsel for those in need.

May we be strengthened by your prayers and good example as we prepare the way for the healing power of Jesus to heal and transform those entrusted to our care.

*We ask all of this through
Our Lord Jesus Christ.*

Amen

Recognize God in Your Ordinary Moments

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

The Priesthood and the Eucharist

"These two Sacraments were born together," wrote St. John Paul II of the priesthood and the Eucharist, "and their destiny is indissolubly linked until the end of the world."

The Eucharist is such a beautiful example of how God, conscious of our limitations, bends to meet us. He once came to us cloaked in the flesh, that we might recognize Him. Now He comes as the very means by which we nourish ourselves: food and drink, the most familiar and comforting thing in the world to us. How easy He makes it to fulfill his command that we become one with Him. How generous He is to make such a sacred thing also accessible.

We can say the same of the priesthood, and of the men He calls to its number. How generous of Him to make such an accessible thing — our sons, our brothers, our uncles, our cousins — sacred. How generous of Him to allow these human creations — who share in our own faults — to be the means through which He comes to us in the Eucharist.

Without the Eucharist, we would have no eternal life. Without priests, we would have no Eucharist. On this, the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, let's give thanks for our priests, and redouble our prayers that God will send us good and holy ones — manna from Heaven in our wandering exile.

"Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him on the last day." — John 6:54

Holy men and women from the Americas

Venerable
Mario Hiriart Pulido was born in

Santiago, Chile, in 1931. Born with fibroids on his neck and torso, he had to undergo multiple surgeries throughout his life. He was educated at Catholic schools and, after graduating with the highest honors, entered the Faculty of Engineering at the Catholic University of Chile.

In his early adult life, he learned about the Schoenstatt Apostolic Movement and became its champion in Latin America. The Schoenstatt movement was founded by Father Joseph Kentenich as an effort to involve lay people in apostolic work and unite various factions of the Catholic church under the mantle of Mary. The movement invited men to dedicate their lives to the guidance of Mary, mother of God, and to live out their years in service to the church and their communities.

After receiving his engineering degree and teaching for a time, Mario spent 3 years in formation with the Schoenstatt movement in Brazil. During that time, he led a silent and prayerful life, thoroughly working through the Schoenstatt spirituality and committing himself to the Secular Institute of the Schoenstatt Brothers of Mary in Brazil. Following his personal consecration to Mary in the shrine of the Bellavista in Chile, as a civil engineer and devout Catholic, he wanted to help shape the world, stating in a letter that, "I want to be a personified encounter between heaven and earth!"

In his early 30's, Mario was diagnosed with terminal brain cancer. Upon hearing this sad news, Mario stated, "Interesting, interesting ... Since my youth, I have had the desire to die at the same age as Christ was when he died." He passed away while in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, for chemotherapy treatment at age 33, the same age Jesus was when he was crucified. Pope Francis conferred on him the title of Venerable in 2020.

"Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these."

Jn 6:51-58

When God's people were in the desert with Moses, they got hungry. So, God gave them sweet manna from heaven every morning. It was all they needed to live. God sent Jesus to us from heaven, too, but he's much better than manna. Through Jesus, we can live forever with God.

 Mission for the Week

Every morning when you eat breakfast, spend time with Jesus. Trust God to give you all that you need.

Pastoral Care Ministry

Are you called to serve people in need?

Our Mission:

To bring the Liturgy of the Word, The Eucharist, Prayer and Community to the sick and homebound members of our parish.

Our Tuesday, (very much in need) and Sunday Pastoral Care Ministers are asking for your help! We service homebound parishioners within our community, each Tuesday and Sunday morning, who cannot come to Church because of disabilities, surgeries, or other conditions regardless if long or short term.

We provide training!

If you come across someone in your travels or have a person or persons in your family who are in need, we are here to serve; please have them contact us.

When you hear the call to serve, contact:

Tuesday Pastoral Care Ministry: Candice Ralston, 916-806-8090

Sunday Pastoral Care Ministry: Dan Dunne, 205-527-2420

or call the Parish Office at 916-985-2065 for more information.

Thank you for your time and consideration!
