Welcome to

St. John the Baptist Catholic Church

We are a community where we welcome all as members of the Body of Christ.

We are welcoming, faithful, passionate, joyful, authentic,
sacramental, loving and charitable.

Today's Readings

Is 55:1-11 / Is 12:2-3, 4bcd, 5-6 [3] / 1 Jn 5:1-9 / Mk 1:7-11

"You will draw water joyfully from the springs of salvation. "

(Is 12:3)

Gospel Meditation

We need history. We need it in order to understand ourselves, personally and collectively. The pieces of our histories may not have always been the most positive, honest, exemplary, dignified, proud and best moments of our lives, but they are ours. We have to acknowledge, remember, accept, and often heal them. We cannot forget them or pretend that they never existed. As horrible as the atrocities of events like Auschwitz, brutal injustices committed throughout the human journey, or personal painful experiences in our own stories, we need to remember. These times when humanity in general or people in particular have lost their way are times that need to be reconciled and redeemed.

If we lose the memories, we will make the same mistakes again. The human soul needs a strong sense of affirmation, direction, and clear purpose. Without these essentials, we will easily run amuck and repeat the sins of our past. God's voice throughout history has spoken precisely about this! We are reminded through the voices and example of many prophets and witnesses not to make the same mistakes again, come back to center, discover the purpose given to us by God, maintain a sense of proper direction, seek healing for wounds and be reconciled to our Creator.

Baptism is so incredibly important for the salvation of humankind, not only eternally but here and now. Our existence depends upon it. It gives us the affirmation we need from God by gifting us with the same intimate relationship Jesus had with the Father. We are blessed with the direction and clear purpose we need in order to be productive stewards and faithful Christians. Baptism calls us to remember, accept, and deal with the sins and inequities of our past regardless of how hurtful and serious. We consciously choose to turn away from them and put on the new life of Christ. To do this well, we must look hard and long at our sins and failings, listen to what they are saying and learn from them. If we ignore the past, collectively or personally, or pretend that it never happened, we will never grow. We will surely die.

People need to hear the message, lived and spoken, delivered by the baptized members of the Body of Christ. It is an essential message of hope that is layered with visions of justice, peace, reconciliation, redemption, blessing, and healing. It is a message that helps us remember what has gone before, the graces and the sins, and bring ourselves by God's help where we need to be.

We are called to do much more than sit home behind our closed doors. We have a message to deliver. Are we ready to do so?

Scripture Reflections

First Reading

Isaiah was called to be a prophet to bring justice and freedom to those suffering, to be a "light for the nations." How do you see yourself serving others in need in your life?

Second Reading

John teaches his community that God Himself has "testified on behalf of His Son." In what way does this divine assurance help strengthen your faith?

Gospel

The preaching of John the Baptist and the baptism of Jesus is the opening scene in the Gospel of Mark. In Jesus' baptism, the Father, Son, and Spirit were fully present. As a baptized Christian, can you think of a time when you experienced God's presence?

Listening for God in our Lives

Sign up or contact:
Bill Stobbe at (916) 505-3800,
bstobbe@companionedprayer.org

Join us this Lenten and Easter seasons to explore our Catholic traditions and prayers for experiencing the quiet presence of God in our lives through scripture, our daily activities, and in our hearts. Twice a week we will be introduced to:

- Lectio Divina – listening for God in scripture reading in five meetings beginning February 18th
- St Ignatius' daily Examen – noticing God in our daily activities in four meetings beginning March 16th
- Companioned Prayer – finding God in our hearts in five meetings plus a wrap-up meeting, beginning April 6th

You are invited to pause and notice the quiet grace-filled presence of God in our lives. It is something easily missed in our busyness and daily routines. Come and discover being quietly nourished by Christ's grace and blessings within you. Discover how this may enliven your living faith, growing in His love.

In each online Zoom video meeting, we will open our hearts and our faith experience as we get to know each other and these wonderful prayer practices. We will meet twice a week on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 2:00 to 3:30 PM. There will be a one week break the second week of March and another break for Holy week. An optional four-week extension will also be offered for those who wish to continue after the program.

