Gospel Meditation

By Father John Muir
11th Sunday in Ordinary Time
Matthew 9:36-10:8

A few years ago, I met a woman in my parish who was a successful lawyer. Yet in her free time, she poured her energy into a nonprofit she founded to advocate for children with special needs. When I what inspired her, she spoke of her niece, who was born with disabilities. Her niece was both a glorious gift and a constant challenge. Out of that painful, beautiful experience, she felt called to create something lasting for other children and parents. The nonprofit thrived, not because she had mapped it all out, but because sasked he was deeply moved to act.

In today's Gospel, Jesus is "moved with compassion" for the crowd, for they were "like sheep without a shepherd." (Matthew 9:36) So he calls his disciples, ordinary men with no special qualifications, and sends them to heal, preach, and cast out demons. Their mission flows not from their skills but from his authority and the Spirit's gifts.

The Second Vatican Council teaches that the Spirit continually pours out charisms, special graces for the good of the Church and the world (cf. Lumen Gentium 4 & 12). These often arise from the unfolding of our lives: from what breaks your heart, what fills you with hope, what suffering has shaped you. The Spirit works through those very experiences to equip us with gifts that build up others.

What is your charism? Well, what needs around you call you to loving action? This could be where Christ is sending you. Allow your heart to be moved like Christ's. Then get to work.

Questions of the Week

1st Reading

God reveals to Moses His intention to make Israel a "treasured possession among all the peoples...a kingdom of priests, a holy nation." Have you ever received an incredible gift you never saw coming?

2nd Reading

Paul teaches us that as believers, we have been reconciled to God through our Lord Jesus Christ. Can you think of a time when you reconciled with a friend or family member?

Gospel

Jesus commissioned his 12 Apostles to carry on his missionary work of healing the sick and exorcising unclean spirits. Do you have a sense of mission for your life?

Live the Liturgy Inspiration For the Week

In his mercy, Jesus sent his Apostles into ministry — and the Apostles are still ministering today. We see them in the sanctuary, in the confessional. They are our priests, sent to shepherd Christ's sheep. This week, let's pray for our shepherds.

We congratulate all of these outstanding students and wish them continued success in their educational and spiritual journeys. Did you know that on Tuesday mornings you can come to Holy Mass at 8:15, and then when Mass is over move into the chapel area (if you are not already there) and in about 10 minutes you can pray the Rosary with the Rosary Group that meets there every morning after the 8:15 Mass. And, when you are finished with the Rosary, stay for lectio divina and Companioned Prayer, which start about 10 minutes later at 9:45 there in the Chapel. So, make it a 1-2-3! What a powerful morning of prayer! New to the Rosary, or lectio divina, or Companioned Prayer? Don't worry, others will lead you. If you wish to come for Companioned Prayer at 5:00 PM this Tuesday instead of 9:45 AM, contact Deacon Bill Goeke. So many ways to be drawn into the special grace and love of our Lord!

Vocations Cross Program

We invite our parish families to participate. It is our hope to support the Church in her effort to pray for priests and for an increase in priestly and religious vocations.

- Each weekend a family / individual will have the opportunity to pray for vocations. Take the Cross (kit) into your home and commit to saying the prayers provided on a daily basis.
- Return the complete kit the following weekend and it will be passed to a different family.

If you would like to take the Cross home, there is a sign up binder in the vestibule on the Welcome table. Just fill in your name at the Mass you will be attending. After communion you will be called up by the celebrant to receive the kit and a special blessing. You can return it the following week at any Mass. Just place the kit by the sign up binder. For more information on Vocations visit: scd.org/vocations.
