Gospel Meditation

By Father John Muir

Luke 24:13-35

When I first read Homer's Odyssey as a teenager, one scene captured my imagination: Odysseus finally returning home after 20 years, yet no one recognized him. Disguised as a beggar, he speaks with his wife, his son, and even his enemies. He is fully present, yet hidden. Only at the right moment does he reveal himself, and everyone realizes he has been with them all along. I was struck by the mystery that he could be so close to his loved ones, and yet they simply could not identify him.

A similar mystery is at the heart of today's Gospel. Two disciples walk the road to Emmaus with Jesus, but "their eyes were prevented from recognizing him." (Luke 24:16) He listens, teaches, and eats with them, yet they remain blind until he breaks the bread. Suddenly their eyes are opened — and at that very moment, he vanishes. His disappearance is not absence. Rather, it is revelation. The Risen Lord is now present in a new way, in the breaking of the bread and in the life of His Church.

Faith is this shift of vision. Instead of searching for a visible Jesus as if he were absent, we learn to recognize him unveiled in hidden ways — in Scripture proclaimed, in the Eucharist, in the sacraments, in the very life of the Church. And what is true of him is true of us. Just as he disappears into the mission of his Body, we too are meant to be hidden in him. When we live hidden in Christ, we are seen for who we really are.

Questions of the Week

1st Reading

In his first speech on the streets of Jerusalem, Peter quotes Psalm 16 as proof of God's promise to David in raising Jesus from the dead. Have you ever made a promise to God?

2nd Reading

In the resurrection of Jesus, Peter urges us to have our faith and hope in God. What is something you could hope for from God this week?

Gospel

Jesus' interpretation of Scripture opened the eyes of the two disciples. Does reading the Bible bring you clarity?

Let us pray for priests going through moments of crisis in their vocation, that they may find the accompaniment they need and that communities may support them with understanding and prayer.

Live the Liturgy Inspiration For the Week

Like Cleopas, we make our way through this world with weary feet and disappointed hearts. Christ falls into step beside us. He can open our eyes. Will we let him?

Jesus is our savior, our redeemer, our Lord, and our God. Our belief in Jesus is what makes us who we are as Catholics, as Christians, but do we really know him as we should? Is Jesus a part of your life, or is he at the center of your life as he should be? We invite you to make him the center of your life by joining us for Jesus: The Way, the Truth, and the Life, a 10-week video study program that explores the entirety of Jesus' life and what he means for us as Catholics today. There are 2 classes to choose from, Tuesday evenings and Friday mornings. Participants will meet every week for fellowship and a lively group discussion, followed by an engaging video presentation by Marcellino D'Ambrosio, Jeff Cavins, and Edward Sri. Registration fee is $35 to cover cost of book and workbook. Registration forms are available in the vestibule and Parish Office. Submit registration form with payment (cash or check payable to St John the Baptist) to the Parish Office. For more information contact Lili. We hope you can join us!

Wednesday, April 22

Contact: divinemercury@folsomcatholic.org

The Divine Mercy Ministry continues to be grateful for the generous response received in the collection of food for the homeless. The collection cart remains in the church vestibule for dropping off your donations. Items most requested are: cup-of-soups, peanut butter and cheese crackers, hot chocolate packets, oatmeal packets, nutritious granola bars, jars of peanut butter and jelly, raisins, nuts, fruit juices, bottled water, and fruit cups. Fresh fruits are welcome and should be dropped off the day before, on Tuesday, during church open hours. Bibles, holy cards, rosaries and religious reading materials are also appreciated. Always welcome are socks and mugs. Please email us if you interested in driving or helping serve?

In Laudato Si', Pope Francis gave voice to the concept of integral ecology which emphasizes the deep connection between our relationships with each other and the Lord Jesus as members of His One Body, as well as all creation. We are called to rediscover in awe and wonder the beauty of creation and at the same time, respond to the cry of the earth.

EARTH DAY

APRIL 22

3 Ways Catholics Can Care For the Earth

1. Get educated on how the Church expects us to care for creation. How? Start by reading the Laudato Si' encyclical by Pope Francis.

2. Commit to creating less "convenient" waste. For example:
• Use refillable water bottles or coffee tumblers instead of one-time use items.
• Try out reusable beeswax wrap to preserve food instead of plastic wrap.

3. Donate some time to a local creation-care organization. Consider volunteering for a:
• local park/beach cleanup
• neighborhood recycling event
• local community garden

KID'S CORNER

"Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these."

Read the Gospel and Color

Lk 24:13-35

Even though he had risen from the dead, two of Jesus' friends had not seen him yet. These men were still sad and confused. Imagine their surprise when Jesus walked with them, explained the Scriptures about the Savior, and then broke bread for a meal. They saw him alive!

Prayer

Jesus, when I am sad or confused, help me to remember that you are alive and with me always.

Mission for the Week

Pack a bag with some snacks and your Bible, and take a long walk with your family. When you stop to eat your snacks, read your favorite story about Jesus.