When God Whispers

"You don't need to shout. My hearing works just fine."

Are you a parent that has used that one on your kids? I'm not sure at what age they realize that the volume of their voice doesn't correlate to the likelihood of receiving a favorable reply — it might be sometime in the teenage years, when the talking slows down altogether.

But I've got to admit, it would be nice if God always gave us a loud and dramatic sign when He wanted something — the booming voice and the torn-open heavens ("This is my beloved Son!") really get the message across. Sometimes I find myself envious of the Apostles, who were able to witness such things in person.

The fact of the matter is, in the year 2021, God is more likely to speak in a whisper than in a shout. The prophet Isaiah forewarns that Christ himself will not be a noisemaker — for all his preaching, he will not cry out or shout to bring forth justice to the nations. His way is altogether different than that.

We are not the Apostles, and we do not have the privilege of seeing the Holy Spirit descend on Christ like a dove. But here's the good news: God doesn't need to shout. Our spiritual hearing works just fine. We just have to be listening.

Let's wake up each morning ready to hear God's whispers throughout the day. Let's make a conscious effort to invite those whispers into our hearts, where they can become a catalyst for grace in this world.

O God,

You raised up St. John the Baptist to prepare a perfect people for Christ.

Fill Your people with the joy of possessing His grace, and direct the minds of all the faithful in the way of peace and salvation.

Grant that as St. John was martyred for truth and justice, so we may energetically profess our Faith in You, and lead others to the Way, the Truth, and Eternal Life.
Amen.

With a new apostolic letter, "Patris corde" the Pope reflects on Joseph as patron of the universal Church, on this 150th anniversary of Pius IX giving him this title. At the conclusion of his Letter, he adds another prayer to St Joseph, which he encourages all of us to pray together:

*Hail, Guardian of the Redeemer,
Spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary.
To you God entrusted his only Son;
in you Mary placed her trust;
with you Christ became man.
Blessed Joseph, to us too,
show yourself a father
and guide us in the path of life.
Obtain for us grace, mercy, and courage,
and defend us from every evil. Amen.*

~ Pope Francis

Year of St. Joseph

On Dec 8, Pope Francis announced a Year of St. Joseph, In making his declaration, Pope Francis noted that this year marks the 150th anniversary of the saint's proclamation as patron of the Universal Church by Pope Pius IX on Dec. 8, 1870. The year began Dec. 8, 2020, and concludes on Dec. 8, 2021. Pope Francis said he was establishing the year so that "every member of the faithful, following his example, may strengthen their life of faith daily in the complete fulfillment of God's will."

Pope Francis said the coronavirus pandemic has heightened his desire to reflect on St. Joseph, as so many people during the pandemic have made hidden sacrifices to protect others, just as St. Joseph quietly protected and cared for Mary and Jesus. "Each of us can discover in Joseph -- the man who goes unnoticed, a daily, discreet and hidden presence -- an intercessor, a support and a guide in times of trouble," the pope wrote. He also said he wanted to highlight St. Joseph's role as a father who served his family with charity and humility, adding, "Our world today needs fathers."

On May 1, 2013, the pope authorized a decree instructing that St. Joseph's name be inserted into Eucharistic Prayers II, III, and IV. During an apostolic visit to the Philippines in 2015, the pope explained why he kept an image of the saint on his desk. "I would also like to tell you something very personal," he said. "I have great love for St. Joseph, because he is a man of silence and strength." "On my table I have an image of St. Joseph sleeping. Even when he is asleep, he is taking care of the Church! Yes! We know that he can do that. So when I have a problem, a difficulty, I write a little note and I put it underneath St. Joseph, so that he can dream about it! In other words I tell him: pray for this problem!"

He urged Catholics to turn to St. Joseph in times of adversity. "In life, at work and within the family, through joys and sorrows, he always sought and loved the Lord, deserving the Scriptures' eulogy that described him as a just and wise man," he said. "Always invoke him, especially in difficult times and entrust your life to this great saint."

*Session 11: Conflict in Jerusalem —
Growing Opposition to Jesus*

The growing opposition to Jesus' ministry, which began in Galilee, comes to a head when Jesus enters Jerusalem during the time of Pass-over. This shouldn't come as a surprise as it was prefigured in the Infancy Narratives when King Herod was troubled by the news of the new king which precipitated the Slaughter of the Innocents. It wasn't all conflict, however, when Jesus enters Jerusalem, there's a mixed reaction.

This conversation is crafted to engage youth and young adults' minds and hearts toward the inherent dignity of the human person. Through storytelling, real-life examples, natural law, and scientific evidence, we pose the question: What is it about human beings that sets them apart? We address modern day violations of human dignity and ask the question: How do we reverse this? We empower new generation to understand that personal virtue has the power to humanize. And we close with an inspiring story, inviting each youth and young adult to join us in restoring our culture. There are no graphic images in this presentation. We are deeply grateful for the overwhelming response of food donations in December. There were over 250 homeless served at Loaves and Fishes Friendship Park on our donation day. They send their sincere thanks. Also very much appreciated were the warm hats, scarves, and gloves that were donated. There were even blankets and jackets! Your Corporal Works of Mercy brought nourishment, warmth and caring. The collection cart remains in the church vestibule for ongoing donations. They may be dropped off during the daily open hours of the Church. The next delivery date will be Wednesday, January 27.

Inspiration for the Week

We carry a greater depth of self-confidence and chance of succeeding when we have affirmation, a sense of direction and clear purpose in life. Each of these serve to provide our lives with meaning, allowing us to clearly establish priorities and goals. They also are necessary for integrity, which is the conviction and single mindedness that keeps us grounded in the truth of who we are. "You are my beloved Son; with you I am well pleased." Jesus' baptism provides him with exactly what he needs to get about the business of his mission as the Son of God. He is given what he needs to be successful in fulfilling the purpose for which he was sent. Our baptisms give us these same gifts. We receive the affirmation we need from God, knowing that we are one of his beloved daughters and sons. We are gifted with the direction and clear purpose we need in order to be productive stewards and faithful Christians. Are we ready and willing to answer the call?

Thank You for Your Cards

Dear SJB community,

Thank you so very much for your generosity and thoughtfulness this Christmas season! We collected several hundred Christmas cards during the last month for the inmates at California State Prison, Sacramento. The opportunity for inmates to send cards to family and loved ones is hugely important. Many of these cards have been passed out, and the rest will be distributed next Christmas.

God bless,
Chaplain Greg Mellor

Sharing the Gospel

"Keep trying. You're doing great. I'm so proud of you." Every child should hear words like that. Every child wants to feel God's love. As Jesus grew from a boy to a man, he showed he was ready to live for God. At Jesus' baptism, God told Jesus, "You are my own dear Son, and I am pleased with you." God loves you as his child, too.

Mission for the Week

Be careful to use kind words with your family and friends.

MINISTRIES

"Here am I, Lord;
I come to do your will."

Why do we hold hands during the Our Father?

The practice of members of the assembly holding hands while praying the Lord's Prayer during the Mass is a custom that developed organically in the 1970s and 1980s. While some commentators acknowledge that the practice varies from place to place, it is a fairly universal reality in parishes across the United States. For some, this action symbolizes the communion of Christians praying together as one family of believers honoring the Father of All. Critics of the practice sometimes express concern that holding hands can be a distraction from the more significant unity that is experienced when we process to the altar to receive sacramental communion. And so, we're left to ask, what is the answer?

The General Instruction of the Roman Missal (the document that offers specific instructions for the celebration of the Mass) is silent on the practice, saying only that "all the faithful say the prayer" with the priest. The website of the US Bishops simply observes that "No position is prescribed in the Roman Missal for an assembly gesture during the Lord's Prayer." And so, we're left to discern within ourselves and within our parish and religious communities what is an authentic gesture of praise during this important point of the Mass. For some, this means continuing to hold hands, while for others, this may mean adopting another posture of prayer.
